Incomplete returns from the downown district show a sale yesterday of $522.39 worth of tags for the benefit of the Oregon Congress of Mothers. 550 worth of tags. Mrs. Alva Lee Stephens had one of the interesting experiences of the day, while selling at the Portland hotel. A man whom she asked to buy a tag told her he had no money, she smilingly assured him that she was surprised.""Because you look like a millionaire," she declared. "Do 1? Well, here's five dol-lars for that." and he left a shining gold piece in exchange for the tag. Later when his wife was asked to buy a tag, she said, "You just worked my usband for five dollars and what's nore I won't be able to live with him for a week after what you told him." The little tags bore the picture of Portland's 1915 perfect baby, the child of Mr. and Mrs. Owen Summers. Both Mrs. Summer and Mrs. Jacob Kanzler. mother of the 1913 perfect baby, were among the successful saleswomen. The mmittee to whom much credit is Sue for managing the sale, consists of Mrs. A. F. Flegel, Mrs. I. D. Bo Dins, Miss Wilda Buckman and Mrs. C. F. Clarke.
