

ROOSEVELT ACCEPTS THE LEADERSHIP OF POLITICAL PILGRIMS

Ex-President Delivers Attack on "Hyphen," Calling It the Bar Sinister of America.

UNPREPAREDNESS SCORED

Why to Get Peace Declared by Being So Weak as to Invite War.

Oyster Bay, N. Y., May 27.—(U. P.)—Accepting the call to leadership of 1000 political pilgrims from New York, Philadelphia and Boston, who had marched with band and banners to Singapore Hill this afternoon, Colonel Roosevelt attacked the hyphen and preached his doctrine of Americanism.

"We regard the hyphen as a barrier across our national coat of arms and we do not intend to permit it to remain there," the colonel said, in responding to the brief speech of Richard M. Hurd of New York, who led the pilgrims on their three-mile march.

"We have the right to demand that every man who comes here to become a citizen be an American and nothing else."

"Hyphen is Bar Sinister." "We regard the hyphen as a barrier across our national coat of arms and we do not intend to permit it to remain there."

"If we allow the enemy to be part of the attributes of Uncle Sam we can make up our minds to do it."

"Peace won't keep house with fear," adding: "The way to get peace is not by being so prepared as to invite war, still less by using words which are not translated deeds, but behaving with scrupulous justice and courtesy toward other nations and at the same time being so prepared both in soul and in body, both spiritually and materially as to make it evident that insult to our nation by any other nation will not be tolerated by our people."

Passes First Annapolis Bill. Washington, May 27.—(WASHINGTON BUREAU OF THE JOURNAL)—Representative Sinnott has been informed by the navy department that Mark Crouter of Union, Or., passed a satisfactory mental examination for midshipman at the Annapolis academy, and if he is appointed to enter the academy in July.

SEN. LANE IS OPPOSED TO RATIFICATION OF FISHERIES AGREEMENT

Senate Judiciary Committee to Report Hadley Bill Sans Recommendation, Report.

Washington, May 27.—(WASHINGTON BUREAU OF THE JOURNAL)—It is understood that the senate judiciary committee will report without recommendation the Hadley bill to ratify the joint fisheries agreement between the states of Oregon and Washington.

Senators Overman, Walsh and Borah, constituting a sub-committee of the judiciary committee, have heard the views of Senators Chamberlain and Lane, the former favoring and the latter opposing the compact, and in view of the disagreement between the Oregon senators will throw the matter on the floor of the senate for final determination.

Lane Drafts Amendment. Senator Lane has drafted an amendment which he intends to offer in the senate, which provides that if within a year the people of Oregon or the people of Washington, through the initiative or referendum, vote to change the existing law, the ratification shall be void.

"Let the people of Oregon or the people of Washington change the existing law if they wish," says Senator Lane. "Things have been going on as they are for a long time, and it will not be long until November. The people should be allowed to say, and that is all I am contending for."

U. S. ENGINEERS WOULD DEFER WORK ON JETTY AT COQUILLE'S MOUTH

Washington, May 27.—(WASHINGTON BUREAU OF THE JOURNAL)—Army engineers are averse to spending any more money on the jetty at the mouth of the Coquille river until investigations have been completed to determine what effect such work would have on the channel. Furthermore, General W. W. Black, chief engineer of the army, states in a letter to Senator Chamberlain that "study of the rock borings indicates the harbor has now its maximum depth, unless increased at enormous expense." A full report on hearings in a new area is awaited to show whether or not this belief is correct, he says.

CANDIDATES' BIG GUNS LINING UP FOR ATTACK ON G. O. P. PLACES

First Rounds of Publicity Shrapnel Gives Warning of Battle to Begin June 7.

HUGHES USING SILENCERS Best of Thirteen Aspirants, Except Ford Who Is Pacifist, Have Heavy Artillery Trained.

Chicago, May 27.—(U. P.)—From first line trenches in Chicago hotels, Republican candidates trained field guns on the Grand Old Party tonight and fired a few preliminary rounds of publicity shrapnel at the Coliseum, where the battle will begin in earnest on June 7.

Of the 13 candidates whom Chairman Hillis of the Republican national committee said tonight were apparently in the race, all had their guns trained but two—Justice Charles B. Hughes and Henry Ford. If Hughes had any field pieces at work they were equipped with Maxim silencers, and Henry Ford, a pacifist, is against artillery.

Free-For-All Battle Yet. Chairman Hillis says to date it is a free-for-all battle. What alliances would take place, he said, were in the far distant future—next week.

Tonight there was one outstanding fact in the preliminary battle arranged by the campaign: Theodore Roosevelt has the most guns at work in the party set up weeks ago by the Roosevelt Non-Partisan league, the Roosevelt Republican association and an informal headquarters group of Progressives. The Colonel will arrive in Chicago at 4 p. m. and will leave for Kansas City at 8 p. m. He will be asked to speak here.

13 Seek Nomination. Chairman Hillis said tonight there were 13 candidates, all of them full of confidence in a Republican victory. He wouldn't say who he thought were the actual candidates, but according to other politicians, the men actually in the race are:

Elihu Root, Justice Hughes, Charles W. Fairbanks, Theodore Roosevelt, Senator Sherman of Illinois, Senator Burton of Ohio, Governor Braumbaugh of Pennsylvania, Philander C. Hilditch, Senator Weeks of Massachusetts, Senator Cummins of Iowa, Senator Harding of Ohio, Du Pont of Delaware and Henry Ford.

Whether La Follette of Wisconsin is an actual candidate has not been determined. Henry W. Eastbrook has closed his headquarters here and is believed to have withdrawn. Senator Borah of Idaho may be added to the list.

To Nominate on Third Day. Hillis told the United Press tonight there is absolutely no truth in reports that plans have been made to "railroad" a nomination through the first day of the convention.

"It crosses my heart," he said, "and say that there is nothing to that at all. The nominations will come on the third day under present plans."

Hillis, though declining to comment on any individual candidate said, however, that the opening of headquarters here today for Governor Brumbaugh of Pennsylvania indicated a split in the Pennsylvania delegation. He said that Brangan has been appointed rural mail carrier on route No. 1 out of Salem, Or., to succeed John G. Noe, and Tony T. Perkins has been appointed on rural route No. 1 out of Aumsville, in place of Charles E. Smith.

GUARDSMEN'S MOTHERS Will Be Cared For

Eviction of One Woman Because Son's Salary Stopped Causes Dallas Men to Raise Fund. Dallas, Texas, May 27.—(U. P.)—Eviction of a militiaman's mother because her son's salary stopped when he marched away for border duty today led to the raising of a fund expected to reach $1000 a month for the support of militiamen's families. The Chamber of Commerce is engineering the campaign for the money.

The mothers of several local youths were said to be facing destitution because their sons failed to unwind certain red tape with their employers to retain their salaries.

Balky Guardsmen Are Badly Scared

Few If Any of Texas Militia "Slackers" Expected by General Funston to Maintain Oath. San Antonio, Texas, May 27.—(U. P.)—San Antonio Texas militia "slackers" ordered courtmartialled as so alarmed at the prospect that the military court may have nothing to try when it convenes here June 2, according to the belief at army headquarters tonight. Few if any of the militiamen who refused to take the oath of the regular army will maintain their stand, according to General Funston.

Damaged by Fire. Fires destroyed a rooming house at 449 Third street and the Home Dye works, at 125 Sixteenth street, last night. The dye plant sustained damages amounting from $500 to $1000. The blaze is presumed to have been caused by a gasoline explosion. The rooming house conducted by Mrs. H. S. O'Neill and owned by P. J. Mann, was damaged to the extent of $150.

FOUND GUILTY OF MURDER

Dr. Arthur Warren Waite, convicted murderer, whom only a successful appeal can save from the electric chair.

His expression did not change one iota. In the company of a deputy sheriff he marched across the Bridge of Sighs and nonchalantly remarked: "They might just as well have returned the verdict in five minutes."

Then he hummed an operatic air. "The damning 'guilty as charged' was uttered by Jury Foreman Robert Nell to the accompaniment of sobs from the defendant's sorrow-stricken father and the quiet 'Gods will be done' from his wife, Mrs. Clara Louise Peck Waite, whose father and mother he murdered and on whose own life he had designs.

Walking from the courtroom after the verdict was brought in, Waite hummed his operatic air and smiled. In his cell afterward he did not express sorrow for his father, who attended him the comfort of philosophy. Mrs. Margaret Horton, known as "Stuido Margaret" and also "Margaret the Traitor," was not in court when the verdict was returned. When she was telephoned that her companion of the now famous Plaza studio had been convicted, she suddenly left the phone. Whether she fainted or was unwilling to talk is not known.

JURY SOUNDS DOOM OF DR. ARTHUR WAITE, MURDERER OF PECK'S

Mankiller Hears Verdict Without Slightest Show of Emotion; Hums Popular Tune.

New York, May 27.—(U. P.)—Dr. Arthur Warren Waite, New York's most remarkable murderer, is to die in the electric chair in the Sing Sing death house.

He was found guilty this afternoon of the murder of his millionaire father-in-law, John E. Peck of Grand Rapids, Mich., by a jury which had been out but 1 hour and 23 minutes. He stood in court and faced the 12 men as they decreed his death, courage clear to his heels.
