

DETAILED ACCOUNT OF TURNER FIGHT GIVEN BY OFFICIALS OF CITY

Mayor Indignantly Denies He Was in Hiding Sunday to Avoid Being Arrested.

LIQUOR IS GIVEN BLAME

"Whiskey Largely Responsible for Trouble," Asserts Mayor, "Who Says Band Members Were Drunk."

Salem, Or., April 4.—There were new developments Monday in the investigation of the affray at Turner Saturday night when the band faction caused the arrest of Oscar Cole on a charge of carrying concealed weapons. Cole was one of the men who accompanied Marshal Smith to the Browning Amusement company's tent, having been deputized by the marshal to do so.

Mayor Otto Thomas and Marshal Smith appeared before District Attorney Ringo Monday afternoon and discussed the affray. Smith gave the district attorney a detailed account of the fight which ended in bruised heads and the slaying of Robert Hunsaker, Jim Kelly and Martin Nicely.

Marshal Claims Advance Tip.

Smith took help along because he had been informed the trouble was planned and believed it could be averted by appearing with a sufficient showing of force, he said.

Indignantly denying that he was in hiding at any time Sunday, as asserted in a Salem dispatch to the Oregonian Monday, Mayor Thomas deplored the publication of such sensational and baseless articles tending to indicate that residents of Turner were divided into two gangs of thugs.

"I was at the depot in Turner at 10 o'clock Sunday morning when Sheriff Esch came to arrest Lee Jeans," said the mayor today. "I went to Portland on the train at that time and returned in the evening. I had no idea of concealing myself and there was absolutely no reason why I should do so."

Mayor a Turner Pioneer.

"I built the first house in Turner in 1873 and was agent for the Southern Pacific railroad 41 years and postmaster for 24 years and the publication of such false statements in a community where I have lived so long hurts. I will ask that the article be retracted and if the request is not complied with I will take other means of adjusting the matter."

The mayor declared that he had information showing that certain of the members of the Turner band telephoned to their friends in Turner and vicinity Saturday and told them to be on hand at the Browning tent that night as there was going to be a fight.

Says Band Members Drunk.

"I am of the opinion that had certain members of the band and their friends not been under the influence of liquor there would not have been any fight," he said. "Most of them were drunk and they had the attack carefully planned. Whiskey is largely responsible for the trouble."

That Ollie Knight of the band faction struck the first blow was asserted by Marshal Smith. His information was that Jeans was attacked by at least three men before he used a knife to defend himself.

Articles of Incorporation.

Salem, Or., April 4.—The following incorporation articles were filed Monday with Commissioner Schuderman: Commercial Supply company, Portland, capital stock $5000; A. J. Burroughs, M. Loffquist and Conrad P. Olson; Maplewood Trunk Manufacturing company, Maplewood, $2000; C. A. Partlow and J. P. and E. A. Hoffman.

Dental Examiners Appointed.

Salem, Or., April 4.—Governor Withycombe has signed the commission of Walter J. Larson, of Portland, and Alexander McDougall, of Baker, as members of the state board of dental examiners, and Bert Williams, of Portland, as member of the state board of examination and registration of dental graders. The appointments were forecasted in an announcement made by the governor some time ago.

School Clubs Are Formed in Klamath

Several Already Organized as Result of Visit of H. C. Seymour; County School Fair to Be Held.

Klamath Falls, Or., April 4.—The encouragement of industrial club work among the school children of Klamath county is now being carried on by H. C. Seymour, state leader in this form of educational endeavor. He is holding meetings at the different schools, discussing the matter of organization with the pupils and their teachers. Good results are being attained. Already several of the districts have organized clubs and taken up earnest work.

The work was carried on in Klamath county schools last year with remarkable success. This year, a county school fair is to be held under the direction of County Agriculture H. Roland Glasayer, to encourage the industrial work by the awarding of suitable prizes to the pupils meeting with the greatest success in their work.

Father Asks $5000 For His Son's Death

Milton and Freewater Doctors Are Sued by Weston Man Who Alleges Negligence in Giving Chloroform.

Pendleton, Or., April 4.—Charging Drs. R. Gowan Milton and J. E. Vanderpool of Freewater with responsibility for the death of his 4-year-old son, Charles Vandernde of Weston today brought suit for $5000 damages.

He alleges he took the lad to them for a minor operation and that he died as a result of the administering of chloroform. He alleges the physicians were negligent in not testing the boy's heart and watching the effects of the anesthetic.

Out for County Commissioner.

Pendleton, Or., April 4.—William Shipper, prominent sheepman, has announced his candidacy for the Republican nomination for county commissioner. He will oppose Thomas Hurlbert of Stanfield and J. M. Ashworth of Weston.
