

GIRLS TO BOOST FESTIVAL

Two human rosebuds of Portland, Grace and Ora Jane Cordson, will carry the message of the Tenth annual Rose Festival...

The two little girls, daughters of Mrs. and Mrs. C. H. Cordson, of the Wellesley court apartments, are going to make the trip to Savannah alone to spend the summer vacation with their grandparents.

The girls have taken part in the annual children's parade, the opening day feature of the Rose Festival. Unable to march with their playmates this year, Grace and Ora Jane wanted to help make the festival a success.

The result of the telephone call was that Mrs. Cordson was consulted and has agreed to permit the children to wear sport hats with bands giving the slogan and festival dates and arm bands as well on their middle boules.

No Assurance Given. F. I. Fuller, vice-president of the company, who was before the commission yesterday, stated that his company would give no definite assurance as to whether it would accept a franchise until it was determined on just what basis cars would have to be operated.

Henry Crass, of Vancouver, representing a transportation company of that town, was present at the meeting but he did not give any indication as to what his company proposed to do.

Others present at the meeting were Commissioners Lightner and Holbrook of Multnomah county; Commissioners Lindsey, Hanson and Eglar of Clatsop county; District Attorney Evans, prosecuting attorney Blair of Clark county; Engineer J. F. Harrington and Secretary Marshall, county commissioner Holman and Governor Withycombe, both members of the commission, were absent.

Church Burns Mortgage. Bend, Or., March 25.—The mortgage against the Methodist Episcopal church of Bend was burned last Sunday morning at the annual meeting, and the church is now free from debt. The sermon, preached by the pastor, Rev. F. W. Keagy, was on "The Joy of a Life of Helpfulness."

PERNICIOUS FICTION IMPOSED ON PUBLIC FROM BASE MOTIVES

Thomas G. Burke Cites Certain Phases of Mexican Affair by Way of Example.

JINGOES ARE VERY ACTIVE

People Not Swept Off Their Feet However by Such Alarming Utterances.

Pernicious fiction and its effect on the public mind when administered under the guise of news was discussed in an interesting address delivered Tuesday evening by Thomas G. Burke at a dinner of the members of the men's organizations of several central Presbyterian churches.

"A striking example of the pernicious fiction I mean, recently appeared in a Mexican newspaper. It was announced that the states of Texas and New Mexico had surrendered to Villa, that he was pushing north with his victorious army, and that the president of the United States and his family were fleeing to Canada."

"It appeared immediately after the midnight assassination of men, women and children in Columbus, N. M., by Villa and his murderous band of outlaws. Its obvious purpose was to arouse enthusiasm, encourage enmity, and secure aid among the country in behalf of that notorious bandit and his followers."

"This Mexican sample seemed grotesque and amusing from this distance, and the newspapers on this side of the Rio Grande had great fun with it. The news associations carried it through their innumerable channels. At the same time many newspapers all over the United States were circulating, and continue to circulate, sensational stuff emanating from some interested source, differing from this only in degree."

"I could follow along many lines the current pernicious fiction that is fed to us daily in the seductive form of news, but since I have mentioned Mexico I wish to continue with it and the pernicious fiction it is supplying to the press on both sides of the international boundary."

Glamors for War Frequent

"Certain newspapers have been clamoring for two years or more for a war with Mexico. They want an army sent in at any cost, to protect American interests and beat the natives into peaceful submission."

"I could follow along many lines the current pernicious fiction that is fed to us daily in the seductive form of news, but since I have mentioned Mexico I wish to continue with it and the pernicious fiction it is supplying to the press on both sides of the international boundary."

A Child Doesn't Laugh and Play If Constipated

Look, Mother! Is tongue coated, breath feverish and stomach sour?

"California Syrup of Figs" can't harm tender stomach, liver, bowels.

A laxative today saves a sick child tomorrow. Children simply will not take the time from play to bowels and bowels which become clogged up with waste, liver gets sluggish, stomach sour.

Look at the tongue, mother! If coated, if your child is listless, cross, feverish, breath bad, restless, doesn't eat heartily, full of cold or has sore throat or any other children's ailment, give a teaspoonful of "California Syrup of Figs," then don't worry, because it is perfectly harmless, and in a few hours all this constipation, poison, sour bile and fermenting waste will gently move out of the bowels and you'll have a well, playful child again. A thorough "inside cleansing" is often all that is necessary. It should be the first treatment given in any sickness.

Beware of counterfeit fig syrups. Ask your druggist for a 50-cent bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," which has full directions for babies, children and all ages. For grown-ups plainly printed on the bottle. Look carefully and see that it is made by the "California Fig Syrup Company." (Adv.)
