ST. DAVID'S TO HAVE NURSERY FOR TOTS DURING CHURCH HOUR

Purpose to Enable Mothers to Attend Services; the Pro-Cathedral Finds Plan Good #

To enable mothers of young children to attend services at St. David's church a free kindergarten in charge of two instructors will be maintained in the parish house, from 11 a. m. each Sunday until after the morning service. The first session of the kindergarten will be held tomorrow Miss Empler and Miss Hall, experienced Sunday school teachers, will be

A new departure in Sunday school work will be inaugurated tomorrow. A regular church service for the children will be given at the regular Sunday school hour. The plan of taking the burden of caring for children during church hour is not exactly a new thing in Portland, the pro-cathedral of St. Stephen's having done this for a year or more past. At the pro-cathedral a trained nurse is engaged,

The idea is one of eastern origin and has been found to work with greatest success. In Portland, children of the primary class, from three years and up, are cared for, but in many cities even infants in arms are taken. These are provided with babies' and children's toys and fed with crackers and cookies, the theory being that if the little ones have a good time and can be made to look forward to the church hour, the mothers will be all the more likely to attend services. Mr. Jenkins intends to continue the children's nursery at least through topic being "Savonarola," the Reform-tent. If it is a success, it will be er of Italy." Five sermon lectures continued indefinitely, he says, just will be included, the last to be given children's nursery at least through continued indefinitely, he says, just as it is at the pro-cathedral.

THE WORLD'S DEBT TO THE MINISTRY

By Rev. James Dimond Corby, D. D., Pastor of the First Universalist Church.

If I wanted a friend I'd go to my pastor. In discouragement or trouble I would go to my minister. If I wanted counsel from one who wished my best welfare I would hunt up

Life here owes most of its safety, peace and kindness to the influence of the church. The ministers are men who serve their fellows faithfully without consideration for the money such service brings them. They must be ready to give their services freely to those who summon him, regardless of past moral record. He must comfort the sorrowing, visit the sick, advise with the anxious, help the weak, reason with the wayward and befriend the stranger.

When I'm misunderstood, when my acquaintances shun me, when society ignores me I am sure to find sympathy, substantial help, wise counsel, when I go to a minister. Never forget when you want a true friend, come to the minister and he will serve you in the spirit of one who said, "In as much as ye have done it unto the least of one of these, my brothers, ye have done it unto me."
