UNITED STATES TELLS ALLIES TO CEASE THEIR OPENING OF THE MAILS

Notice Served That America "Can No Longer Tolerate the Wrongs" Practiced.
NOTE NOT AN ULTIMATUM
Charged That Allies Have Attempted Illegal Jurisdiction by Force or Unjustifiable Means.
The government of the United States again must insist with emphasis that the British and French governments do not violate the jurisdiction of the mails by forcing or inducing them to visit their ports for the purpose of seizing the mails, or thereby obtain greater belligerent rights as to such ships than they could exercise on the high seas; for this is in the opinion of the government of the United States, no legal distinction between the seizure of mails at sea, which is announced by the government, and the seizure of vessels voluntarily or involuntarily in port.

UNITED STATES TELLS ALLIES TO CEASE THEIR OPENING OF THE MAILS

Postal Correspondence Inviolable.
Second.—That the inviolability of postal correspondence, stipulated by the eleventh convention of The Hague in 1907, is a principle which the right of the allied governments to visit, and, if occasion arise, arrest and detain, is not to be exercised in the case of letters, envelopes or letters contained in the mail bags.
Third.—That true to their engagements and respect of the genuine "correspondence" the allied governments will not permit the seizure of mail bags on the high seas, from seizing and confiscating such correspondence, letters or dispatches, and will insist in reply that the government of the United States desires to state that it does not consider that the postal union convention of 1906 necessarily applies to the interference by the British and French governments with the overseas transmission of mails in the case of the government of the United States that post parcels may be treated as mail bags.

Chance Woman Juror Helps Free Druggist
Mrs. M. Bagley Summoned in Municipal Court, Clerk Thinking She Was Man—Accused Man Not Guilty.
Mrs. M. Bagley, a milliner with offices in the Fieldner building, was chosen a juror in a municipal court jury by accident. She was one of six to decide that C. M. Brink, a druggist, was not guilty of selling alcohol to persons of known intemperate habits.
Mrs. Bagley did not put her preparedness in the telephone directory and when Clerk Beutgen drew a jury from the directory, thinking he was drawing a man named "M. Bagley," when Mrs. Bagley arrived, Attorney Roger Sinnott made no opposition and she took her place.
Brink was alleged to have sold alcohol to Bessie Williams and Cleo Shepherd. Since both women signed the affidavit which states that the defendant is not intemperate, the juror considered Brink was not knowingly a drunkard.
Cleo Shepherd, who is only 21 years old, but who has been arrested a number of times recently for drunkenness, was committed to the state training school at Salem for three years.
Police Make Raid.
Moral squad police, led by Lieutenant Harms, descended upon the Coast hotel, Second and Burnside streets, last night and arrested Harry Harris, the proprietor, his wife, and Josie Miller, in a man named "M. Bagley" a seizure of liquor. The three are charged with violating the prohibition law.
