

SCHOOLBOY HEARS FROM AUSTRALIA

Replies Received.

From faraway New Zealand four letters have been received by James B. Farrell, a pupil at the Couch school, in answer to one written during Letter Writing week in January.

The boy's letter describing Oregon and telling about the San Francisco exposition went to the education department at Wellington and was turned over to pupils in the schools of the city for answers.

All five replies have been received, one from the secretary for education in an imposing envelope which bears the inscription "On His Majesty's Service" and four from school children. All are stamped in purple ink.

"Your city is a city of roses while ours is the land of ferns," wrote Marjorie Rash from Newton school.

The replies all have to do with a description of New Zealand's industries and intimate references to the war.

"We should have liked to have visited the San Francisco exposition, they write, but San Francisco is so very far."

"New Zealand is an agricultural country," writes one little girl to her Portland correspondent. "It sends a large amount of frozen meat to England."

"Our boys fought well at the Dardanelles," she says of the war. "I knew three men who were there; one killed the other two."

Melvin, Helen, Mincevoyer, Clarke Schouboe, Hazel Cain, Earl Neal and Cecil Laird. Several things, such as cafeteria lunches, sandwich sales, etc., have been given lately for the benefit of the athletic association, and the money cleared has amounted to over $25.

Next Thursday afternoon, at 2:30, there will be an exhibit of art, domestic art and domestic science, held here.

The work will be that accomplished by the girls this year. All friends of the school or the students are cordially invited to be there.

The "Goggles," the girls' debating club of the commercial department of Franklin high school, is advancing rapidly in its work. At the last meeting, the membership was increased from 21 to 58, which is more than half the number of girls registered in the commercial department.

The club also has been doing some work along the lines of getting members into the Franklin High School campaign to the extent of 10 or 12 members.

A committee of two was appointed to devise some way in which to make money for the student body. Their report recommended a mock trial or short play.

An interesting feature of last Thursday's assembly was the Shakespearean society, and succeeded in their campaign of the school.

LINCOLN HIGH. By Margaret Mansfield.

ONE of the most enjoyable events of the past week was the Portland high school vaudeville, which took place Friday. The special train left at 7 in the morning, returning at 10 in the evening, giving the students an opportunity to thoroughly enjoy the hospitalities of the professors and students of the college.

The past week has also seen the departure of quite a number of students on Friday evening, as it is their last day at that institution, an event which is always looked forward to by a large number of senior students.

Among the Lincoln boys who represented our school at the track meet at the University of Oregon yesterday, and the different events they represented, are Wayne Peake, Fred O'Neil, relay, Ralph Sparrow, high jump, broad jump, pole vault, relay; Nathan Lakerfish, 100, 220, 440, relay; Walter Tannenbaum, 100, 220, 440, relay; W. McCarnahan, 440, hurdle race, 100, 220, 440, relay; Carl Knudsen, hurdles 120, hurdles 220, high jump, relay.

The Philoxonian debating society was royally entertained by the Philoxonian society of the University of Oregon yesterday afternoon. The gymnasium was decorated in pennants and the refreshments were carried out in the color scheme of pink and white, the colors of the Phi Kappa Psi.

At the assembly also, the same colors were carried out in the dresses of the phrenos who looked charming with their white middie and skirts with pink trim.

Ruth Thayer sang several solos. Catherine Nell and Marcella Catto played a piano duet, and Bernice Miller told the life of "Percy Galt."

On Wednesday evening the Lincoln debaters, Jack Levine, Ralph Hooper, Ralph Holzman and their coach, G. L. Koehn, were entertained at a stag party given by Mrs. M. Lovin.

On Thursday evening, May 5, 10, 8:30, Carl Knudsen, hurdles 120, hurdles 220, high jump, relay.

By Ernest Peterson. The classes in economics under Miss Rankin have been discussing economics from a personal view point, and not merely from the facts given in the textbooks. Reports are given in the classroom nearly every day on different economic subjects, and the lives of men who have succeeded in the business world are also reviewed.
