PLAY CONTINUES TODAY

Several Hard Matches Are Played and Goss Manages to Come Through in Spite of Handicap.

Play in the Katz cup tournament started yesterday afternoon on the courts of the M. A. A. C. and 20 matches were finished.

The feature matches of the day were those between Norris and A. S. Frohman, won by the latter by the scores of 7-5, 3-6, 6-3, and that of J. F. Ewing and Percy W. Wakeman was defeated by W. H. Lewis in a long three set match by the following scores: 8-6, 3-6, 6-4, and shows considerable promise.

A. B. McAlpin went down to defeat at the hand of Olin Lewis and the same fate met R. P. Newland who was beaten by C. McSnow. Kenneth McAlpin lost to J. H. Mackie.

W. A. Goss, the veteran, came through under the heaviest handicap of the tournament, 0.30, beating Mr. Cole in two hard sets.

A light schedule has been arranged for today and starting Monday all players will have to meet at the time scheduled or they will be defaulted as the tournament is to be run off promptly.

Anson Cornell Will Coach Football Team

Anson Cornell, captain of the 1915 University of Oregon football eleven and former All-Northwest quarterback, will coach the Pendleton high school football team next fall. This was learned yesterday from an authoritative source.

Cornell should be a pretty good scholastic coach. He has had eight years of playing experience, and last year at the university he coached the freshman eleven. With practically all of last season's team returning, and a bunch of new material on hand, Cornell should develop a team at Pendleton that should be in the running for the eastern Oregon championship.

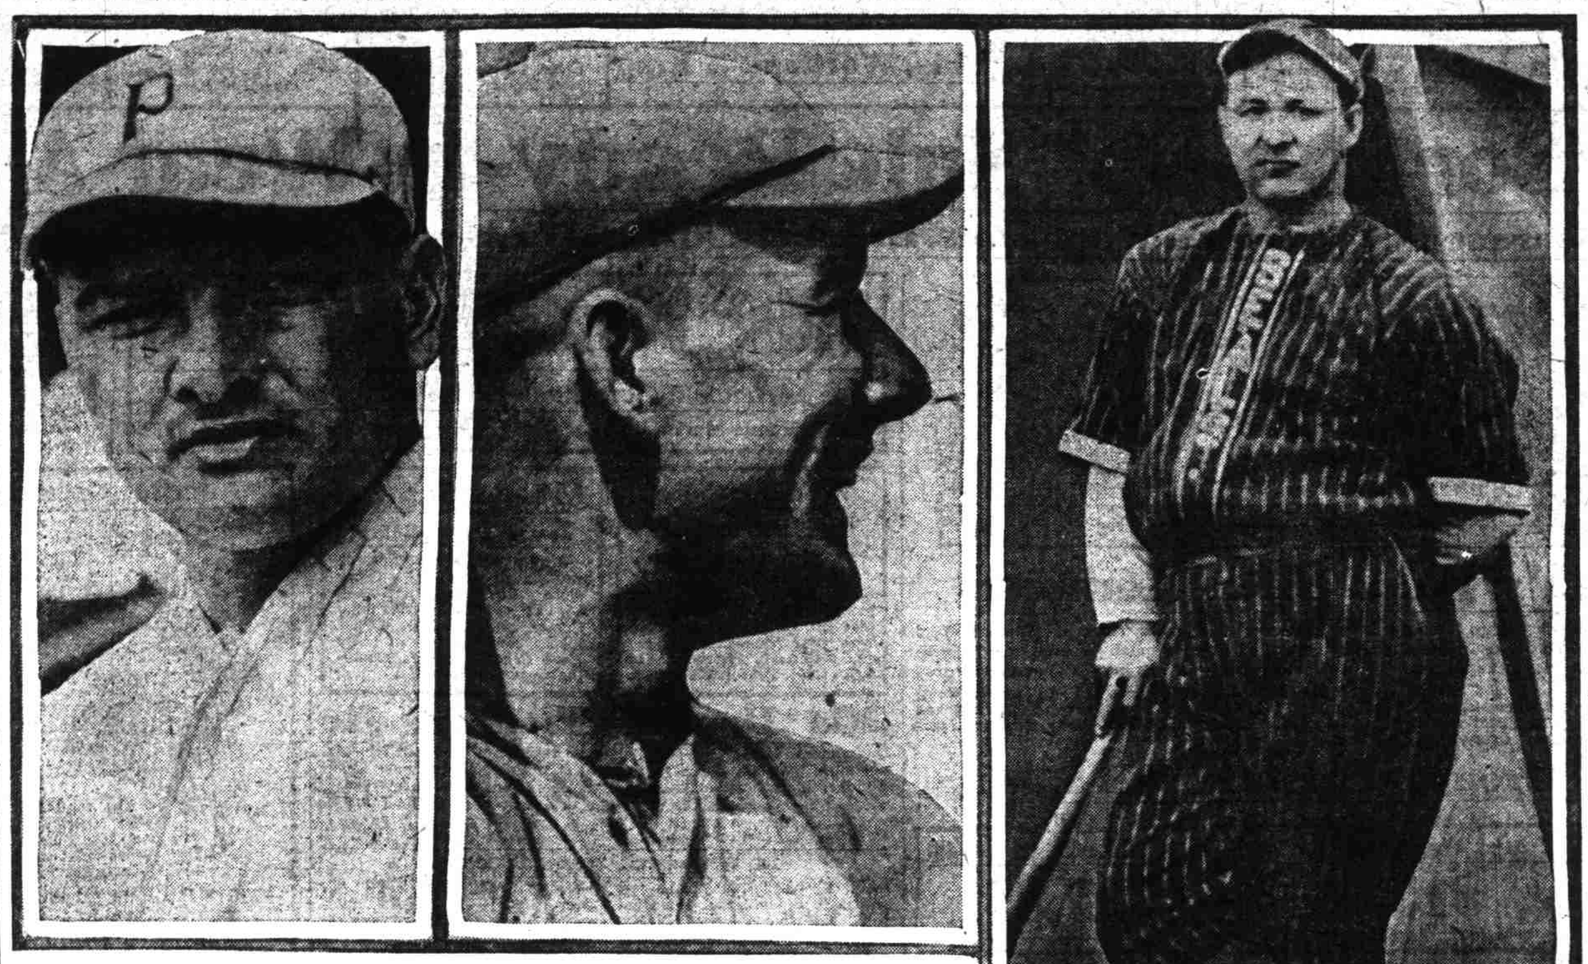
Here's the Circuit Burning Triumvirate of Pacific Coast League for Season 1916

These Husky Sluggers May Set New Home Run Record for National Game

The efforts of three different sluggers in the Al Baum circuit to outdo one another, gives rise to the belief that the old mark will suffer. From left to right they are: Louis Guisto, Portland; Bunny Brief, Salt Lake, and Ping Bodie, San Francisco, the first two having 10 each and the last named nine homers so far this season.



San Francisco Outfielder Holds the Highest Mark for Out-of-the-Lot Blows, Making 30 During Season of 1910, andd Truck Eagan Holds Unique Record of Having Led the League for Three Successive Seasons, With High Mark of 25 Homers.

By R. A. Cronin.

By the way the circuit burning triumvirate of the Pacific Coast league, Guisto, Brief and Bodie, are going, it looks as if the coast record, if not the world's record in home runs will be broken this year.

The season will not be two months old until June 4, yet 10 home runs have been made by baseball's newest sensation, Louis Guisto of the Portland club, and the veteran Bunny Brief of the Salt Lake club. Singularly enough these two swatters are first-basemen. One run behind them is the walloping Ping Bodie of the San Francisco Seals.

The league record is held by Bodie, who poled 30 home runs in the season of 1910, and the nearest approach to this was the 25 circuit clouts of old Truck Eagan of the Tacoma club back in 1914.

Bodie Has Best of It.

Of course Bodie had from three to four weeks longer on the small San Francisco park in 1911 than the other clubs, and that may account for his better home run record. Even this year Bodie has a beter chance to beat out Guisto and Brief, as he has 18 weeks on his home park, the three extra weeks occurring when Oakland is the home club against San Francisco. If Guisto played as many games in San Francisco as Bodie, or as many in Salt Lake as Brief, it would be almost a mortal cinch for him to beat his tenacious rivals out.

The only thing that may mitigate against Bodie's chance was the recent addition of about 20 feet of wire to the already high wire right field fence in the San Francisco park. Householders living a few feet from the fence complained so insistently about broken windows that Henry Berry had to elevate his fence. Bodie got a lot of home runs over this fence. However, it is not expected to interfere with Guisto, who is a natural left field hitter, and there are no traps or bunkers in that direction.

1913	Coy, Oakland 18
1914	Lober, Portland 9
1915	Schaller, San Francisco 20
1916	??, ?? .....??

Looks Like a Big Year.

A glance at the table accompanying this article will show that there are high and low water marks in hitting home runs, and this seems to be a high water year. The fewest number of home runs made in the league of which there is any record was in 1914, when Ty Lober of the champion Portland club swated nine of them out of the lots in the various parks.

Last year there was quite a scramble on for the honors, Biff Schaller of the Seals beating out Bodie and Joe Gedeon of the Salt Lake club by one homer, he getting an even 20.

The only batter in the history of the league to win the home run hitting crown in three successive years was old "Truck" Eagan of the Sacramento and Tacoma clubs. In the first three years of the league's existence he batted out 59 four-sackers, his big year being 1904. The coast record books were not extended to contain the home run work of 1906-7, the first being the year of the San Francisco fire, which destroyed a lot of the early averages. Truck, who was then hitting the ball hard, may have been leader.

Eagan Three Times Leader.

Truck was so far ahead of the field that there was no competition. However, the man who has led the National league for the past three years in home runs, Gavvy Cravath, finished second to Eagan in the three years mentioned, getting seven in 1903, 13 in 1904 and nine in 1905. In passing, we might recall that Cravath hit 19 homers in each of the 1913 and 14 seasons and 24 in the 1915 race. It is said, though, that Cravath, like Bodie, has had the advantage of an enclosure much smaller than the rest of the fields in the league.

It was felt for awhile that Brief and Bodie might draw away from Guisto, but the youngster has played in fewer games and kept his record on an equality with Brief. This being true, there is little reason why he will not lead his more experienced rivals at the end of the season, and, it is hoped by his newly made friends, set a mark for the sluggers to shoot at.

Los Angeles Defeats San Francisco, 4-3

San Francisco, May 20.—(P. N. S.)—Those aggravating Angels profited by Seal misdeeds today, and it becomes the mournful duty to relate that they won, 4 to 3. Young Mr. Sheehan cut loose in the sixth inning with a throw that was bound for nowhere in particular and arrived there amidst wild tumult and confusion.

Immediately thereafter the globular Mr. Bodie, who seems to be in the slumpiest of slumps, dropped an easy fly that would have meant a third out. These errors put two runs across the plate and the score was tied at 3 to 3.

Thereupon ensued a tight struggle for the day's spoils. Up to the ninth the battle waged. Then Johnny Kane, batting in the pinch for Heaver Hogg, lifted a sacrifice fly to center and brought Johnny Bassler across the plate with the winning run.

Beaver-Salt Lake Contest Postponed On Account of Rain

Salt Lake, Utah, May 20.—Rain and wet grounds caused a postponement of today's scheduled game between the Portland Beavers and Salt Lake. The Beavers have cinched the series with three victories in the four games played. Irve Higginbotham will probably be pitted against the Saints in Sunday's game with Paul Fittery opposing him.

Vernon Tigers Win From Elliott's Oaks

Los Angeles, May 20.—(I. N. S.)—It's going to be a man-sized job to stop these fighting Tigers. They won the game twice in one afternoon. And in the doing they threw out enough actual runners at the home plate to have stocked a new team.

Vernon 5, Oakland 4.

The Saturday show was on just as it was leaning into the extra innings. The bases were full with two out in the last half of the ninth when the runt McGaffigan swished at one of Boyd's curves and was so fortunate as to drop a Texas leaguer in right field, scoring the one run needed.

The thing was just one pitcher after another, with a great flock of pinch hiters parading in the foreground. Twenty-nine men took part in all. Chief Johnson was pitching a bully game, but was thrown out for crabbing at a bit of blind umpiring. Hess worked awhile and Frank Arellanes finished. Klein, for the Oaks, was batted out of the box in the third. Sammy Beer came next, followed by Boyd.

ARGENTINE WILL GET AMERICAN BOXERS TO ENTERTAIN ITS FANS

Billy Gibson, Famous American Promoter and Manager, Is Representative.

DUBS SENT SOUTH FIRST

They Will Show Fans What the Game Is Like, and the Stars Will Be Put on Later.

New York, May 20.—Imported boxing is the latest innovation in the game of slam. Buenos Ayres, capital of the Argentine Republic, down in South America, has undertaken to foist the mitt sport on its populace; and in order to accomplish this it has been found necessary to recruit ring talent from another country—these United States.

Boxing is bound to thrive there, unless the imported stock continue their American practises. A few rapacious managers, and a couple of hippodrome artists, and the game in South America will die a-borning. The Buenos Ayres club, which will conduct all matches, has the moral and financial support of the government. So it is wholly up to Americans to make or break boxing below the Isthmus.

The Argentine government officials who are endeavoring to make Buenos Ayres a boxing mecca have already made one step in the proper direction. They have nominated Billy Gibson, than whom there is no more honest individual connected with any sport, as their American representative. Gibson will handle all matches, and will designate the boxers who are to appear in the Buenos Ayres arena.

A few days ago Gibson shipped a half dozen mediocre performers to the southland to prepare for a series of bouts there. The party will be augmented within a few weeks upon the arrival of Gibson himself, and possibly such headliners as Ted Lewis, Benny Leonard, Johnny Dundee, Jack Britton, Battling Levinsky and mayhap Michael Gibbons. Argentine will indeed be a haven for those boxers who are unable to work here steadily during the summer months.

The natives of Buenos Ayres have yet to be initiated in real American boxing. There is no local talent worthy of a preliminary there; but they are a painstaking lot down there, and do not be surprised if within a year you hear of our favorites being taken over the hurdles by home products.
