

GERMAN AIR FIGHTERS OF LATEST TYPE SAID TO EXCEED ALL OTHERS

Far Superior as Fighting and Reconnoitering Machines to Any of Those in Use.

FOR CAMPAIGN IN SPRING

Believed New Inventions Will Swarm Over Allied Lines When Weather Has Moderated.

Paris, Feb. 3.—(I. N. S.)—Germany has been improving her fighting air craft and now has, according to information received by the French military authorities, half a dozen different types of aeroplanes far superior as fighting and reconnoitering machines to anything heretofore employed. The information is that as soon as the weather is favorable, these new machines will be seen in action along the allied lines.

Have Great Power.
Headed by a power motor, which is a rather delicate machine, the handle, the Germans have perfected what is known as the L. V. G. biplane. This is a machine of 160 horsepower, with a speed of 100 miles an hour at a height of 6000 feet. It is able to climb 1000 feet in 15 minutes. It is fitted with electric lights, bomb throwers, flash signaling, gas masks, machine guns, and is armed with Lewis machine guns, which are regarded as the most efficient for air work.

For Spring Campaign.
The Germans also possess improved aviatiks, airbuses and other planes, according to captured aviators. These, it is expected, will swarm over the allied lines in the spring. Information says the German experts are devoting themselves principally to perfecting their aeroplanes in speed and higher altitude work with the use of but one motor. The paper points out that the Germans have not many seated aircraft and none with invisible wings.

Cure Provided for English Defectives

University of Oregon Students Who Murder the Language to Be Sent to "Hospital" for Treatment.

University of Oregon, Eugene, Feb. 3.—Students after whose names "Eng." appears in the grade report after this winter's examinations will be sent to a "hospital." The English hospital for English defectives was authorized by the faculty at a meeting last fall. The department of English will provide special corrective work for the youngsters, numerous in every university, who can't speak, can't punctuate, have no appreciation of cadence and who in short have either "slid through" their English work in high school or are naturally "deformed" in respect to English.

Professor Barnett Honored.
University of Oregon, Eugene, Feb. 3.—James D. Barnett, P. D., professor of political science in the state university, has been made a member of the executive council of the American Political Science Association. Dr. Barnett recently published an extensive work on "The Initiative, Referendum and Recall in Oregon," in which the history of these three movements is traced from their beginning in the state. In the coming issue of the Political Science Quarterly Dr. Barnett will have an article on "The Presidential Primary in Oregon."

Child Labor Bill Passed 337 to 46

Measure Approved by House Prohibits Interstate Shipment of Goods Manufactured Where Children Work.

Washington, Feb. 3.—(I. N. S.)—The house yesterday passed the Keating child labor bill by a vote of 337 to 46. The bill prohibits interstate shipment of goods manufactured in plants where children under 14 are employed. Mine and quarry products from mines or quarries employing children under 16 also come under the ban.

Kept Daughter From School.

Hartford, Conn., Feb. 3.—(U. P.)—Because 14-year-old Martha Ratke's parents kept her from school to tend to a herd of cows, they were sentenced to 30 days in jail.

Washing Won't Rid Head of Dandruff

The only sure way to get rid of dandruff is to dissolve it, then you destroy it entirely. To do this, get about four ounces of ordinary liquid arvon; apply it at night when retiring; use enough to moisten the scalp and rub it in gently with the finger tips. Do this tonight, and by morning most if not all of your dandruff will be gone, and three or four more applications will completely dissolve and entirely destroy every single grain and trace of it, no matter how much dandruff you may have. You will find, too, that all itching and digging of the scalp will stop at once, and your hair will be fluffy, lustrous, glossy, silky and soft, and look and feel a hundred times better. You can get liquid arvon at any drug store. It is the only dandruff cure never fails to do the work. (Adv.)

Receivers Named for California Oil Co.'s

Take Iron, Says Doctor, if You Want Plenty of "Stay There" Strength Like an Athlete!

Ordinary Nuxated Iron Will Make Delicate Nervous Run-down People 50% Stronger in a Short Time, in Many Cases.

NEW YORK, N. Y.—Most people foolishly seem to think they are going to get stronger by taking iron. But from some stimulating medicine, secret nostrum or narcotic drug, said Dr. Bauer, a specialist in this city, when as a matter of fact, real and true strength can only come from the food you eat. But people often fail to get the strength out of their food because they haven't enough iron in their blood to enable it to change food into living matter. From their weakened, nervous condition, they get nervous, and when wrong, but they can't tell what, so they generally commence doctoring for stomach, liver or kidney troubles, symptoms of some other ailment caused by the lack of iron in the blood. This thing may go on for years, while the patient suffers untold agony. If you are not strong or well, you owe it to yourself to make the following test. See how long you can work or how far you can travel without becoming tired. Next take two five grain tablets of ordinary nuxated iron three times per day after meals for two weeks. Then test your strength again and see for yourself how much you have gained. Mine several dozens of nervous, run-down people who were ailing all the while, doubt and even triple the strength and endurance and entirely get rid of all symptoms of dyspepsia, liver and other troubles in from ten to fourteen days' time simply by taking iron in the proper form. And this is what they had in some cases been doctoring for months without obtaining any benefit. But don't take the old forms of iron simply to save a few cents. You must take iron in a form that can be easily absorbed and assimilated like nuxated iron. You want it to do you some good, otherwise it may prove worse than useless. Many an athlete or prize fighter has won the day simply because he knew the secret of great strength and endurance and filled his blood with iron before he went into the fray, while many another has gone down to inglorious defeat simply for the lack of iron.

REV WILLIAM LORD, A FORMER PORTLAND MINISTER SUICIDES

Pastor Who Died at Dover, Mass., Was Well Known as Social Worker, Author.

Rev. William R. Lord who died Tuesday in his home in Dover, Mass., lived in Oregon in the '90's and while here was pastor of the First Unitarian church, Broadway and Taylor streets. He was a social worker, author of a book remembered by every public school child in Portland in recent years—"Birds of Oregon"—and a lecturer.

Rev. Mr. Lord was one of the early advocates of equal suffrage. During the Spanish-American war he was outspoken in condemnation of the course of the United States. He maintained that the war was unlawful and unjust. Portland friends had heard nothing of the minister's recent illness and the news dispatches of his death surprised them. Mrs. Lord died about a year ago. Dr. T. L. Elliot, pastor emeritus of the First Unitarian church, believes that the pastor probably never recovered from the grief caused by his wife's death.

Before coming to Oregon Rev. Mr. Lord was trained in reform movement with such names as William Lloyd Garrison. "He was what might be termed a sweet tempered radical," said Dr. T. L. Elliot today in speaking of the death of Rev. William R. Lord. "He was always going put for the under dog. He opposed the Spanish-American war when we all were for it, and history seems to be bearing him out. He ever reached out to help the drunkard and other social unfortunates. He took a passionate interest in birds and his book, 'Birds of Oregon,' went through two editions."

A well-known authority states that stomach trouble and indigestion is nearly always due to acidity—acid stomach—and not as most folks believe, from a lack of digestive juices. He states that an excess of hydrochloric acid in the stomach retards digestion and starts food fermentation, then our meals sour like garbage in a can, forming acid fluids and gases which inflate the stomach like a toy balloon. We then get that heavy, lumpy feeling in the chest, we eructate sour food, belch gas, or have heartburn, flatulence, waterbrash, or nausea.

Share and Share Alike

He tells us to lay aside all digestive aids and instead, get from any pharmacy four ounces of Jad Salts, and take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast while it is effervescing, and furthermore, to continue this for one week. While relief follows the first dose, it is important to neutralize the acidity, remove the gas-making mass, start the liver, stimulate the kidneys and thus promote a free flow of pure digestive juices.

Jad Salts is inexpensive and is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with salts of sodium phosphate. This harmless salt is used by thousands of people for stomach trouble with excellent results. (Adv.)
