

BEAVERS GINGERED UP BY SNAPPY TALK OF 'BOSS' W. M'CREIDIE

Learn to Put Curve Ball Over Plate, He Advises Pitchers of the Team.

MEN HEED THE ADVICE

Boys Buckle Down to Hard Training in Manager's Wines Commendation of the Manager.

Sacramento, Cal., March 29.—Honest confession is good for the soul. That's the way both Manager McCreddie and his ball players felt after their first heart to heart talk in the clubhouse a day or so ago, preceding the Colored Giants series.

McCreddie, it is said, made one of the best talks that the players, individually and collectively, have heard from any manager of minor or major league status.

That the players were impressed was seen in their work for the afternoon and the keeping up of it the next day. McCreddie paid them the compliment of being the most earnest workers he had ever had anything to do with.

Boys Buckle Down

"I never saw anything like the way you boys have buckled down to the training," said Mac. "Heretofore we have always had a lot of laggards, but this season the players have been working for morning practice right on the dot; in fact, a majority have been getting out too early. We have been getting out before 10 o'clock and quitting the second period after 5. It has made some five hours of day in practice for you, and no protest has been heard. In fact, I never saw such morale. If this keeps up, I am not sure that we will win that pennant."

"For the most part you are experienced ball players and know how to play the game. I am not going to hamper you with a maze of signals, although I have no doubt that you could master any set of signals. I am not flatter you when I say you are the most intelligent set of baseball players I have ever known."

Pitchers Must Base

"I want you pitchers to become as valuable in winning every game as the regulars. I want you to get into your sliding pads and take your practice in the sand pit. I want a pitcher to slide into a base just like an outfielder. I want you to get out there and practice handling bunts. If you master that, we will have five infielders instead of four, as heretofore."

"Another thing I want you pitchers to do is this: Get your curve ball over the plate. The pitcher who is in a hole and who can get only his fast ball over the plate is not going to be a big hand. The pitcher who gets the reputation of using a curve in a pinch, it going to be the better always."

"I want you to go into that series with the Colored Giants and play just as if you were opening the Coast League race. I am not going to play hit and run and all the other inside stuff as you will be expected to play it when the regular season opens. It will be the best training you can have and I want you to make the most of it."

The pitchers immediately took McCreddie at his word and they went out and began curving the ball over the plate to the batters. It was good for both pitchers and batters. They took to the sliding pit like regulars, and Jimmy Clarke, who never slid into a base but once in his life, was the most enthusiastic of all.

BEACON ROCK NEW NAME OF POINT ON THE COLUMBIA RIVER

Geographic Board Drops the Name of "Castle Rock"; Other Names Are Settled.

Castle Rock on the Columbia river is no more.

The board is now the name of the celebrated basaltic pile, according to recent official decision of the United States Geographic board, entrusted with the duty of geographical designation for the entire United States. Beacon Rock is the original name as given by Lewis and Clarke.

The board has also decided a number of other disputed names in Oregon and Washington. Its decisions in most instances being a deletion of the possessive "s."

Here is a list of names in which the "s" is taboo: Austin point, Baker bay, Barlow light, Bourne landing, Burke island and slough, Campbell lake, Carr slough, Cooper island, Charlton landing, Cleveland landing, Dibblee point, Doane point, Fisher island, Fowler lake, Hunter bay, McIntyre landing, Price island, Riddle, Settler point, Smith point, Suttle lake, Welch island.

Basket slough is the correct name for the slough in Polk county, now called Mud slough. Bendire creek and mountain in Malheur county are proper, and not Ben Der, Bendier, Bendeir or Bendire.

It should be Deep Canyon creek in Wallowa county and not Bear, Little Minam or Sheep creek. Write it Elowah falls in Multnomah county, not Kelley falls; Little Minam river in Union, not Little Minum; McKennie Bridge, not McKinnis; North Tenmile, not North; South Tenmile, not Johnson, Ten Mile, nor Tenmile; Rickreall creek in Polk county, not La Creek; River not Rickreall.

The series of intermittent lakes in Lake county should be spoken of as Warner lakes, not Warner lake.

Portland May Ship Grain Into Mexico

Albers Bros. Have Yearly Contract to Furnish Forage for Western Department of Army.

Portland grain dealers may be called upon to furnish large supplies of forage for American cavalry and artillery horses on the Mexican border.

Albers Bros. have a yearly contract to furnish forage for the western department, and with the concentration of the American forces on the Mexican border, the contract will be filled by having the grain follow the army.

Reports of rush orders for 500 tons of oats are denied by the United States quartermaster in Portland. Preparations are being made for sacking and shipping, however, if the need arises.

ENGLISH IS REELECTED DIRECTOR OF RETAIL MERCHANTS' BUREAU

O. E. Heintz Retained as Director of Industries and Manufactures.

Despite his vociferous objection, J. C. English was unanimously reelected director of the retail merchants' bureau of the Portland Chamber of Commerce last night at the bureau's annual meeting.

O. E. Heintz was re-elected director of the industries and manufacturers' bureau for the full three year term and John Tait was elected to fill out the unexpired two years of the late A. J. Kinsley.

The meetings were scantily attended, less than 100 members of both bureaus appearing out of the 800 on the two membership rolls.

Annual Reports Made. Annual reports of the bureaus covered the work done during the year. George E. Hardy, executive secretary of the chamber, addressed both gatherings, urging the encouragement be given local industries, especially the manufacturing enterprises, lumber and the allied crafts of furniture making.

The manufacturers' bureau instructed its staff to conduct a survey of the manufacturing industries of the city as a guide to the public in patronizing the same. The report of this bureau contained a hearty endorsement of The Journal for its series of articles on "Nothing the West Can Do." showing that different manufacturing enterprises that are now in successful operation.

A similar paragraph appeared in the report of the retail merchants' bureau.

Festival Center Will Be Opened With Grand Promenade on Night of June 6 and Illumination of Broadway.

NAVAL MILITIA TO BE TRAINED TWO WEEKS ON U. S. BATTLESHIPS

Comprehensive Order Expected but Not Believed to Include Pacific Coast.

Washington, March 29.—(I. N. S.)—Orders will be issued from the navy department within the next few days announcing the most comprehensive training plan the department has yet devised for the naval militia of the various states. In the middle of August even as early as the service will be brought east and given his two weeks' cruise aboard a battleship.

The experiment was tried out on a small scale last year, when detachments from Wisconsin and Missouri were given their training in salt water on cruises on the great lakes or the Mississippi river.

It was so successful that the department decided to make it an annual affair in which every man in the service could participate.

It is proposed that on the cruise the ships will be manned with 40 per cent veterans from the regular service and 60 per cent militia men.

In this way the navy will be able to train its possible new men by intensive methods similar to those found successful by the army in its training camps of last summer.

Lieutenant Commander George F. Blair, commanding the Oregon Naval Militia, says that he is of the opinion that the order will not include the Pacific states, but only applies to the middle west and the Atlantic states.

United States Tires

'Chain' and 'Balance' Make Stable Tires

United States Tires, in more than name only, carry out the principle of 'union' and 'balance' which makes a great stable nation out of the forty-eight individual States of the Union.

United States Tires have that complete 'union' between rubber and fabric which absolutely prevents tread separation and disintegration under the tread.

They have that complete 'balance' which gives equal wear in both the tread and the carcass—neither is weaker nor stronger than the other.

Every part of each tire helps every other part to last longer—and that is the 'union' and 'balance' which give the whole tire longer life—which give the low-mileage cost for which United States Tires are famous.

There are five United States 'Balanced' Tires—a tire to meet every motoring need of price and use. Ask your dealer to show you.

How To Fight Tuberculosis
Dr. J. W. Gurnhart, of San Antonio, Texas, says: "Since time immemorial, the substance of all the mineral substances of the human body, they must be supplied in the foods or supplemented in mineral preparations, or essential guaranties against tuberculosis unchecked. The spread of tuberculosis and other preventable diseases is due largely to 'lack of food' (the lack of) conditions of malnutrition throughout the civilized world."

Since this is the way to render it easily assimilable.
Eckman's Alternative has effected remarkable results in tuberculosis, which, in many instances, apparently has yielded to it, and since it contains no poisons, narcotics or habit-forming drugs, it is safe to try.
Ask your druggist or send direct, Eckman Laboratory, Philadelphia.
