PORTLAND WINS, 4 TO 2

Seals Are Saved From a Shutout by Ping Bodie's Homer in the Third Inning.

By R. A. Cronin,

An old-time baseball game, the kind where the players walk around with chips on their shoulders, was staged in the local ball yard yesterday, and Portland won, 4 to 2, thanks to the excel-lent pitching of Allen Sothoron. If Ping Bodie hadn't kited the ball out of the lot, the Seals would have gone scoreless.

Besides a lot of good baseball, the fans were treated to some near fights, and players were extending urgent invitations to one another to wait out-side after the game. When the crowd wasn't egging the would-be combatants on, it was vociferously engaged in panning Bill Guthrie. Bill closed a bad week, in the opinion of the fans, but in the opinion of Bill, he was "umpirin' good ball."

Downs Spikes Catcher Roche.

Jeremiah Downs lost all of the Portland players donated the great popularity he owned in Portland winners with a beautiful silver lovwhen he deliberately jumped into ing cup, which will be kept in the Catcher Roche with his spikes fore-local clubhouse until the outcome of most in the sixth. Portland Off in the Lead.

Portland got away in the lead in the first when Vaughn singled to left off Red Oldham, went to second on a wild pitch, and scored when Guisto hit the ball against the left field fence. Fitzgerald opened the third with a single to Vaughn, took second on Schaller's sacrifice, and then Ping raised the ball over the right field fence for the two runs of the Seals, The one-run lead lasted only until the Beavers could unload their basehits. Sothoron hit to left but failed report at Los Angeles, where the Beato touch first as he rounded it and vers will be playing the week of May had to return. It was a two-base Willie singled through short and Vaughn sacrificed.

Lewis, in Madison Square Garden next Thursday evening. Although Gibbons came many miles to keep this date he does not believe that it means as much in his young life as the affair does to his opponent.
A short talk with Gibbons brought out the fact, however, that he does not hold Lewis cheaply. He expects to win as a matter of course but not without considerable effort. Mike is well acquainted with Ted's style and looks for a busy evening.
