Steamboatmen Meet De-191 mands of $50 and Overtime With Counter Offer.

Puget Sound and Local River Lines All Given Notice of Impending Strike-Depends on Unions.

"Take it or leave it," is the attitude assumed by Columbia and Willemette river steamboat operators toward the unions of deck hands and firemen. An increase of $5 a month has been granted by some companies, who were paying less than $45, so that all comanles now use that figure as a basis

Beyond that figure there is no chance wages being raised, stated the steamboat owners today. If after June the men wish to strike they can, but the present stand of the owners is against any further increase of wages. Coming as it did at a time when the larty of five deep sea branch of the waterfront is men will arrive in Portland also facing a labor crisis, yesterday's announcement of impending trouble among the fresh water men was a dis-

Puget sound navigators are also affected by the announcement, and it is C understood a conference is being held among owners and operators there today. Competition is keen on the sound, and it is believed here that asimilar
