EAST SIDE CLUB IN FIELD FOR FACTORIES; BONDS WILL BE SOLD

Plan to Start Vigorous Campaign for Industrial Activity Under Way.

ceeds of which will be used to furnish capital to new industries that may seek a location in the city or aid with additional capital the manufacturing establishments already located here who can profitably enlarge the scope of their operations. Dan Kellaher, chairman of the committee, presided, and a large representation of the club membership was present.

In general the plan calls for the labeling of an issue of $500,000.

f an issue of $500,000 of bonds Title be subscribed for on the basis of as low as 50 cents a week, or as high as $10 or more a week. A committee of five to carry out the details of the plan will be appointed by Mr. Kellaher at once. The idea is similar to the plans which have been successfully utilized in other cities of the country, including Boston, Toledo and Sioux City, Iowa.

The chairman of the meeting was also authorized to appoint a committee of three to draft an initiative constitutional amendment to be submitted to a vote of the people next fall, which will provide for exempting from taxation all crude material used in manof different denominations, which may ation all crude material used in man-al, L. 2, B. 8, and L. 9, 10, 12, 18, B facturing plant, its notes, bonds and mortgages, and in fact everything except the building and real estate.

According to Mr. Kellaher the present organization will not affiliate with any other organization of the large state. with any other organization of the J. G. Hoard and wf. to John K. Fleck, city or tie itself up with any of the transportation companies. It will conduct a vigorous campaign, but will to Mt.
