THE OREGON DAILY JOURNAL, PORTLAND, WEDNESDAY, MAY 24, 1916.

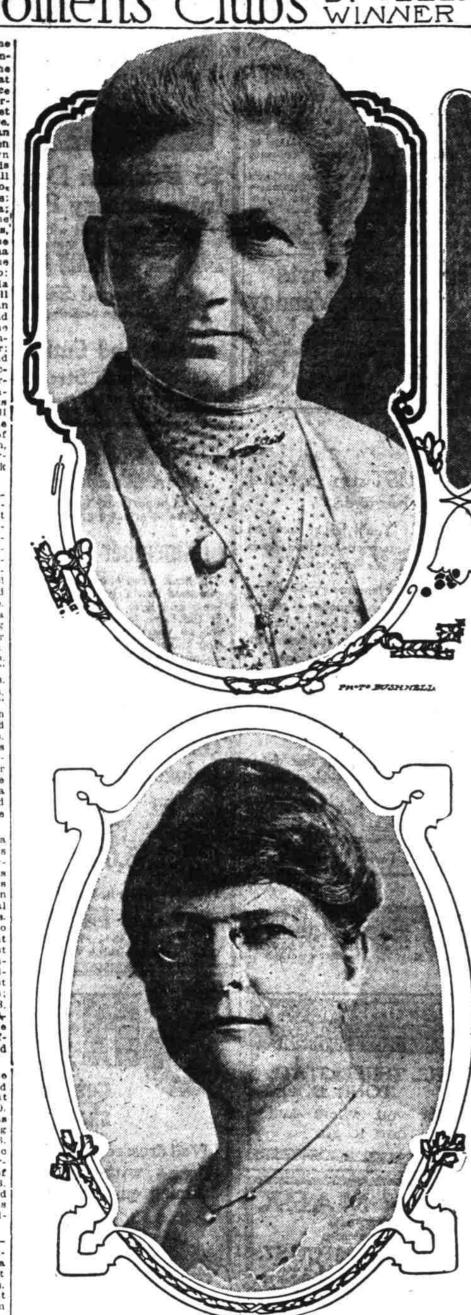

Washington High to Present Vaudeville CheJournal Woman's News of Women's Clubs WINNER

OTHING is being left undone that will in any way contribute to the success of the picnic to be given Saturday at Oaks by the president's conference or the members of all women's orunizations of the city. A basked uncheon at noon will be a feature offee will be made and served by an itendant at the park. Many women re making up partles in their own ganizations and among their friends attend the picnic. The luncheon will followed by an entertaining proram in the auditorium as follows: election, Columbian Ladies' orchestra; occal solo, Miss Harriet Leach of the Monday Musical club; fancy dances, Miss Laura Shay; comedy sketch, "The rews of D'Cupid," written by Martha ullman French and presented by the allowing members of the Press club: Thereas Hoppe, Alys French, Amelia Helen Tomlinson, Gernell Cane, Aline Brong, Martha Pullman French: songs, "A Wee Doch and Poris," "I Loved Her Ever Since She Was a Baby," 'I Loved Her Ever Since She Was a Baby," George Graham, accom-panied by Mrs. Andy Weinberger: scotch dances, "Highland Fling" and "Sword Dance," Frances Hanrahan, accompanied by Piper MacDonald; char-acter song, "The Safest of the Fam-ly," George Graham; violin solo. Miss Gertrude Hoeber of the MacDowell lub; May pole dance by 16 girls of the add school under the direction of fiss Kramer; games for the children, irected by Miss Dagermark, super isor of calisthenics at Peninsula park beld house.

Corvallis Women Give Entertainent .- The Woman's club of Corvalis gave a successful entertainment ast week for the benefit of the club-nouse fund. More than $70 was real-ned. A roll of films opened the procram. A. J. Moore gave a fine imita-tion of Al G. Fields in southern mel-odies, buck and wing dancing, and other plantation stunts. A colored til brought forth great applause. Then followed a playlet introducing a sories of living pictures representing old songs. Mrs. Jack Porter was "Her Bright Smile Haunts Me Still," Mrs Pinkerton was "Captain Jinks," Mrs IcDevilt was "Champagne Charlie, Mrs. Brock was "the Blue Juanita," Mrs opleman was "Nellie Gray," Mrs. Cirdley was "Grandfather's Clock," Mrs. Rickard dressed as a Spanish naiden was "Juanita," Mrs. Steele and frs. Watson were soldier boys, Mrs. mma Taylor was "Silver Threads among the Gold." Alice and Iva Mc Sinniss were "Annie Rooney" and her eau, Mrs. A. J. Moore was Nellie Fray's husband. A Yamma Yama lance was given by Miss Kerr and Miss Nolan. Miss Marjorie Petrie rave a fancy dance.

Alberta Club Elects .-- The Alberta Woman's Improvement club held its annual meeting last night at the Ver-non school. Annual reports of officers and chairmen of standing committees were given, showing the club had been active along various lines of practica ndeavor during the past year. Mrs. osephine R. Sharp was re-elected to serve for the third year as president of the club. Mrs. Sharp was last week re-elected president of the Womn's Civil Welfare club. Other offi ers chosen last night were: First lice-president, Mrs. Nellie Bozarth nd vice-president, Mrs. Mary B Robinson; secretary, Mrs. Anna Ful ton. On account of the lateness of the hour, the election of the remaining oficers will be held at an adjourned neeting to be held in two weeks.

Consumer's League Luncheon .--- The Consumer's league will hold the second its series of quarterly luncheons at Calendar scant teaspoon salt, one teaspoon fine-ly powdered sage, one-fourth teaspoon pepper, two tablespoons finely minced Students and alumni will combine their talents to make jolly the annual Washington high school vaudeville, to be held Friday night at the school auditorium. Seven breezy acts of onion (optional), two eggs and water as needed. Remove crust from bread and cut bread into blocks, pouring on By Vella Winner. ong, dances and sketches will make THOROUGHBRED American women are prone to follow the path of least up a bill of mirth stirring quality. The rehearsals have been progress ing under the direction of Don Orput and the affair bids fair to be one of the best of the year's high school entertainments. Many of the actors have been prominent in other local plays travagance.

juice.

Miss Miriam Hilton, Gilbert Benson and Liman Cooley will present "Choosing a Career," a playlet of mingled fun and travesty. The leading role will be taken by Liman Cooley.

A popular pair, who have often participated in musical entertainments are Fay Haker and Raymond McGrew, who will contribute a musical novelty and singing act. "Playing With Fire" will be handled by a trio of students who have led it is $6. in school room dramatics for several years. Ferne Reynolds will play The Cook." Clara Scharpf and Arvo Simola are the otners.

and programs

An acrobatic act will be given by Bob Kincaid and A. Halleck.

Miss Roberta Downing will entertain with character readings and monologues.

The Neakahnie society of the school s sponsor for a pantomime sketch cannot afford a "A Modern King Cole," coached by not. Then don't. Misses Hannah Schloth and Ruth Dun-

WRY A musical act will be given by the February '17 class.

FRATERNAL NOTES

Betsy Ross and Gul Reazee Folks Enjoy a Social Dance.

Successful Dance by Betsy Boss .-The guard of Betsy Ross council, Set in ice water and beat occasionally Veiled Ladies of the Enchanted Realm, until it begins to solidify, add stiffly held a well-attended dance last night beaten egg whites and whip until al-at Multhomah camp hall, East Sixth most stiff. Turn into mold wet with and East Alder streets, and crowded cold water, let chill, unmold and gar-the large dancing floor. Mrs. W. H. nish with sweetened whipped cream Beuley, chairman of the committee on and strawberry halves. arrangements, was congratulated on SAGE DRESSING One large loaf the success of the affair. Members of Gul Reazes grotto, Veiled Prophets, two tablespoons melted butter, one never overcome .- Meredith. aided the guard in looking after the welfare of the guests. Kirkpatrick council, Knights and La-dies of Security, will be favored with circle, Women of Woodcraft, at the W. Ben Eur Social a special program at their free open O. W. Temple, 128 Eleventh street, next meeting at Moose hall next Friday eve- Friday night. The "swap party" is the ning. Through the efforts of Mrs. Lottie Hock, chairman of the social committee, the Utopian society has been secured to render a special musical program on that ecening. L. F. Lakin, who is director of the society, will sing a baritone solo, followed by a soprano are invited. The committee having solo by Miss Margaret Marks. Other numbers will be given by members of the company.

Maccabees to Give Dance .- The Mac- Joseph F. Riley. cabees will have their regular dance Foresters' Stag Social Thursday .-and card party tomorrow night at K. Court Scandia, Foresters of America, of P. hall, 409 Alder street, to which will hold a stag smoker on the night all members and friends are invited. of Thursday, May 25. All members There will be prizes and musical selec- and friends invited to the session, tions and an all-around good time. which will be held in F. of A. hall, 129 Oregon Rose Party Tonight .-- Oregon Fourth street.

Rose council, Royal Neighbors of America, will hold a card party and social dance tonight at Manchester hall, club yesterday officers were elected as 85 ½ Fifth street, to which members and friends are cordially invited. nd friends are cordially invited. president; Mrs. Warren E. Thomas, "Swap Party" Is Planned,-Have you vice-president; Mrs. W. S. Babson, re-enough cold water to moisten well. After a few moments take up small handfuls and press dry, pick apart resistence when it comes to pledging themselves occasionally to more exinto light, fluffy mass and add all seasonings. Heat butter in skillet, pensive outlays than they can afford. add onion and cook (don't brown). It is so dreadful to have to explain to Mrs. G. that you really cannot af-ford to take two seats next to hers at add well beaten eggs to bread, min with onions and butter, toss all about in skillet until heated and free from the opera, or that a street car will superfluous moisture, then fill cavido for you, when she stands ready to step into a taxicab.

ties of fowl lightly, leaving plenty of room for dressing to expand. An English noblewoman or an Italfan- countess would not hesitate for a minute to tell you that she was too a minute to tell you that she was too upon?" asked Joe. "Absolutely," replied the friend, who had known her for years. "Abpoor-if she was-to indulge in an extravagance, and a Mrs. Harriman would not be slow to tell you that she never pays more than such and solutely. When she says she will do such a price for a hat—and I think a thing at a certain time you can a thing at a certain time you can know beyond peradventure that she will not do it then."

It is not aristocratic, either in the literal or figurative sense, to disre-IN THE MOOD OF THE gard the cost of things, and neither MODE A new sailor tilted up at the titled nor moneyed aristocrats do. is not high minded to be driven by back is called the shovel a sense of embarrassment into exsailor.

Beige or gray with blue is a par-Rout the tawdry little demon of ticularly good combination. pride in your bosom by saying you cannot afford a thing when you can-Cord pipings are used to head the flounces on some silk frocks. Plain nets are as great favorites

s ever for summer dresses. STRAWBERRY SPONGE The full bell shape is liked for afternoon and evening cloaks. One tablespoon' granulated gelatin, Some of the smart silk sweaters are four tablespoons cold water, six tableplaided and very striking. spoons bolling water, three egg whites, one and one-fourth cups sugar, two tablespoons lemon juice, Fox scarfs are most in favor among furs for summer wear.

White collars and cuffs are used one cup mashed strawberries and on many of the new silk coats. Soften gelatin in cold water. add hot water and set over steam PRACTICAL SUGGESTION

When stewing or making ready to juice and, when cooled, strawberries. can or preserve any of the acid fruits, it is best to add a pinch of baking soda, as this will eliminate the over acidity and make them more cold water, let chill, unmold and gareasy to keep.

> HAVE YOU MET HER? One of those very weak reeds who are easily vanquished and anything to swap? That is the ques- cording secretary; Mrs. C. E. Sears, Kirkpatrick K. and L. of S. Social .- tion that will be asked of all who at- corresponding secretary; Mrs. Donald > Ben Hur Social Tonight .- The Tribe of Ben Hur will give a social and entertainment tonight to members of the new thing in fraternal social affairs. order, which will follow a short ses-Informal Dance Announced, - The sion during which a class will be ini-Knights of Columbus are to give an in- tiated. The session will be held in formal dance at Cathedral hall, Seven- Arleta W. O. W. hall. teenth and Couch streets, Friday night,

June 2, to which members and friends preparations in charge consists of L. W. O'Rourke, Ed Kenefick, J. J. Higgins, J. W. Hughes, F. J. Whalen and 3128 11-Mrs. Burke Elected Club Head .--- At FEATHER the annual meeting of the MacDowell follows: Mrs. Thomas Carrick Burke, COMPLEXION DOWDER. The touch of this dainty powder is a cool caress to the skin that is sunburned or tanned. Red Feather Protects and Beautifies the

The Portland Hotel Orchestra Mr.Waldomar. Cind, Director Mrs. Delphine Marx; Soloist-Mr. John Claire Monteith, Soloist

Light retrachments will be served

Under the management of Goo. C. Ober

The Maine Monument, erected in Central Park, New York City, is one of the finest examples of memorials erected by patriotic citizens to commemorate the valor of their country's defenders. This monument was designed by American monument architects and sculptors,

Let us build a suitable he University club Friday at 12:30 Plates will be 60 cents. Reservations must be phoned by Thursday evening Mrs. W. L. Brewster, Main 2656. "Health Insurance" will be the topic for consideration, with special reference to insurance for employes o large industrial institutions. James B to insurance for employes of Cerr will oppose such insurance, and W. F. Woodward will speak in favor. An open discussion will fol

Try to Have Car Line Extended .-Members of the Franklin High Parent-Teacher association are heading ovement to have the Richmond street ar line extended to the school grounds. At present the line ends at Forty-firs street, which is about 11 blocks from the new high school. The nearest carine to the school at this time is the fount Scott line on East Fiftleth street which is about five blocks from the grounds. An effort is also being made to obtain an extension of Benton street from the south line of Mc-Millan's addition.

Sewing Classes to Meet .-- Mrs. W. J mith, secretary, requests that all nembers-past and present-of Madame Coates' sewing classes and club onvene at Meier & Frank's Thursday torning, May 25, at 10 o'clock. The neeting will be held on the seventh flogr. The semi-annual election of of-ficers will be held Thursday morning, June 1, at 10 o'clock. Every member earnestly requested to be present at ooth meetings.

Hold Matrons' Contest .--- Friday eve-

ing, at 171% Eleventh street, the W. U. social center, Central union, petal that had hung for a day right will hold a matrons' oratorial silver Very well, I'll come!" edal contest. A good program is asnured. Mrs. Fred Olson and Mrs. Isa-bal Stuart will sing, and Mrs. Ella fones and her pupils will render injourney. trumental music. Everyone cordially nvited. brook and were caught by the current Social Service Club to Meet .--- The Woman's Social Service club of Oak rove-Milwaukie will meet tomorrow fternoon at 2 o'clock at the home of Mrs. Eliza Alexander, Island Station.

At first they went on through the following program of addresses be given: "Child Labor," Miss Labo " Mrs. Margaret Paget: "Sea-

This Actually Devitalizes Coarse Hairy Growths

Stubborn growths of coarse hair which neve been caused by the unwise use of astes, rub-on preparations and worthless mitations of De Miracle, which merely move hair from the surface of the skin, an only be devi-alised with De Mir-le BON TON Le BON TON cle, the original quid hair remover, scause it attacks air under the skin It is "the bes method in the world to-day." kin. Well groomed Genuine magatomen always use De Miracle for re-noving hair from imbs and under the irms. De Miracle ever disappoints. Buy it by name and est character ea-dorses only De Miracle, Beware of so-called en orsements of bogus magazines which are used to get the atory that exploit the sale of questionable niy depilatory that as a binding guar-nice in each pack-ge which entitles for to your money if it fails. In 50c, 1.00 and $2.00 bottles, at your dealer's, r direct, postpaid, in plain wrapper. Miracle Chemical Co., Dept. A-4, ark Ava, and 139th St., New York. been busy?

Above-Mrs. Josephine R. Sharp, who was yesterday reelected president of the Alberta Woman's Improvement club. Below-Mrs. Anton Giebisch, who was elected president of the Portland Shakespeare Study club Monday of this week.

Bed Time Tales

The Brook's Song. GOME WITH ME! Come with me! come with me!" sang a little brook, one fine sunny morning. "Come with me! Come with me! I'll show you many a wonder-many a sight! "Very well," answered a buttercup over the bright surface of the brook "Take me! Take me!" said a shining green leaf. "I'd like to go on a

So the tiny buttercup petal and the bright green leaf dropped into the and taken on a long, long journey. And all the time they traveled, the brook sang to them and explained the things they saw on the way.

meadow-that was not so wonderful, though the buttercup petal was-glad Mary C. Campbell; "Laws to Protect indeed to see the flowers at the other end of the meadow. She had sniffed nan's Law," Miss Flora Snovelle. their fragrance many a time before, but never had she seen them. Then they jumped over a handful of rocks and raced pell-mell through a narrow valley.

"Why do you hurry so fast?" asked the buttercup petal breathlessly. "I like to see what we are passing Never stop and look at them."

"Come with me! Come with mé!" sang the brook, in reply. "Come with me; do not stop for rock-gazing! There are greater wonders than these rocks. Careful! Do not tarry!" she was nearly caught fast in some rushes at the side of the water. "Those rushes reach out when I go swiftly and try to pull me back. See how they But we must not stay! Come with me! Look where I am taking singing-singing on its way to the you!"

The buttercup petal and the green leaf looked, but before they could notice a thing, the brook had plunged them into darkness-black darkness! "Where are we?" exclaimed the petal and the leaf. "Are we lost?"

"No, indeed," laughed the brook, "I only wanted to show you this cave. Look! When you are used to the darkness, you can see beautiful columns. I made those. Drop by drop I left some of my lime here, and, in the years I which makes it beautiful.

Before they could notice a thing, the brook had plunged them into darkness-black darkness!

"Nor is that all I have done. While shampooed at frequent intervals. am making the columns, I am also gathering up minerals-minerals that I can give back to the flowers in the before have I seen such rocks-let's meadows that I will pass after leaving here. Oh, I am busy, very, very busy -busy all the livelong day!" And before the buttercup petal and the leaf could get their breath and an-swer back, that busy little brook dashed out into the sunshine again. shouted, as she saw that the green leaf Out into the sunshine, over rocks and pebbles and into another meadow. And there the petal and the leaf got caught on the mossy bank, and there they left the brook. But, as long as they lived, they could hear the brook

(Tomorrow-Willy Wood-Rat.)

BOX OFFICE NOW OFEN.

When writing or calling on advertisers please mention The Journal. (Adv.)

Get your seats for the opera "Fra Diavolo." Great performance by Port-land Opera association. Baker theatre Thursday night, May 25, Saturday matinee, May 27. Popular prices. have been working, I have built up shining columns. Have I not

Beauty Chat BY RUSSELL Air Baths for Hair. texture are available and not only keep the hair neat, but also give it protec-T IS more difficult to keep the hair tion from dust, winds and the sun'a in good condition in the summer rays. They are certainly comfortable than during the winter. In the motor accessories. A veil adds to the warmer months of the year there is comfort of any woman who is travelmore dust in the air. Women spend ing, and it is a good thing to have a large percentage of their time in around at all times. the open air where there are winds

Among the young girls who are devotees of tennis there are many who play the game in the sun without wearing and hot rays from the sun to test the quality of its color and fiber. hats to protect their hair and com-But if it is a greater task to keep plexions. There is no good reason why the hair in condition during the summer, it is also possible to improve its complexions and hair should be jeopardized or ruined to play a game of texture and strengthen it then. .: leantennis. Play to your heart's content. liness is the first essential to the growth of luxuriant halr. Hair, like but do not permit the game to have the body from which it springs, thrives such an effect on your appearance that it will give you a heartache when you on fresh air. It is a fine thing to look at your hair and complexion. And, shampoo the head and then permit the if you spend the summer at a waterhair to dry naturally in the pure air ing place, take your daily dip, but proto be found only outdoors or in front tect your hair from the effects of of an open window. The air has cleanwater, wind and sun. ing qualities that are all its own. They

Summer brings an opportunity invigorate and promote the health, make your hair beautiful and luxuriant, but it also presents a chance to But the very process I suggest for ruin it. Try the air bath. It will lrying the hair, there is a possibility improve the appearance and quality of that it will be injured under harmful your hair. conditions. The sun has a tendency to bleach. Sometimes, especially at the seashore-you will see women whose hair has been bleached in this way. Unfortunately it is not uniformly bleached and makes a miserable appearance. Bear this in mind when, you dry your hair outdoors or at an open window. Too much sun is liable to dissipate its color. But take advantage of the warm months to give your hair frequent sun baths. They will have an appreciable effect on its appearance and encourage growth.

Women motor more in the summer than any other season. Limousines are deserted for topless road cars. Tennis, golf and other games keep women out of doors. In each instance the hair is under a greater tesh than in the drawing room. The necessity for shampooing becomes more frequent if the scalp is to be kept free from harmful accumulations that retard growth and reduce strength. The hair derives its nourishment from the scalp and each washing removes a certain amount of nutriment. With the oily substances removed, it is difficult to arrange a graceful colffure. When the natural oils are limited in quantity, it often becomes necessary to apply something of this sort when the head is

The hair should be given ampie protection in the summer. Veils of ligh:

Sanitary Rugs For Refined Tastes SAFEGUARD the health of your

D family by purchasing CREX rug-a most sanitary and economical floor covering for people of good taste.

Do not hold dirt or germ-laden dust -are easily handled and quickly cleaned -simply shake lightly out-of-doors and freshen with damp broom. Truly the common sense floor covering.

Every desirable pattern in artistic colorings. Appropriate for every room the year-round-indispensable for the porch.

Be certain you get CREX. Every enuine rag has the name C.R.E.X woven in the side binding to insure you against imitations. to insure you against imits CREX is fully protected under U. S. Govt. Copyright. Dealers detected of fraudulent subsi-tion will be releastenity prosecuted.

es a CREX rug at your dealers in ortland, and ask for the beautiful spage CREX catalog in natural blors, or write us direct—it's free.

ATTENT OF THE ATTENT CREX CARPET CO., New York anere annon

Originators of Wire - Grass Products

