Another Outfielder Rumored. It is rumored that McCredie is on le lookout for an additional outolder, perhaps Jack Graney of Cleveand or Ward Miller or Tobin of St. tothing to the rumor and that he has nade no advances. Furthermore, he mys he understands Fielder Jones is In referring to possible trades or he Chicago White Sox, who, it is unale. Other major league owners have lonal first baseman and he can get a

Guisto Needed by Comiskey. Guisto would be just the man needed fill out Comiskey's ball club, Since he days of Jiggs Donahue, he has earned for a first sacker. Babe Borournier could hit the ball, but ouldn't field. Bunny Brief could nei-ther hit nor field in the majors. Hal Thase was too unreliable temperamentally. Jack Ness established a world record for hitting in consecuive games, but couldn't get started. Guisto would make the Chicago ball ub just as that other Beaver, Dave ancroft, made the Philadelphia club est year. When the time comes for disposing of Guisto—it is a cinch that e won't be in the minors next spring Comiskey may be expected to bid sas shown in paying some $17,500 for arry Chappelle and some $50,000 for McCredie, too, has his friends, Cleve-and and St. Louis, to look out for, so the may find himself in a quandary when the big fellows begin to bid.

There are only two first rate first Phere are only two first rate first ackers in the major leagues, according to the last census, Jake Daubert and Stuffy McInnes. They can field ind they can hit. Some of the others an hit but can't field, and vice versa. Juisto combines both hitting and fieldng ability of the highest order

Frank Chance and Rube Ellis of the Angels think he is the making of a great first baseman, and Big Bill Suthrie, the umpire, asserts without qualification that the big Italian is one of the greatest artists around the bag he has ever seen. Every day Guisto looks better. He has made only two errors so far this season, and the one in the first game t San Francisco was erroneously eiven him when Chuck Ward threw a all into the dirt in front of him. He a pair of hands like two billiard tables and makes those one-handed atches as easily as two handed stops. At a fair count, Louie has saved his mates some 15 or 20 errors since the eason opened. And backing this up, ne is a wonder on foul balls and high infield flies. In fact, McCredie has saued orders that Louis is to take all high flies around the pitcher on ac-

Mixon a Good Base Stealer.

Billy Nixon looks like the best base stealer from the standpoint of execuseasons back. Nixon makes every one of his throwouts close. He would have sotten away with two steals Thurs-day but for the fact that Bassler threw the ball right where it could be placed on Billy's ankle. However, Nixon strikes one as being
