PLANS FOR SISTERS BUILDING REVIVED; WORK STARTS SOON

Bids on Cost of Erecting Big Structure in Piedmont District Being Received. .

Brick and Concrete and General Fireproof Construction Will Be Provided for by Architects.

Plans for the erection of a building for the use of the Sisters of the Good Shepherd, in the Piedmont district, have been revived. Jacobberger Smith, the architects who prepared the plans, are receiving bids on the cost of construction. If the figures are not too high, work will proceed at once. The project was begun almost two years ago. Active construction was postponed because of the financial uncertainty that prevailed on the breaking out of the war. The complete plans call for the erection of a story, fireproof structure near the corner of Dekum avenue and Congress street, of colonial design, to cost $125,-The materials to be used will be brick and concrete and general fireproof construction

It is now proposed to erect all but one wing of the building, or two thirds of the original plans. The estimated cost of the present work is $90,000. It will contain dormitories, chapel and reception halls. Full details will be announced in a few days.

RESIDENCE BEING ERECTED Frank Collinson to Construct a

$7500 Home. Stokes & Zeller have taken out the ermit for the erection of the new ome of Frank Collison at 742 East Thirty-sixth street north. It will be of two stories and will cost $75.50. W. N. Everett will erect a story and half frame residence at 109 Laurel court, to cost $5500. B. B. Brummell has under way the erection of a one story frame residence, to cost $3500 at 55 East Forty-second street north.

Milwaukie to Build School. Milwaukie, Or. May 23 .- The $20.000 school bond issue of the Milwaukie district, paying a premium of $211 voted at a special election for the erection of a new eight room school, has been taken by Morris Bros., of Port-Tentative plans have been preland. pared. They call for a one story building. It is the intention of the directors to have the school ready to be cupied in the fall.

Addition to Warehouse. An additional story is to be added o the warehouse and storage buildng occupied by Armour & Co., at Thirteenth and Flanders streets. changes will require a new roof and brick construction to conform to the rest of the building. The property is owned by the Boys & Girls Aid so-

Home Is Found for Motherly Hen With Her Little Brood

It was only a Partridge Wyandotte hen and her brood of * little chicks, but still there was # not room enough at the home of H. W. Kent, 240 East Eighty-second street, for them. And that is why Mr, and Mrs. Kent started out to find a home for the fluffy creatures and In villages this is an easy matter. There everybody knows everybody else their needs and family history. But in a city realized that a different method the size of Portland the Kents # must be used, particularly in *view of the fact that they *wanted money for the brood. * Here enters The Journal want ad, a lively fellow, that costs only a few cents and gets big results. He was called into a conference. In turn he called on various people in the great Oregon country-and the hen her brood were sold in a few
