JESUS CAN MEET ALL HUMAN NEEDS By Rev. S. Earl Du Bois, Pastor of Church of the Strangers The hunger of the human heart is not satisfied with wheat bread nor its thirst with water from Mt. Hood. Nor does the fine poem or the rare painting stop the heart ache. These blessings are the possession of thousands who are still unhappy. Until the bread of satisfaction is found and partaken of, life is full of tantalizing hopes. God, who provides wheat bread and snow water, has not overlooked a sufficient provision for yearning, unsatisfied hearts. He sent One to walk the hills of Palestine with holy steps and to die on Golgotha's hill with lips uncomplaining. This One claimed to be living bread and living water that would forever banish hunger and thirst. Millions testify from actual experience that Jesus fulfilled His claims. No human need has arisen that Jesus cannot meet. He remains the solitary, all-sufficient savior of humanity.
