Piedmont—Mrs. T. N. Stoppenbach.

at a simple home wedding at the residence of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Bradley, 905 Kelly street. Only the family will be present and Dr. John H. Boyd will be the officiating minister. Miss Bradley is one of the most charming and popular girls of the younger set, and since the announcement of her engagement a few weeks ago she has been continuously feted. During the past week Miss Elizabeth Creadick, Miss Gretchen Klosterman and Mrs. Wade Pipes were among the hostesses who entertained for her. Thursday Miss Klosterman gave a bridge tea of three tables with a few additional guests coming in later. Friday Miss Elizabeth Creadick had another group of three tables at bridge with additional guests calling for tea, and yesterday Mrs. Wade Pipes gave a The Dansant.

Mr. Mayer will arrive from his home at Brooklyn, N. Y., Thursday, and Miss Bradley has cancelled most of her engagements for this week. However, Mr. and Mrs. Foiger Johnson have arranged one large affair for next Saturday evening, the nature of which will depend upon the weather; it will either be a launching party or a dinner. Mr. Mayer was formerly with Mr. Johnson in business in Portland, having left for his old home, in Brooklyn, over a year ago to establish a business there. He has many friends in the city, who will welcome him. It is a source of much regret that her marriage will take Miss Bradley away from Portland, as they plan to make their home at Brooklyn.

The annual Patton Home tea will call forth hosts of friends of the old folks to the home the afternoon of June 2. As has been their custom for many years, the board, of which Mrs. Theodore Nicolai is president, has arranged a delightful afternoon, both for the old people at the home and for the visitors. On the reception committee are: Mrs. C. W. King, Mrs. C. Lewis Mead, Mrs. Andrew Porter, Mrs. E. Gerlinger, Mrs. J. C. Ods, assisted by the board of directors of the home. Candy table in charge of Mrs. D. M. McLaughlin, assisted by Mrs. Jacob Gray Kamm, Agnes McLaughlin, Beth Ludam, Marie Bersonaus, Mrs. A. E. Jackson and Mrs. H. S. Tutill will pour. Mrs. Paul De Haas, Mrs. E. B. Brittain, Mrs. Wendall Poulsen and Mrs. August Hoffman will assist in the dining room. Mrs. Ralph D. Robinson has charge of the music program, which will be as follows: Piano solo, Miss R. Spaulding; vocal solo, Miss Wilma Young; monologue, Miss Marguerite Egbert; violin solo, Miss Dorothy Ellis; vocal duet, Miss Young and Mrs. Robinson; reading, Miss Hildreth Humason; and vocal solo, Mrs. Ralph D. Robinson.

Mrs. Theodore B. Wilcox and her daughter, Miss Claire Wilcox, left yesterday for the east, where they are going to attend the commencement exercises at Hotchkiss, where Theodora B. Wilcox Jr. is to be graduated this spring. Mr. Wilcox will leave this week to join them in the east, and together they will pass the month of June motoring in the New England states.

For their niece, Miss El'low Mills, and her fiancé, Rogers MacVeagh, Mr. and Mrs. Sherman Hall, entertained at dinner Friday evening. Covers were laid for eight guests.

Miss Ina Brooks, from New York City, is visiting her sister, Mrs. W. S. Settle, at her home in the Wagoner apartments at 715 Wayne street. It is her intention to spend most of the summer on the coast. Miss Brooks came west for the wedding of her niece, Miss Louise Bradley.

Mrs. K. A. J. MacKenzie is receiving flowers and messages of sympathy at St. Vincent's hospital, where she underwent an operation last Monday. She is now slowly recovering.

At the University club Tuesday afternoon, Miss Antoinette Meads, young daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Meads, entertained at an informal luncheon. The following girls of the younger set attended: Miss Rose Teal, Miss Patsey Stewart, Miss Genevieve
