Portland, Or., May 17.-(To the Editor of The Journal.)-I wish to congratulate the author of the editorial appearing in this evening's Journal under the caption, "Disfranchised, Dis-inherited Republicans." How truly it fathomed and illumi-nated the dark mysteries of "gang rule" in Republican county and state politics, only the initiated can know

Moreover, this editorial contains in high degree the "punch" that makes good reading. Keep the good work up! Turn on the light and blessed will be your portion, I assure you. For the masses must and will have a spokesman, and the newspaper with a human heart and soul will command the respect and good will of the people; the great, toiling, sweating, pray-ing masses called the people.
