Past Year Has Seen 320 Confirmations in Parishes, Declares Bishop Sumner.

Reporting that he has made 320 confirmations in the various parishes of the diocese in the past year, the bishop spoke with hopefulness of the future, saying that he "believes the diocese is facing a great spiritual awakening."

Hood River County Left in the Cold

Defeat of J. R. Nickelsen, Candidate for Joint State Senator, Was Somewhat of a Surprise to Politicians. Hood River, Or., May 24.—The defeat of J. R. Nickelsen of Hood River, candidate for joint state senator for Hood River and Wasco counties by the Republican ticket, by J. H. Gill of Wasco county, by a majority of only 28 votes out of a total vote cast of 2485, came as a surprise to local politicians, in view of the fact that it was understood between Wasco and Hood River county Republicans that Hood River county was entitled to representation in the state legislature, and in view of the fact that Wasco county had all the representatives and senator in the last legislature, that Hood River county was to be given the senator this year, and J. STYLES HIMSELF AS WILSON REPUBLICAN Alanson M. Himes.

"Wilson Republican" is the political label chosen for himself by Alanson M. Himes, 665 Reedway, who is 70 years old today.

Wilson Republican

"I am an old-style Lincoln Republican," said Mr. Himes this morning, "and I think a Wilson Republican is about the same thing. My first vote was for Lincoln, and that was the only straight Republican vote I ever cast. I am still a Republican, but I am for Woodrow Wilson."

Wilson Republican

"The adoption of the initiative and referendum was what attracted me to Oregon," said Mr. Himes, "and while I have been here I have done what I could to further the power of the people. I don't regard the Oregon system as anything like perfect, but we must go forward and abolish it, rather than backward and abolish it."

Wilson Republican

Speaking as an old soldier, Mr. Himes says he believes that other men who, like himself, served under Lincoln, will be glad to vote for Woodrow Wilson, the man who seems to them nearest like Lincoln as a national leader.

H. C. ECKENBERGER, DEAN OF PORTLAND RAILWAY MEN, DEAD

Commercial Agent of New York Central Lines Taken Off Suddenly Today.

Portland's oldest-in-service railroad man died suddenly today.

For 53 years H. C. Eckenberger has been participating in the great problems of transportation. Thirty-three of those years were spent in Portland, where he had come to be one of the best-known figures on "Railroad Row."

Mr. Eckenberger passed away about 8:30 o'clock this morning at his home in Milwaukie. For many months he had been ailing and had been subject to dizziness, which often incapacitated him for work for days at a time. The most violent of these came last Friday as he was coming to the city on a streetcar.

Mr. Eckenberger started in railroad work at the age of 13 at Elmira, N. Y. There he learned telegraph operating with the Northern Central, now a part of the Pennsylvania system. From that beginning he gradually rose, becoming chief dispatcher for the Illinois Central at Centralia, Ill. After that he went to the Burlington, Cedar Rapids & Northern at Vinton, Iowa, and then came west.
