THE NEW KITCHENETTE was built this season to overcome the congestion encountered last year in the smaller kitchenette now relegated to storeroom purposes. The new building is airy and spotlessly clean. Maids are in attendance daily to assist picnickers in the preparation of hot beverages. The kitchenette is not a store. No coffee, tea or chocolate, sugar or other provisions can be obtained at the kitchenette. It is a station for picnic parties where coffee can be prepared, but it is essential that picnickers bring their own materials. Maids will assist you in every way, but you must bring your own coffee pot or vessel to carry your tea or coffee from the kitchenette to your table. There is no charge for kitchenette service.

On Saturday, May 27, the Presidents' Conference of Portland women's clubs will hold a monster basket picnic on the grounds. All members of all Portland women's organizations, clubs, auxiliaries and chapters are eligible. A special feature program has been arranged for the day, including a skit produced by the Women's Press Club, specialty numbers, and a Maypole dance by a score of young girls.

The Columbian Ladies' Orchestra of 18 pieces, under the direction of Mrs. Sherman Brown, will take an active part in the day's program with solo numbers by Miss Harriet Leach and Miss Gertrude Hoeber. Miss Randolph will play a cello solo. Other instrumental solos will be introduced by members of the orchestra.
