

16 STUDENTS FORCED OUT OF COLLEGE, BUT NO ATHLETE DROPPED

University of Oregon Data Indicate That Sports Are No Handicap on Scholarship.

PENDLETON GIRL HONORED

Miss Clara Maley, a Senior, Is Elected Secretary of Student Body to Fill a Vacancy.

University of Oregon, Eugene, Or., Feb. 21.—Although 16 students were forced to leave college on account of insufficient credits earned during the past semester, there was not a single athlete in the students dropped. Twenty-five students fell below the mark, but six were allowed to remain in college on probation, having produced evidence of sickness and other valid excuses.

In high grades, the junior and senior classes lead, with the sophomores next and the freshmen last. The highest grades were received by Rosalind Bates of Eugene, wife of professor Bates, head of the department of rhetoric, and by Earl Fleischman, incumbent secretary of the student body.

Pendleton Girl Honored. University of Oregon, Eugene, Or., Feb. 21.—Miss Clara Maley, a senior from Pendleton, was elected secretary of the student body to fill the vacancy created by the graduation of Eva Brock of Hood River, incumbent. The position is the highest in the student body for the women.

DRAINAGE MOVEMENT AT ONTARIO TAKES IN 6000 OR 8000 ACRES

Most of the Land in Snake River Valley Now Can Be Brought Under Cultivation.

Ontario, Or., Feb. 21.—A movement is on foot to organize a drainage district here, to embrace some 6000 or 8000 acres of land lying adjacent to Ontario.

A preliminary survey indicates that most of the land in the Snake river valley can be effectively drained at not to exceed $15 per acre, which cost when met by a bond issue, maturing in 5, 10 or 15 years at a low interest rate, is small compared with the beneficial results to be obtained.

Home Buyer Arrives. Ontario, Or., Feb. 21.—The first influx of home buyers to come to this county this spring is Henry Moeller of Bennington, Neb., who is now on his way with two car loads of goods. Mr. Moeller declares that lands in Nebraska are higher than here and a rental of $7 an acre is asked there. He predicts that others from Nebraska will come here to locate.

Bootlegger Fined $60. Ontario, Or., Feb. 21.—The first case of bootlegging to come up here was tried before City Recorder Stearns a few days ago and resulted in the conviction of Dutch Charley and the paying of a $60 fine. Very few shipments of liquor are reported as coming to this city under the new law.

TRUSTEE FILES SUIT TO RECOVER PROPERTY IN BANKRUPTCY CASE

Claims W. E. Mallory Deeded Land to Relatives in Effort to Defraud His Creditors.

CONTEST OVER 159 ACRES

W. E. Ida, Rose Mallory and Mary Muff Are Defendants; Case Adjudged in Portland.

Salem, Or., Feb. 21.—Circuit Judge Galloway has under advisement the case of B. K. Knapp, trustee, against W. E. Ida and Rose Mallory and Mary Muff. W. E. Mallory filed a petition in bankruptcy in Portland January 15, 1915, and was adjudged a bankrupt. He had scheduled debts in the sum of $17,000, with no assets except an equity in 108 acres near Newberg. B. K. Knapp, as trustee, brought suit on behalf of the creditors to recover 159 acres of land near Newberg which the defendant conveyed to his wife, his sister-in-law, Mary Muff, and Ida Mallory four months before going into bankruptcy, it is asserted.

The trustee claims that the transfer was made to defraud creditors, while the defendant says it was for a consideration of $7000.

The trustee has also filed objections in federal court in Portland to the defendant's charge of bankruptcy. A hearing on the question of discharging Mallory was scheduled for February 23.
