TOWN TOPICS

To Discuss Forest Ranger.—Albert Wiesendanger of the U. S. forest service will speak on "The Work of a Forest Ranger" at the Sellwood branch library, 582 Nehalem avenue, this evening at 8 o'clock. In addition to the 125 slides which will be shown, there will be exhibited a complete pack outfit and a new portable telephone weighing 2 1/2 pounds which is part of the regular equipment of forest rangers on national forests. An Osborne Fire Finder, such as was used last summer on Mt. Hood for ascertaining the exact location of a forest fire, will also be shown and explained. This lecture will be repeated at the St. Johns branch library, Charleston and Kellogg streets, on Tuesday evening, April 25, at 8 o'clock.

Jewish Services Tonight.—Services will be held at Congregation Ahavai Shalom, Park and Clay streets, tonight at 8. Tomorrow morning's services will be at 9:30. Services for the conclusion of the Passover will be held Sunday evening, April 23, at 8 and Monday evening at 8, and Monday and Tuesday morning at 9:30. Rabbi R. Abrahamson will officiate.

Meeting at Gladstone Tonight.—The Oregon Social Hygiene society will hold a meeting tonight at 8 o'clock at the Gladstone school auditorium. A. P. Flegel will be the principal speaker. Short talks will be made by Dr. W. E. Hemstead and H. E. Cross. The meeting is free to men.

Deckhand Injured.—J. K. McGown, deckhand on the steamer Diamond O, residing at 61 North Second street, received seven fractured ribs last night when he stepped through an open hatch on the vessel. He is at St. Vincent's hospital.

Horse Falls, Man Injured.—L. P. Dalrymple, of 22 Ellis street, was taken to St. Vincent's last night with a fractured right leg, received when his horse fell on him at Twenty-second and Johnson streets.

Dr. Rebec to Give Lecture.—"Christianity in the Modern World" will be the subject of discussion in the young men's forum of the First Methodist church, Sunday, April 23. Dr. George Rebec, professor of philosophy in the University of Oregon, will be the speaker. This is the fourth of a series of lectures on the history and growth of the Christian church. Sunday, April 30, the subject will be "Is the Church Answering the Call of the Twentieth Century Red-Blooded Men?" and will be discussed by 10 members of the forum in three-minute talks.

Two Meetings at Fairview.—Much interest is displayed in Fairview in the meetings of the Oregon Social Hygiene society to be held there tomorrow. Delegation from Troutdale, Rockwood and near-by places are planning to attend. At 2:30 p. m. Mrs. H. H. Heller of Portland will address mothers and other adult women on the subject, "How Shall I Tell My Child?" At 8 p. m. men will hear Dr. J. M. Short, E. B. McNaughton and S. B. Hall. C. H. Stone will preside. Both meetings will be held in the city hall and are free.

Collision Frightens Horse.—When W. D. Whitlock, driver, ran his machine into a horse and buggy standing in front of a drug store at First and Sherman streets last night, the animal became frightened and ran away. D. McGreal, owner of the horse, was thrown from the rig when the automobile struck it. The horse ran south, losing the buggy at First and Arthur streets, and ended its dash by plunging into a north-bound streetcar a short distance farther on. Patrolman Sinnott captured the horse.

Teachers to Take Outing.—A day's outing along the Columbia river is planned for the Portland school teachers, who will leave in a special train from the union depot at 9 o'clock tomorrow morning. They will go to Bonneville, where at 11:30 a basket lunch will be had, and on the return trip time will be given for viewing the various falls and gorges to be seen along the Columbia river highway.

Escaped Patient Is Captured.—Chris Koman, an inmate of the Morningstar hospital, was arrested in Hood River yesterday by Chief of Police J. K. Carson while headed eastward foot on the railroad track. Koman wore his hospital uniform and confessed to having escaped from the institution. A. C. Dille, supervisor of the institution, went to Hood River last night to bring Koman back to Portland.

Motorcycle Is Smashed.—A motorcycle ridden by Andrew Reznicek of Linnton was badly smashed in a collision with a garbage truck at Grand avenue and East Burnside street early after 5 o'clock this morning. Both vehicles were moving rapidly, witnesses told Patrolman Weber. No one was injured.

To Discuss Shakespeare.—Professor Norman F. Coleman will lecture on "Shakespeare's Character Revealed in His Work" this evening at 8 o'clock in Library hall. This will be the ninth lecture in the Reed college extension course of lectures commemorating the tercentenary of Shakespeare's death.

To Feature Columbia Highway.—The Chamber of Commerce has been advised that the June issue of "World's Work" will contain an elaborate article on the Columbia river highway. Ten full page illustrations are to be used, and it is understood that these are to be in colors.

Sugar King Due Soon.—J. D. Spreckels of San Francisco, president of the Oceanic Steamship company, sugar king and many times millionaire, is expected to arrive in Portland this afternoon. He is now being sued in the federal court by R. A. Graham.

Stainer's Crucifixion will be sung tonight at 8 o'clock at St. Stephen's pro-cathedral, 13th and Clay streets, under the direction of Carl Denton.—Adv.

a half day walk Sunday. M. W. Gorman, the naturalist, will lead the trip, and the party, assembling at 2 p. m. at the end of the Fulton car line, will tramp to Capitol Hill and an hour will be spent on the old homestead of Dr. Cardwell, observing the various kinds of trees in the grove. The party will then tramp to Multnomah station and over the Doesch road to Council Crest. The trip will be about six miles long.

Burglaries Are Reported.—W. D. Whitcomb, public accountant in the Oregon building, reported to the police yesterday that during the absence of his wife in Spokane, since April 8, the family home on Humphrey boulevard, near Mt. Zion station, was robbed of clothing valued at $200. T. M. Tateshli, 1461 Outman street, reported yesterday to the police that on April 14 household goods valued at $139.75 were taken from his home.

Concert Is Postponed.—The two-plano recital which was planned by Mrs. Thomas Carrick Burke and Miss Constance Piper for this evening at Reed college has been postponed until next Friday evening, April 28. It will be given then with the same program as was announced last Sunday. Owing to the small seating capacity of the college chapel the affair will have to be invitational.

Another Laborer Injured.—For the fifth time in 10 days ambulances were called to the O-W. R. & N. tunnel at St. Johns yesterday afternoon to carry an injured man to the hospital. G. Swanson, a laborer, 57 years old, fell from one of the scaffolding being used in the work of relining the tunnel and was badly bruised in striking the cement floor. He was taken to St. Vincent's hospital.

Dr. Rebec to Lecture.—The lecture before the University of Oregon extension class in psychology will be given at 8 o'clock tonight in room H of the Central library by Dr. George Rebec. He will speak on the combined subjects, "Our Feelings: What Are Their Rights and How Are They Cultivated?" and "The Will." The public is invited to attend.

Death of W. B. Oberlin.—William R. Oberlin, who resided at 983 Mallory street, died last night, aged 90. He was born in Ohio, was a retired farmer and had lived in Portland for the last six years. The body is in charge of Finley & Son and will be forwarded to California for interment next Monday.

Chinese Who Was Ordered Deported Taken to Seattle

Jew Song Kwong, who was ordered deported to China by Judge Wolverton because it was shown that he was unlawfully in this country, was taken to Seattle last night by David Fuller, deputy U. S. marshal, who will see that he takes ship for his native country. Although Jew had lived in Portland 25 years or more, and did not wish to return to China, whence he came when he was seven, the law required his return. Investigation by federal officers leading to his removal is said to have been brought about by his activity as an operator of a Chinese lottery.

Steamer Noyo Is Reported Missing Was Seen Yesterday Making Effort to Float Oakland on Tillamook Beach; Out of Sight This Morning.

Bay City, Or., April 21.—It is reported here this morning that the steamer Noyo, which has been engaged in an effort to float the steamer Oakland, a number of days, is missing. The Noyo was at work yesterday. Whether she has met with disaster in the storm breaking off the coast, or has sought a harbor of refuge pending return of calm, has not been learned here.

Doctrine as to Rights Of Dog Is Upheld

The doctrine that "every dog is entitled to one bite free" was upheld today by Circuit Judge Davis when he instructed the jury to return a verdict for the defendant in the suit for $10,000 damages brought by Mrs. Nielsen against Dr. K. A. J. MacKenzie.

Judge Davis held that the plaintiff had not shown that the three dogs which injured Mrs. Nielsen were vicious and therefore no liability attached to their owner.

The three dogs were kept on Dr. MacKenzie's country place near Carlton. The Nielsen place is nearby. The dogs were killing the Nielsen's ducks when Mrs. Nielsen, who is 89 years old, attempted to drive them away. The dogs leaped upon her, knocking her down and inflicting injuries.

Evidence was introduced by the defense to show that the dogs were playful and when a person has a stick in his or her hands they will attempt to get it.
