Easterners Jump Into Lead During Second Part of Game. Mext Contest Tuesday.

Montreal, Que., March 25 .- 1n s game marked by exceptional brilliance in spots, wretched play at others and fights among players and audience, the Canadiens, the eastern Canada champions, took the third game of the Stanley cup series from Portland, the Pacific Coast league winners, tonight, by a score of 6 to 3. The game saw some polished team play on the part of Portland in the first two periods, but constant substitution of speedy pisyers enabled the Canadiens to keep up a tremendous pace which the Rosc buds cracked under. Bad feeling between LaLonge, Canadien star center, and Johnson, king pin of the Portland team, led to a fisticuffs exhibition which finally called for police interference. The first period showed the goal scored for each side. The Canadiens took the lead in the second part of the game, finishing it by a lead of 4 to 3. Try-ing valiantly to come back in the last * period Portland made the game exciting until stamina failed them, then the Canadiens took the game into their own hands, charitably taking knuckles. If it had not been only two more goals,

Johnson and Oatman shone for Portland, but Irvine and Oatman gave * the second round. displays that left Murray in goal without support at crucial periods Pitre, of the Canadiens, played the game of his career, his skating and * puck stealing being remarkable. The * game was played under eastern rules, six men a side.

The Canadiens are now one game ahead in the series. The next game * will be Tuesday. The lineup:

There is no question that Moran put up a game fight but he had neither the size nor the skill to offset Willard's huge bulk and greater science. Willard injured his right hand early in the third round on Moran's head, which spoiled his chances to win by the knock-out route.

Then he mencing April 9 and ending June 25. seemed to wake up and had Moran ruessing. Willard laughed at Moran's wild swings and both men at the finish of the round.

Gameness Aroused Admiration. Willard showed for the first time how well he could fight if he wished to, and used his left and right at will on Moran's face and body. It was all Willard's round.

Moran's gameness aroused the admiration of the spectators, but his defense was woefully weak. Moran kept trying, but it was a slow round. The Pittsburger only other round that was not Moran's found little trouble breaking through by a mile, was the fourth, the first Willard's guard. Moran landed a right time in the fight that big Jess came on Willard's kidneys, and the champion to life looked even a little bit like a champion. The thing that surprised me most from the start of the fight was that Willard, big as a mountain and possessed of everything that should have given him the confidence of a Jove, seemed to be as rattled as a novice appearing before a crowd for the first time.
