

PORTLAND, OREGON, SUNDAY MORNING, MAY 28, 1916.

HAPPENINGS IN SOCIETY

By Nona Lawler.

A social feature of the Rose Festival, the event which will absorb all time and attention next week, will be the Royal Rosarian ball at Cottillon hall, Thursday, June 8. Invitations have been sent out to about 500 guests. It will be a strictly invitational affair with the Royal Rosarians as hosts. Many prominent people of the city are patrons and patronesses, and among the hostesses besides the king and queen of the festival and their court, will be the officers from the cruiser Marblehead and battleship Oregon, who will arrive in the city that morning. Elaborate preparations are being made to have this event one of the most important social functions of the season. The committees are: Hall committee, W. J. Hoffmann, chairman—Emery Olmstead, Henry May Back, E. J. Jaeger, William McMurray, Ralph W. Hoyt and H. Eilers; floor committee, Robert Krohn, chairman—Guy W. Talbot, O. K. Jeffery, J. Fred Larson, Kurt H. Koehler, H. H. Norman and Frederick Forster.

The affair will be given under the patronage of Governor and Mrs. James Withycombe, Mayor and Mrs. H. R. Albee, Captain and Mrs. Leonard T. Waldron, U. S. A.; General and Mrs. George A. White, Consul and Mrs. C. Henri Labbe, Belgium and France; Consul and Mrs. Ramon Escobar, Chile; Consul and Mrs. May Back, China; Consul and Mrs. Henry Harrison, Denmark; Consul and Mrs. Harry L. Sherwood, Great Britain; Consul and Mrs. Carlo Visetti, Italy; Consul K. Kumasaki, Japan; Consul and Mrs. A. H. Metzeler, Netherlands; Consul and Mrs. A. H. Lamm, Norway; Consul Carlos M. Barreto, Peru; Consul and Mrs. Valdemar Lydel, Sweden; Consul and Mrs. Albrecht Streiff, Switzerland; Mr. Dean Vincent, Mrs. and Mrs. J. H. Dundore, Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Colt, Mr. and Mrs. Henry L. Corbett, Miss Henrietta Felling, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Ladd, Mr. and Mrs. Guy W. Talbot, Mr. and Mrs. Theodore B. Wilcox.

Mrs. Guy W. Talbot has announced the following list of entries for the floral parade of the Rose Festival. This feature of the big event is under the special patronage of the women of the city and groups from all sections are planning to have one or more vehicles entered. The executive committee is anxious to get the entries closed this week. Many of those named below are merely going into the exhibition class and will not compete for prizes.

Entries to date include: Mrs. Maurine Doody, Mrs. Guy Lombard, Mrs. H. Hahn, Mr. Frank Riggs, Dr. E. B. McDaniel, Mrs. Fred Kribs, Dr. E. B. Robinson, Westover Cornell, Mrs. E. Holmes, Mrs. H. W. Metzger, Mrs. A. D. Charlton, Mrs. Laher, Mrs. A. H. McCauley, Mrs. I. VanDyke, Mrs. William Galadby, Mrs. Kurt H. Koehler, Mrs. Harold Young, Miss Harde, Mrs. Oscar R. Menefee, Mrs. O. Van Schuyver, Mrs. Helen Ladd Corbett, Miss Felling, Miss May Felling, Mrs. Henry L. Corbett, Mrs. Elliot R. Corbett, Mrs. Guy W. Talbot, Mrs. W. R. Fechtelmer, Mrs. I. Fleischner, Mrs. Arthur C. Emmons, Mrs. Wilbur E. Oman, Mr. Joseph Henderson, Mrs. C. C. Colt, Mrs. George Willett, Mr. C. A. James, Dr. Parker, Mr. S. Bonnor, Franklin T. Griffith, Messrs. Abe and Julius Meier, Miss Sarah McCulley, Mr. Fred Warrens, Mrs. I. N. Lipman, Miss Marjorie Hoffman, Miss Helen Jones, Mrs. Herman Blasing, Mrs. A. Williams, Mrs. E. C. Klein (on pony cart), Mrs. W. C. Baker, Milwaukee (one car), Mrs. Thomas Robison, Wilmette Heights (two cars), Mrs. Natt McDougal, Alameda Tuesday club, Alameda school, Mt. Tabor Campfire girls, Ellwood general hospital, Trinity Sunday school, Woman's Council of Foresters (four cars), Woman's club (three cars), Multnomah Ladies' club, Vaverley golf links, Rose City park department, Portland Heights fire department, Washington high school, Peterson high school, Lincoln high school, Franklin high school, Benson polytechnic, Alameda park school, Chamber of Commerce (several), Pacific Telephone company, Portland Hunt club, Bit and Spur club, Irvington club (three cars), The Hazelwood, J. K. Gill company, Sherman Clay company and city council.

Miss Elbow Mills and Rogers MacVeach will be married June 16 at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Mills. It will be a quiet home ceremony with no attendants to the bride and bridegroom and Bishop Sumner will read the ceremony. Only the family and near relatives will be present. Countless informal affairs have been given during the past few weeks for the bride-elect, who is a charming and popular girl.

Tuesday evening, decoration day, the Waverley Country club will hold their first dinner dance of the season, opening their summer season series of these delightful affairs. They will continue as a weekly event on Saturday evenings, the second affair being next Saturday.

The members of the board and others of the association interested in the Baby home are working hard for the success of their annual June Rose silver tea, to be held at the home, Marguerite and Woodward avenues, Thursday afternoon of this week. This splendid philanthropy has a large following and hosts of their friends will doubtless call Thursday afternoon. The officers and trustees will receive the guests. They are as follows: Mrs. D. C. Burns, president, L. E. Kern, vice-president, Mrs. George B. Cellars, secretary, A. L. Keenan, treasurer, Mrs. J. R. Albee, Mrs. T. C. Allison, Charles H. Dool and Jacob Kanzier, Mrs. H. H. Northrup, Mrs. E. A. Alvord, Mrs. H. W. Scott and W. R. Mackenzie.

At the tea table will be: Mrs. William Wheelwright, Mrs. William Alford, Mrs. C. C. Colt and Mrs. Guy W. Talbot.

Assisting in serving will be: Mrs. Landen Mason Jr., Miss Rhoda Humelin, Miss Katharine Hart, Miss Catherine Holbrook, Miss Maudie MacMaster and Barbara Mackenzie; and at the candy booth will be: Miss Harriet and Mary Kern, assisted by several young ladies.

The program to be given during the afternoon is as follows: String trio, by Vivian Delory and Victor DeLory, juveniles, Valdo Garman; Miss Florence Holmes; quartet selections, personnel, George Hotchkiss Street, Mrs. George Hotchkiss Street, Clarence Heath and Miss Ruth Agnew, monologue, Miss Margaret Ebers, soprano solo, Miss Nona Lawler, and tenor solo, William Grier.

Miss Katherine Crelin of Oakland, Cal., is the house guest of her cousin, the Misses Katharine and Eleanor Gile, and is receiving much social attention. Yesterday Mrs. Vernon Cartwright (Margaret Malarky) presided at a prettily appointed tea in her honor, and Thursday afternoon, Miss Ruth Teal was hostess at a luncheon for her.

Miss Cornelia Cook gave a charmingly appointed luncheon Friday afternoon at her home on Portland Heights in honor of Miss Anor Hall of Elmira, N. Y., who was in the city on a business route to Honolulu. Circulating the table were: Miss Hail, Mrs. Bandon R. Mason Jr., Mrs. Hazel Blumauer Litt, Miss Rhoda Humelin, Miss Harriet Cummings, Miss Ruth Teal, Miss Katherine Hart, Miss Helen Ladd, Miss Maudie MacMaster and the hostess.

Between interesting engagement announcements in Portland, which are coming at frequent intervals these spring days, Seattle is furnishing tidbits of news. Following Miss Stan Fullerton's engagement to Enbridge Hadley Stuart in Seattle, two Sundays ago, came the announcement last week of Miss Inezene Carragher, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Mortimer M. Carragher and William Turnbull Burwell, son of the late Rear Admiral W. T. Burwell, U. S. N., and Mrs. Burwell. Mrs. Burwell and her son make their home in Seattle, and the bride is of a prominent family there. She visited here not long ago with Miss Irene Daly and made many friends in Portland, who will be interested in her engagement. The wedding is planned for the early fall.

The Misses Vida and Margaretta Marshall are being welcomed home with many small informal social affairs. They have been away from Portland most of the past three years, living in New York city most of that time. Last fall they returned for a few weeks and then went south for several months and have just returned home for the summer. They are domiciled at Alexandria Court. For Monday, May 29, they have asked a number of friends in for bridge at the Court.

Miss Helen Wortman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Wortman of this city, graduated with honors Wednesday from the Baldwin school at Bryn Mawr, Pa. Her mother and brother, Everett, were present at the exercises. After a few weeks' yachting cruise on the Chesapeake bay with Philadelphia friends and a visit to Annapolis to attend the graduating exercises at the military academy Miss Wortman will return home, about July 1, accompanied by her mother.

An event of interest in the school set and alumnae yesterday was the annual St. Helens Hall alumnae luncheon at the University club Saturday at 1 o'clock. Bishop Sumner and Miss Edith Malpas, and Miss Ella Stephens had charge of arrangements and decorations. The officers of the association are: President, Mrs. C. S. Jackson; vice president, Jocelyn Foulkes; secretary, Mrs. J. D. Honeyman; assistant secretary, Mrs. Helen Whitely; treasurer, Mrs. H. M. Ramsey; assistant treasurer, Miss Lucretia Allen; and treasurer of endowment fund, Mrs. H. C. Cabell.

Mrs. Henry E. Jones and Mrs. L. M. Myrick are passing the week end with Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Ayer at their charming new country place near Carlton, Or.

Miss Annie MacKay Browne will have as her house guest the latter part of this week, Miss Frances Jones of Berkeley, Cal. She will arrive Thursday and will pass a month in the city at the Browne residence, 530 Vista avenue. Miss Jones formerly lived at Denver, the old home of the Brownes, and the two girls have been school friends for years. There will doubtless be much entertaining for the visitor.

Mrs. C. S. Jackson and Mrs. Frederick W. Vincent of Pendleton left here early part of the week to motor up the highway to Pendleton. They returned for a few weeks and then went south for several months and have just returned home for the summer. They are domiciled at Alexandria Court. For Monday, May 29, they have asked a number of friends in for bridge at the Court.

Powers' Great Introductory Sale of the New French and Flemish Metal Beds

$14.85 Regular Price $19

You will say they are brass beds, for they have all the beauty of the brass. They are finished in Hicksite lacquer, which is guaranteed not to tarnish. They are as durable in every way as the highest grade brass beds produced. French and Flemish metal beds have come to take the place of brass beds, for they cost considerably less, and the most expert judge cannot distinguish the difference. The process of producing this new metal that has every characteristic of brass remains a secret of the makers, but it is safe to say that this new metal will revolutionize the metal bed industry. The fact that you can now buy a beautiful bed that has every appearance of brass at almost the cost of the ordinary iron or steel bed will immediately bring these new French and Flemish beds into great favor.

Splendid $24.50 Pattern $18.85 in the New French Metal

This beautiful bed pictured below is in the new French Metal. It has massive twin continuous posts, 12 one-inch filler rods at head and foot, and the mountings on both are unusually attractive. It is absolutely impossible to tell it from a genuine brass bed, and the price is about half what you would pay for a bed of the same style and weight in brass. Remember, it is finished in Hicksite lacquer which is guaranteed tarnish-proof.

9x12 Worcester Axminster Rugs $25.00

$1.00 Down, $1.00 Week
