

HERE, THERE AND EVERYWHERE WITH THE NEWS PHOTOGRAPHERS

Brief Review of Week's News Events at Home and Abroad Condensed for the Convenience of the Reader Who Would Refresh His Memory.

LONDON.—From the beginning of the Irish uprising until last Tuesday 180 rebels or civilian non-combatants were killed and 614 wounded. Premier Asquith announced that there have been 16 executions and two death sentences have been commuted. Seventy-three rebels were sentenced to prison, six to hard labor, and 1705 prisoners were ordered deported.

Dublin.—James Connolly, general of the Irish republican army, and S. McDermid, another rebel leader, were executed this afternoon. It was officially announced.

Berlin.—Additional German advances on the western front and repulse of the French at several points were announced in an official statement issued from the war office here Thursday.

Rome.—Perseverently and steadily, but without noisily advertising his achievements, General Cadorna is now winning his way to Trent. His campaign is passing almost unnoticed outside of Italy, attention being fixed on the fighting on the Isonzo line, where, however, operations are reduced to small and unimportant local affairs for the present.

Rome.—Though the Vatican was silent, it was reported Thursday that Pope Benedict, through Monsignor Bonzano, apostolic delegate in Washington, had requested President Wilson to initiate a peace movement.

London.—Lord Wimbourne, lord lieutenant of Ireland, resigned Wednesday. Premier Asquith announced that no rebel leaders had been executed in Dublin since Monday. He said he hoped it would not be necessary to execute more.

Dublin.—John MacNeal, president of the Sinn Feiners' organization, has been arrested and charged with complicity in the recent Irish revolt.

London.—The White Star liner Cymric was torpedoed by a submarine in the English channel, according to word received Monday. The Cymric left New York April 28 with a general cargo and munitions of war for Liverpool. She had no passengers.

London.—Official dispatches Tuesday confirmed the report of United States Consul Frost of Queenstown that five members of the crew of the torpedoed liner Cymric perished.

Berlin.—Two German torpedo boats reconnoitered Monday off Ostend and engaged five British destroyers. It was officially announced Wednesday. One of the enemy vessels was severely damaged. The Germans returned unharmed.

London.—A Copenhagen dispatch to the Exchange Telegraph says vessels arriving at Copenhagen report meeting a large German squadron and submarine in the North Sea.

Berlin.—Reports were in circulation here Tuesday that the Germans are evacuating towns and villages behind the Dvina front.

Berlin.—All Dinar Iman of Darfur, a country of southwestern Egypt, was proclaimed a holy war against the British, according to Constantinople reports.

London.—More than 700,000 Germans have been killed and 1,735,310 wounded, the press bureau declared Wednesday in an official announcement based on German official lists. The total number of German prisoners and missing is 34,392. These figures do not include naval and colonial losses.

Paris.—General Robert G. Nivelle, who succeeds General Petain as commander in chief of the army defending Verdun, is 60 years old and is one of the discoverers of the war.

Berlin.—Half of France's fighting strength is concentrated at Verdun front, according to Major Morsh, foremost German military critic.

Berlin.—It is understood that Edwin Emerson, an American correspondent, who wrote a harsh attack on Ambassador Gerard in a Berlin newspaper, has been expelled.

Mexican Situation.—Mexican Ambassador Arredondo called on Secretary of State Lansing Thursday for a general discussion of the Mexican situation.

El Paso.—The Mexican situation reverted to Washington Friday following the failure of negotiations between Hugh Scott and General Alvaro Obregon. Provisional President Carranza's veto of the tentative agreement governing the occupation of Mexican territory by American troops and steadfast demand for a time limit on the stay of the American expedition split the conference.

Marathon, Texas.—Forty Americans were killed by Mexican bandits, who crossed the border near Brownsville, Texas, Thursday night, according to Rufus Stirling, a customs inspector, who arrived here Friday from Sander. A number of women and children are among the dead, Stirling said. He was unable to furnish details.

Washington.—The state department through its consuls Thursday again warned Americans to quit Mexico.

Alpine, Texas.—American troops Monday rushed through the barren and desolate Big Bend country in pursuit of the Mexicans who raided towns in that territory May 5, killed three United States soldiers and a boy and kidnapped two American citizens. The raiders crossed the Brewster county line and invaded American soil. Seventeen Mexicans were reported killed in the attack.

Washington.—The bodies of J. A. Deemer and Coy, who were captured by the Villistas who raided Glenn Springs, were found with their throats cut, after the Mexican raid. Consul Blocker at Eagle, Pass wired the state department Monday afternoon. This report was later denied.

Los Angeles.—Determined to avenge the capture and probable murder of her husband, Jenn Deemer, the American rancher and justice of the peace of Boquilla, Texas, by Mexicans who raided Glenn Springs and Boquilla, Mrs. Deemer left her home at La Jolla at 10 o'clock Tuesday morning in an automobile for the Mexican border.

Marathon.—Eight Mexicans are reported to have been killed in a running fight with Texas rangers and Sheriff Walton's posse, according to advices received here Tuesday afternoon. Arrivals from Glenn Springs said there were 12 Mexicans in the band and that four escaped.

Marathon, Texas.—Colonel F. W. Sibley will command the new "retaliative expedition" into Mexico after the Big Bend raiders.

El Paso, Texas.—General Hugh Scott sent to Washington Monday the suggestion of General Alvaro Obregon that American and Mexican troops cooperate in patrolling the border, the soldiers of each nation being confined to their own side of the line.

Washington.—Seven thousand fresh troops, 4000 militia and 3000 regulars, were ordered to the Mexican border Tuesday.

Marathon, Texas.—Demetrio De La Garza, noted bad man, leader of the Glenn Springs raiders, was killed in a fight with two American cavalrymen at Deemers, Texas, Tuesday, according to an American who arrived here.

Marathon, Texas.—Eight armed Mexicans were killed by an American posse late Tuesday at the town of Rio Grande, lying between Boquillas and San Vicente, according to advices received here.

National Capital.—WASHINGTON.—The state department announced Thursday that it was considering sending a formal inquiry with regard to the nature of the punishment inflicted on the commander of the German submarine which attacked the channel packet Sussex.

Washington.—The message from Pope Benedict to President Wilson, it was learned authoritatively Monday, was not headed at the White House. At the White House it was Tuesday following publication of President Wilson's note accepting Germany's reply.

Washington.—There is a strong indication here that the United States will take no action in the case of the British liner Cymric, destroyed by submarine. Secretary Lansing's policy heretofore, in cases where Americans were not jeopardized, has been not to protest.

Washington.—The United States government considers the submarine controversy with Germany closed. This was the consensus of opinion here Tuesday following publication of President Wilson's note accepting Germany's reply.

Washington.—President Wilson will not move to bring about European peace at this time. The veiled suggestion that he do so in the German House, at the White House it was learned on high authority that, acting on the advice of the American embassies in London and Paris, the administration will not make any peace proposals until the promised great offensive of the allies has been launched.

Washington.—The government has accepted Germany's submarine concessions and declined to accede to the suggestion linking the German-American situation with the British-American controversy. A brief reply to the German answer has been forwarded to Berlin.

Washington.—Germany has officially acknowledged that the channel warning by one of her submarines in violation of assurances given to the United States last September following the destruction of the liner Arabic.

Washington.—The senate passed the Shackleford good roads bill appropriating $75,000,000 for the next five years. The house had already passed it.

Washington.—Confirmation of the reported resignation of President Jimenez of Santo Domingo was contained in a dispatch received Monday from Admiral Caperton. Everything, however, was reported quiet. Three American destroyers and a force of marines on the prairie are en route to Santo Domingo City.

Washington.—The senate judiciary committee in executive session Monday was served with a letter from President Wilson virtually demanding confirmation of Louis D. Brandeis as associate justice of the supreme court.

Washington.—By a vote of 221 to 142 the house refused to concur in the senate's amendment to the army bill, providing a regular army of 250,000 men.

General.—SAN LUIS OBISPO.—The steamer Rosanoke, which left San Francisco at midnight, May 8, for Valparaiso, founded at sea about 100 miles south of San Francisco, according to the story told by three survivors, who, in a lifeboat with the dead bodies of five of their shipmates, drifted ashore here Wednesday. Forty-seven persons are believed to have perished.

1—Munitions and supplies following the trail into Mexico. 2—Bacon Reading, lord chief justice of England. 3—Russian troops, aboard a transport, upon their arrival at Marseilles, where they were warmly greeted. 4—Scouting party of U. S. cavalrymen following a trail through the Tres Hermanos mountains in Mexico. 5—An auto-mobile division with its cargo of soldiers on their way to a base in Mexico. 6—Russian soldiers bedecked with flowers on their arrival in Marseilles. 7—Commander Roger Welles and Lieutenant Commander Adolphus Andrews, in command of the U. S. S. Oklahoma, recently completed at a cost of $7,000,000. 8—General W. A. Soukhomlinoff, former Russian war minister, who is reported a prisoner on a charge of criminal negligence and high treason.

Alexandria, Va.—Aviator Thomas McCauley and Machinist Udder are in the hospital and their two passengers were missing Thursday, following the fall of their hydroplane 500 feet into the Potomac river.

San Bernardino, Cal.—Crackmen escaped with $10,000 in gold and several thousand dollars in checks after looting the store of James Illingworth at Randsburg, on the desert Thursday. The money was part of the payroll for the Yellow Aster mine, it is believed.

Los Angeles.—Called to the witness stand in his own defense, David Caplan, charged with murder in connection with the Times dynamiting in 1910, Thursday denied any participation in the Times plot and said that he was never in Los Angeles until brought here by officers.

Saratoga Springs, N. Y.—It was understood here that the Methodist Episcopal committee will report about May 15 recommending eight new bishops.

Boise, Idaho.—Flood caused by the breaking of a dam, which released the water in the Pack Saddle reservoir, caused a heavy loss to farmers in a remote section of Teton county May 6. News of the flood reached here Thursday.

New York.—Lieutenant Robert Fay, former German army officer, Walter Scholz and Paul Daech, convicted of conspiracy to destroy munitions ships by bombs, were sentenced Tuesday by Federal Judge Howe to eight, four and two years respectively in the federal prison at Atlanta.

Stanton.—At least four persons were killed and 30 are reported to have been seriously injured when an explosion shook the Atlas Powder Works at Hopalong Tuesday afternoon.

Los Angeles.—By a vote of 4 to 1, the county supervisors have decided to pay Detective William J. Burns $10,000 reward for the capture of Matthew A. Schmidt, convicted dynamiter and David Caplan, now on trial for connection with the Times dynamiting in 1910.

New York.—Administrators of the estate of Charles Frohman, who lost his life when the Lusitania was torpedoed gave notice in the United States district court that they intended to file suit against the Cunard Steamship company, Ltd.

Sault Ste Marie.—The steamer Kirby with its crew of 20 was reported Tuesday to have been lost in last night's gale on the lake.

San Diego.—Hundreds of delegates attended the annual convention of Odd Fellows and Rebekahs which opened in this city Wednesday.

Eureka.—Leopold Waldo, one of the three convicts who escaped from a Mendocino road camp Sunday, was taken single-handed by George Patmore Wednesday afternoon near Dyerville.

San Francisco.—Information here said that J. B. Starr Hunt, an American seaman, was held prisoner by British authorities in Singapore on a charge of trying to incite rebellion in India. Hunt's father is an attorney in Mexico City.

Duluth.—Boys playing with matches were blamed for the $500,000 fire in the Alger and Smith Lumber company yards.

Oregon.—GRANTS PASS.—At 10 o'clock Tuesday morning, State Grange Master Spence of Oregon City, called to order the forty-third annual session of the Oregon State grange. At Wednesday's session Spence was re-elected president.

Grants Pass.—United States Senator A. B. Cummings, of Iowa, candidate for the Republican nomination for president, was given a rousing reception on his arrival in Oregon, his first stop, at Grants Pass, being marked by a noisy demonstration.

Marshfield.—Adjutant General White of the O. N. G., Tuesday night met at the Chamber of Commerce local people who are interested in the formation of a coast artillery company or a branch of the naval militia here.

Baker.—The Baker school board has accepted the final plans for the new $125,000 high school building.

Prineville.—Two hundred and twenty-five members of the Paulina, La Pine, Sisters, Tulelake, Terrebonne, Bend and Redmond commercial clubs gathered Monday as guests of the Prineville Commercial club to discuss a course of joint action in developing the various projects and resources of central Oregon.

Salem.—Malheur county bids fair to do more development this year along the lines of irrigation and drainage than any other county in the state, according to Deputy State Engineer Cupper, who made a trip to the eastern part of Oregon recently. Two irrigation districts and one drainage district are now being organized in the county.

Eugene.—Junior week-end festivities started Thursday afternoon. Eight hundred visitors were expected on the campus, and every fraternity house was subsidised for housing the visitors.

Washington.—VANCOUVER.—The second battalion of the Twenty-first Infantry and Company C, of the first battalion, left here Thursday for border points, in compliance with orders received Wednesday ordering them to proceed on once. The second battalion is destined to go to Yuma, Ariz., and Company C will go to Nogales, where it will probably be joined by the other companies of its battalion.

Vancouver.—John Franklin Johnson, aged resident of this city and pioneer settler of Oregon, died Tuesday at his home in East Vancouver. He was a native of Texas and was more than 74 years old.

Spokane.—While two detectives waited for him in the shadows of a nearby building to catch him, a hold-up, who has robbed half a dozen streetcar crews here during the last three weeks, early Monday morning, "stuck up" Conductor R. H. Langdon and Motorman Duncan of the East Sprague avenue car, fired a fusillade at the officers and escaped, driving the carmen ahead of him.

Portland.—KNOCKING off the glasses of R. P. Hutton of the Anti-Saloon league and kicking him cost Elmer L. Amidon, a Republican politician and supporter of C. N. McArthur, $25 Thursday morning after he had attempted to stage a fight with Hutton in Judge Gatens' courtroom. The trouble occurred in the courtroom shortly after Judge Gatens had convened court to hear witnesses in the libel suit of Representative C. N. McArthur against Hutton.

Millions of dollars damage has been done fruit crops along the Pacific coast during the last 10 days by the unseasonable cold weather, and in some sections reports indicate that the production will be nominal.

Maurice Barrymore Smith, well known for years in local theatrical circles, is dead.

Lloyd Bates, eldest son of the late George W. Bates, the former president of the Lumbermen's National bank, has been elected a director of the bank.

The Morrison street bridge draw was out of commission for a time and the steamer Grahams badly damaged as a result of a collision between the draw and boat Tuesday night.

Announcement is made by the forest service that the district forester, Portland, Or., has just approved the contract for the sale to Brown Bros. of Hubbard of $900,000 feet of timber in the Crater national forest in southern Oregon.

Woolen Mills may work their women employees 10 hours a day five days a week, and four hours on the sixth day, with a maximum of 54 hours a week, according to a decision of the conference committee of the Industrial association.

Catholics, Methodists and Protestants of numerous denominations convened at the Central library Wednesday for the fourth annual convention of the Pacific coast division of the Religious Educational association.

Rev. Hugh Elmer Brown of Seattle was elected president and Seattle was selected as the next convention city at the concluding session Thursday.

Four hundred girls, selected from the seventh, eighth and ninth grades of 25 different schools, will dance about 25 Maypoles as a feature of the May festival to be held on Multnomah field, May 17. Nearly 6500 school children will take part in the festival.

F. W. Woolworth, head of the celebrated chain of 5, 10 and 15 cent stores, arrived with a party of half a dozen business associates from San Francisco Wednesday afternoon on the Shasta limited.

"Dr." G. L. Jobb was sentenced to 75 days in jail yesterday by Municipal Judge Langguth. He was found guilty of selling the liquor which C. H. Ingram and Myrtle Ingram are alleged to have retained to others.

Pleading guilty to the charge of larceny, A. J. Burns and John Brennan today admitted their intention to swindle R. B. Wasow and H. L. Turner out of their money by selling them an interest in a scheme to transmute base metal into gold.

R. M. Irving of Fleischner, Mayer & Co., submitted before the members' council of the Chamber of Commerce a resolution calling upon the board of directors to take up the promotion of a railroad line from the Goldendale branch of the North Branch to the Yakima valley.

May 26 is to be "go to school day" for the parents of Portland's 50,000 school children. Superintendent L. R. Alderman has invited all the parents to visit the schools on that day. He hopes that not less than 35,000 parents will accept the invitation.

Original Bloomer Girl Passes Away.—Mrs. Mary S. Crisco, who conceived Costume, Created Sensation When She First Appeared on Streets in St. Paul, N. J., May 13.—Mrs. Mary Soper Crisco, who was the original "bloomer girl," is dead at her home here, aged 65 years. She was a daughter of the Rev. Benjamin Soper.

She conceived the bloomer costume while helping around the farm, and her first appearance on the streets in it created a sensation. She attempted to attend church services, but was stopped at the door. Once she appeared in a man's evening suit and silk hat, carrying a cane.

of selling the liquor which C. H. Ingram and Myrtle Ingram are alleged to have retained to others.

Pleading guilty to the charge of larceny, A. J. Burns and John Brennan today admitted their intention to swindle R. B. Wasow and H. L. Turner out of their money by selling them an interest in a scheme to transmute base metal into gold.

R. M. Irving of Fleischner, Mayer & Co., submitted before the members' council of the Chamber of Commerce a resolution calling upon the board of directors to take up the promotion of a railroad line from the Goldendale branch of the North Branch to the Yakima valley.

May 26 is to be "go to school day" for the parents of Portland's 50,000 school children. Superintendent L. R. Alderman has invited all the parents to visit the schools on that day. He hopes that not less than 35,000 parents will accept the invitation.

Original Bloomer Girl Passes Away.—Mrs. Mary S. Crisco, who conceived Costume, Created Sensation When She First Appeared on Streets in St. Paul, N. J., May 13.—Mrs. Mary Soper Crisco, who was the original "bloomer girl," is dead at her home here, aged 65 years. She was a daughter of the Rev. Benjamin Soper.

She conceived the bloomer costume while helping around the farm, and her first appearance on the streets in it created a sensation. She attempted to attend church services, but was stopped at the door. Once she appeared in a man's evening suit and silk hat, carrying a cane.

Original Bloomer Girl Passes Away.—Mrs. Mary S. Crisco, who conceived Costume, Created Sensation When She First Appeared on Streets in St. Paul, N. J., May 13.—Mrs. Mary Soper Crisco, who was the original "bloomer girl," is dead at her home here, aged 65 years. She was a daughter of the Rev. Benjamin Soper.

She conceived the bloomer costume while helping around the farm, and her first appearance on the streets in it created a sensation. She attempted to attend church services, but was stopped at the door. Once she appeared in a man's evening suit and silk hat, carrying a cane.

Original Bloomer Girl Passes Away.—Mrs. Mary S. Crisco, who conceived Costume, Created Sensation When She First Appeared on Streets in St. Paul, N. J., May 13.—Mrs. Mary Soper Crisco, who was the original "bloomer girl," is dead at her home here, aged 65 years. She was a daughter of the Rev. Benjamin Soper.

She conceived the bloomer costume while helping around the farm, and her first appearance on the streets in it created a sensation. She attempted to attend church services, but was stopped at the door. Once she appeared in a man's evening suit and silk hat, carrying a cane.

Original Bloomer Girl Passes Away.—Mrs. Mary S. Crisco, who conceived Costume, Created Sensation When She First Appeared on Streets in St. Paul, N. J., May 13.—Mrs. Mary Soper Crisco, who was the original "bloomer girl," is dead at her home here, aged 65 years. She was a daughter of the Rev. Benjamin Soper.

She conceived the bloomer costume while helping around the farm, and her first appearance on the streets in it created a sensation. She attempted to attend church services, but was stopped at the door. Once she appeared in a man's evening suit and silk hat, carrying a cane.

Original Bloomer Girl Passes Away.—Mrs. Mary S. Crisco, who conceived Costume, Created Sensation When She First Appeared on Streets in St. Paul, N. J., May 13.—Mrs. Mary Soper Crisco, who was the original "bloomer girl," is dead at her home here, aged 65 years. She was a daughter of the Rev. Benjamin Soper.

She conceived the bloomer costume while helping around the farm, and her first appearance on the streets in it created a sensation. She attempted to attend church services, but was stopped at the door. Once she appeared in a man's evening suit and silk hat, carrying a cane.