Vilkerson. "that I said to the driver What's detaining you?"

"'Why lug,' I asked him another ne. 'You're not afraid of running ime. ver anybody? "He said he could not go more than 15 miles an hour as they were very strict in enforing the speed laws. "You are not going 25 miles an hour now,' I said. 'Just about,' he replied,

"Would it bother you to cheat ouple of miles?" I asked him. He said t would as they were pretty strict." Mr. Lemon testified that he was in the front seat with the driver and he vas looking at the speedometer all the ray out as they were discussing the speed, and he was positive it did not egister over 25 miles.

Mrs. Wilkerson noticed the speedmeter too because she thought it was o funny, she said, to see the dia! reep around to 25 miles and then Bigelow, but the apparent shortage authority, irop back. Officer Lockwood said the machine
