Prospects of Odd Fellows Promise to Materialize.

Ellison encampment, I. O. O. F., has secured an option on the lot at Tenth and Salmon streets, adjoining the lots recently purchased by Samaritan lodge, with the intention, it is said, of erecting a structure that can be used to advantage by both organizations. The option of the Ellison encampment is said to be held at $15,000.

is said to be held at $15,000.

Two plans are in contemplation for the improvement. One calls for a four story structure, the other for a Gramm, portion L. 25. B. 102, Laurelfour story structure, the other for a six story building. Samaritan lodge bought its holdings over a year ago. after first trying to interest a number of other lodges to make a joint building affair with thenr. REALTY BOARD WILL MEET

Eight Speakers Will Take Part in Meeting on Friday.

Paul Cowgill, secretary of the Portland realty board, has prepared a program for the regular Friday uncheon of the members at the Oregon hotel which he says will consist of "Taking Taks on Timely Topics."

Eight Speakers have volunteered to take part. They include Mike Clohessy, O. W. Taylor, E. M. McNaughton, Frank MacFarland, Herbert Gordon, O. S. Hubbell and Leo Friede, and John F. Daly. They will be allowed to choose their own subjects. to choose their own subjects.

Says Convention a Success.

E. A. Clark, this morning received a stelegram from F. N. Clark, who is at New Orleans with Fred H. Strong in attendance at the annual convention of the National association of Real Exchanges, in which he says that the convention is proving a magnificent success from point of attendance and business being transacted. The two Portland men expect to return in two weeks.

Committee Room Open.

The special committee quarters provided in room 211 of the Henry building for the members of the Portland Realty board is now equipped with its mplement of chairs, directors' table, wall maps, magazines and other refernce material suited to the needs of members. The room was used by the members for the first time today.

Love Badly Needed Power Bike and He Got It, Too---Pronto

Mr. McCollough of 59 North

Twenty-third street, had no use for his motorcycle. so decided after he had ridden the machine about 1500 miles and had gone to heavy expense in fitting it up with the lat-est wrinkles for the two wheeled power wagons. It *carried a speedometer, electric lights, and a tandem attachment. Moreover it cost him $350 and for speed was a "streak. On the other hand William Love had an acute need for * just that sort of a gasoline bike. He wanted one badly and was just waiting to snap up a good offer. But of course McCollough didn't know that Love, and many like him was in the market when he advertised his achine for sale in The Journal want ad columns. But he soon learned. Love with about $225 in gold jingling in his ieans, saw the ad, grabbed a car and soon was owner of the McCollough vehicle. The ad had satisfied two men. It's * true-that it pays to advertise!
