quett of Bride roses. Miss Laura Pregel, sister of the bride, was the maid of honor. She was gowned in pale green satin, and carried an armful of pink carnations. The Misses Edith and Ruth Schmuckli, sisters of the groom, were bridesmaids. They were charming in green taffeta, each carrying an arm bouquet of pink carnations. Karl Kline acted as best man.

The bridal party came in to the strains of the wedding hymn from Lohengrin, played by Miss Miriam Schmuckli, who also accompanied Miss Hazel Gunther in the vocal selections "I Love You Truly." The two brides of the bride, dressed in white tulle, were flower girls.

The bride is a popular Hood River girl. The bridegroom, one of Portland's promising young business men, is a popular and active member of the Portland Rowing club. After the ceremony, refreshments were served in the church dining room.

Mr. and Mrs. Schmuckli left immediately afterwards on the S. S. Great Northern for an extended bridal tour through southern California. On their return March 1, they will be at home to their many friends in Hawthorne addition.

From the Fresno Republic of Fresno, Cal., the following interesting note to friends of the bridegroom, a former Portland man, is reprinted: "On Thursday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. B. P. Goodridge, 1500 I street, will be solemnized the nuptials of their daughter, Miss Frances Goodridge and Guy E. Leonard, with the immediate relatives and close friends of the couple as wedding guests. There will be a simplicity in the appointments, and the formality of wedding attendants will be dispensed with. The bride-to-be is unusually attractive, of a striking blonde type and
