

LIGHTNER BRANDS CHARGES AS FALSE TO DEMAND INQUIRY

SAYS PUBLIC MUST KNOW

Chairman of Board Says He Is Charged With Selling Out Jobs—Political Antisms Blamed

My first campaigning will be before the grand jury, says W. L. Lightner, chairman of the board of county commissioners, who has just announced his candidacy for re-election.

Mr. Lightner has held office as county commissioner for 12 years. "I am one of the pioneers in the movement for better roads in this state and county," he said.

Wealthy Canadians Are Bound for War

Michael Broker of Victoria, B. C., and Brother Show More Humble Brothers Are Not Alone in Valor

Man Hit by Train Dies of His Injuries

Laborer Supposed to Be A. Keldrich of Chicago Fatally Wrecked While Working on the O-W. R. & N. Tracks

Hits Curb in Dark

Dr. C. W. Hamilton, 716 Dekum building, was slightly injured early Sunday morning when an automobile driven by J. Gates on 33d Clay street ran into the parking around the circle in the center of the Ladd tract and turned turtle.

Theft of Cow Charged, Men Are Arrested

H. H. French Complains of Loss; Says That He Found Carcass Hanging in Slaughterhouse

GERMANS TAKE MILE OF FRENCH TRENCHES ON CHAMPAGNE FRONT

Greatest Success of Germans In West Since Ypres Is Recorded; Highway Reached

London, Feb. 14.—(U. P.)—Claiming a gain not surpassed except once since the great battle of the Marne, the Berlin official statement today said the Germans had captured a mile of French trenches in the Champagne region.

French Trenches Captured

Attack on Long Line

Another Vaudeville Circuit May Come In

Man Hit by Train Dies of His Injuries

Laborer Supposed to Be A. Keldrich of Chicago Fatally Wrecked While Working on the O-W. R. & N. Tracks

Hits Curb in Dark

Dr. C. W. Hamilton, 716 Dekum building, was slightly injured early Sunday morning when an automobile driven by J. Gates on 33d Clay street ran into the parking around the circle in the center of the Ladd tract and turned turtle.

BODIES OF CANOE TRIP VICTIMS HAVE NOT BEEN RECOVERED YET

Friends Patrol River and Find the Craft—Dance Is Postponed

Washington, Feb. 14.—The doctrine of state's rights is being particularly invoked at this session of congress in opposition to two-particular legislation. One group of its devotees is composed, strangely enough, of western Republicans who oppose the bill for federal control of the bodies of Harry W. Gamble and Charles L. Kirkpatrick, who were drowned in the Willamette Saturday.

STATE'S RIGHTS IS INVOKED ON FERRIS BILL, CHILD LABOR

Washington, Feb. 14.—The doctrine of state's rights is being particularly invoked at this session of congress in opposition to two-particular legislation. One group of its devotees is composed, strangely enough, of western Republicans who oppose the bill for federal control of the bodies of Harry W. Gamble and Charles L. Kirkpatrick, who were drowned in the Willamette Saturday.

FIRST ATTACK UPON BRANDEIS LACKS WEIGHT

to represent only one side. The commission wanted him to look up the alder, and to take part as an expert in the protection of the public interest.

Another Vaudeville Circuit May Come In

Man Hit by Train Dies of His Injuries

Laborer Supposed to Be A. Keldrich of Chicago Fatally Wrecked While Working on the O-W. R. & N. Tracks

Hits Curb in Dark

Dr. C. W. Hamilton, 716 Dekum building, was slightly injured early Sunday morning when an automobile driven by J. Gates on 33d Clay street ran into the parking around the circle in the center of the Ladd tract and turned turtle.

stones or brick for materials coming from any particular locality. It is the policy of the department, however, where a suitable local material is shown to exist in proved quantity, to so draw the specifications that the local product will have opportunity to compete.

Washington, Feb. 14.—The doctrine of state's rights is being particularly invoked at this session of congress in opposition to two-particular legislation. One group of its devotees is composed, strangely enough, of western Republicans who oppose the bill for federal control of the bodies of Harry W. Gamble and Charles L. Kirkpatrick, who were drowned in the Willamette Saturday.

Washington, Feb. 14.—The doctrine of state's rights is being particularly invoked at this session of congress in opposition to two-particular legislation. One group of its devotees is composed, strangely enough, of western Republicans who oppose the bill for federal control of the bodies of Harry W. Gamble and Charles L. Kirkpatrick, who were drowned in the Willamette Saturday.

Washington, Feb. 14.—The doctrine of state's rights is being particularly invoked at this session of congress in opposition to two-particular legislation. One group of its devotees is composed, strangely enough, of western Republicans who oppose the bill for federal control of the bodies of Harry W. Gamble and Charles L. Kirkpatrick, who were drowned in the Willamette Saturday.

Unidentified Man Drops From Bridge

Portland, Feb. 14.—An unidentified man was drowned last night about 8:10 o'clock when he fell from the draw of the Spokane, Portland & Seattle railway bridge across the Willamette river.

4300 Strikers Win Fight for Increase

New York, Feb. 14.—(I. N. S.)—The state board of arbitration has brought about a settlement whereby the 4300 striking employees of the American Sugar Refining company at Williamsburg will return to work today.

Miss Lesley Smith To Wed C. E. Miller

Portland, Feb. 14.—Miss Lesley Smith, prominent pianist and daughter of the late A. T. Smith, prominent pioneer of Portland, is to be wed to C. E. Miller, son of Mrs. Miller, on Wednesday afternoon at 7 o'clock.

Baby Falls Into a Can of Sugar, Dies

Astoria, Or., Feb. 14.—Henry M. Hauke, 14-months-old son of Mrs. Erick Hauke, fell into a can of sugar in the pantry at the Hauke home and smothered to death.

$3187 JUDGMENT IS OBTAINED AGAINST BLAKE-M'FALL CO.

Franz H. Elling Wins Suit for Damages Sustained in an Automobile Accident.

VERDICT IS OPENED TODAY

This is the third trial which was given out of collision resulting in the death of Mrs. Elling.

Washington, Feb. 14.—The doctrine of state's rights is being particularly invoked at this session of congress in opposition to two-particular legislation. One group of its devotees is composed, strangely enough, of western Republicans who oppose the bill for federal control of the bodies of Harry W. Gamble and Charles L. Kirkpatrick, who were drowned in the Willamette Saturday.

Unidentified Man Drops From Bridge

Portland, Feb. 14.—An unidentified man was drowned last night about 8:10 o'clock when he fell from the draw of the Spokane, Portland & Seattle railway bridge across the Willamette river.

4300 Strikers Win Fight for Increase

New York, Feb. 14.—(I. N. S.)—The state board of arbitration has brought about a settlement whereby the 4300 striking employees of the American Sugar Refining company at Williamsburg will return to work today.

Miss Lesley Smith To Wed C. E. Miller

Portland, Feb. 14.—Miss Lesley Smith, prominent pianist and daughter of the late A. T. Smith, prominent pioneer of Portland, is to be wed to C. E. Miller, son of Mrs. Miller, on Wednesday afternoon at 7 o'clock.

Baby Falls Into a Can of Sugar, Dies

Astoria, Or., Feb. 14.—Henry M. Hauke, 14-months-old son of Mrs. Erick Hauke, fell into a can of sugar in the pantry at the Hauke home and smothered to death.

PORTLAND WOMAN HIGHLY HONORED

Miss Emma E. Grittinger, superintendent of the Portland Visiting Nurse Association, has been elected a director of the National Organization for Public Health Nursing.

Miss Lesley Smith To Wed C. E. Miller

Portland, Feb. 14.—Miss Lesley Smith, prominent pianist and daughter of the late A. T. Smith, prominent pioneer of Portland, is to be wed to C. E. Miller, son of Mrs. Miller, on Wednesday afternoon at 7 o'clock.

Baby Falls Into a Can of Sugar, Dies

Astoria, Or., Feb. 14.—Henry M. Hauke, 14-months-old son of Mrs. Erick Hauke, fell into a can of sugar in the pantry at the Hauke home and smothered to death.

RESERVE BOARD ASKS SIX AMENDMENTS TO RESERVE SYSTEM ACT

Report Declares Act One of Best Ever Passed and Success Fully Proven.

CHANGES ADD TO SCOPE

Washington, Feb. 14.—(I. N. S.)—Congress today was asked to arrange for six amendments to the federal reserve act when the federal reserve board presented its report after a year's activity under the new banking plan.

Washington, Feb. 14.—(I. N. S.)—Congress today was asked to arrange for six amendments to the federal reserve act when the federal reserve board presented its report after a year's activity under the new banking plan.

Unidentified Man Drops From Bridge

Portland, Feb. 14.—An unidentified man was drowned last night about 8:10 o'clock when he fell from the draw of the Spokane, Portland & Seattle railway bridge across the Willamette river.

4300 Strikers Win Fight for Increase

New York, Feb. 14.—(I. N. S.)—The state board of arbitration has brought about a settlement whereby the 4300 striking employees of the American Sugar Refining company at Williamsburg will return to work today.

Miss Lesley Smith To Wed C. E. Miller

Portland, Feb. 14.—Miss Lesley Smith, prominent pianist and daughter of the late A. T. Smith, prominent pioneer of Portland, is to be wed to C. E. Miller, son of Mrs. Miller, on Wednesday afternoon at 7 o'clock.

Baby Falls Into a Can of Sugar, Dies

Astoria, Or., Feb. 14.—Henry M. Hauke, 14-months-old son of Mrs. Erick Hauke, fell into a can of sugar in the pantry at the Hauke home and smothered to death.

Girl Says She Was Betrayed by Man Who Employed Her

Maintaining silence regarding Miss Beulah Holladay, 19 years old, who is alleged to have been seduced by a man who employed her from the Broadway bridge Saturday night, with the intention of committing suicide, a girl said by Mrs. Lola G. Baldwin, superintendent of the women's protective division of the police bureau, about a girl who had to learn more of the girl's history.

Arguments Made In Branson Case

Parents of Defendant Are Among Those Who Hear Attorney Plead for Freedom of Accused Man

Unidentified Man Drops From Bridge

Portland, Feb. 14.—An unidentified man was drowned last night about 8:10 o'clock when he fell from the draw of the Spokane, Portland & Seattle railway bridge across the Willamette river.

4300 Strikers Win Fight for Increase

New York, Feb. 14.—(I. N. S.)—The state board of arbitration has brought about a settlement whereby the 4300 striking employees of the American Sugar Refining company at Williamsburg will return to work today.

Miss Lesley Smith To Wed C. E. Miller

Portland, Feb. 14.—Miss Lesley Smith, prominent pianist and daughter of the late A. T. Smith, prominent pioneer of Portland, is to be wed to C. E. Miller, son of Mrs. Miller, on Wednesday afternoon at 7 o'clock.

Baby Falls Into a Can of Sugar, Dies

Astoria, Or., Feb. 14.—Henry M. Hauke, 14-months-old son of Mrs. Erick Hauke, fell into a can of sugar in the pantry at the Hauke home and smothered to death.

AMUSEMENTS HEILIG... THE NEER-DO-WELL... BAKER... THE MELTING POT... ORPHEUM... DOROTHY JARDON... THE PASSION PLAY OF WASHINGTON SQUARE... CANTAGES... THE THEATRE BEAUTIFUL—SIXTH AT WASHINGTON