SOUTHWORTH'S HIT TIES

Little Billy Busts Ball in Ninth as Pinchhitter; Southpaw Kelly Pinishes Up Game Like Champion.

By R. A. Crordn.

William Steen, the well and favorably known pitching trickster, threw out the reserves and among them was that brave though limping little cupid, STANDING OF THE TEAMS Willie Southworth. Willie hobbled up to the plate carrying a big cudgel. He fastened on to one of Steen's wicked slants, rode it into left field, and paved the way for two more innings. Then Willie retired bashfully to the showers Willie retired bashfully to the showers in the clubhouse. His day's work was Salt Lake. over, and it was up to the able-bodied | Oakland to finish it. This they did to a queen's l'ortland Pitchers Pass in Parade.

Five pitchers toiled during the aft- st ernoon, three of them Beavers. Herbert Kelly, who was slated for release. finished up the game in such a style as to get himself another chance to stay in this fair city. Billy Nixon busted into the limelight with four hits | Cieveland for the day.

Speas opened the eleventh with a Detroit blow across second base. This time he Boston kept it on the ground and Ping Bodie thicago ... her no chance to make a leap into the str and a one-handed stab, cutting off score. Bill Stumpf sacrificed and Stykane Great Falls ial gazelle, beat out a roller to Coffey, this placing Speas on third. All the witchery and trickery in the brain and arm of the slender Mister Steen was times to first and to third. Once he get the range to first, the ball hit in the dirt in the neighborhood of Chicken Autrey's big toe, bounded chucklingly away, and "Sweet Six," without looking up, lit out for the third with both feet and messed the between two outs. Wilie's hit and run bingle placed Shuck on third. Wille Vaughn's hopper over Murray. I that gave Wille a chance to tally In the meantime Vaughn was trapped, but managed to make second, when Coffey made a wide throw to Downs. Guisto soused the pill to left for two Great Falls 4 3 i bases and Vaughn tallied, Johnny Lush had been pitching no-hit ball until the fourth, when his and Cheek. mates put him in the hole. Ward's overthrow of first gave Bodie a life at Second. Johnny hit Downs, and Coffey got away with a bunt down the third base line. With the bases full, Autry pulled a single to right that scored Bodie. Jones hit to Ward, who started a double play that Vaughn threw to the grandstand, and Downs rificed. Stumpf's out, Coffey to Autry, and Coffey scored. Sepulveda's single to left sent Jones to third and he scored on Couch's crack to center. Higginbotham replaced Lush and Fitzgerald hit into a double play, Vaughn to Stumpf to Ward. All Work in Two Frames.

The Seals had made four hits in the fourth and three in the fifth off Higgy, o'clock and Noyes and Oldnam may op-Bodie scoring on his single to left, pose each other.
