Summary:

Form Shown by Stars Indicates Several Records May Be Broken in Competition.

JEFFERSON IS NO CINCH

Other Schools Are Expected to Pick Up Enough Seconds and Thirds to Make Affair Very Close.

By Walter B. Schade.

Scholastic athletes are preparing or their annual track and field chamonships next Friday afternoon fultnomah field, Although the weathconditions have greatly hampered various teams in their training, they did remarkably well in the state meet at Eugene a week ago yesterday. Judging from the form shown in the dual and state meets, two and sibly three of the local scholastic marks will go by the board. Ralph Spearow of Lincoln high school will likely better his present pole vaulting record, which is 11 feet 2% inches. At Eugene, Spearow vaulted 11 feet 6 The high jump record now held by Victor Johnson of Washington high school will more than likely be bettered by Johnny Murphy of the Columbia University, who was credfted with doing six feet at the state

The 100-yard dash and the 440-yard marks may be equaled, as Coach Sam May of the Jefferson high school is training his sprinters and middle distance men to go after these marks If they are favored with good weather for two or three days before the meet and a fast field they will likely tie the records.

More Competition for Jeff.

Although Jefferson walked off with the honors in the state championship meet, there is some doubt as to the ability of the Blue and Gold squad to take first honors in the local meet, owing to the fact that the other schools will pick up a number of points by their second and third place men. Columbia is assured of a ma-jority of the points in the field events with Devonshire in the weights and Murphy in the high jump.

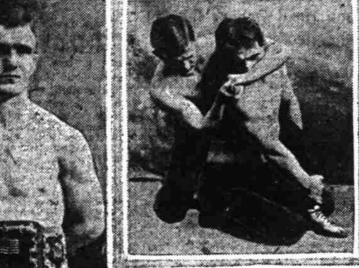

T, Morris Dunne, secretary of the Pacific Northwest association, is selecting the officials who will handle the meet The entries will close with Hopkin

Jenkins, secretary of the Interscholas-tic league, next Tuesday. It is expected that this season's entry list will surpass all other seasons, due to the enlargement of the league. Benson, Franklin and James John athletes will make their first
