(MISS MAY C. PERRY)
A RECENT BRIDE

Fan Hellenie at Alexandra Court Saturday afternoon with an informal the dance. Scotch broom and iris made effective decorations in the dining room, where dancing was enjoyed.

Miss Ruth Teal and Miss Rhoda Rumlund will leave with Joseph N. Teal for the east June 2. Miss Rumlund will stop at St. Paul to visit Miss Alice Warren, with whom she attended school at Greenwich, Conn. Miss Teal and her father will go on to Washington and to New York, from where Mr. Teal will return home and his daughter will remain with friends through the month, returning home with Mr. and Mrs. Theodore B. Wilcox about the first of July.

An interesting event of tomorrow will be the wedding at high noon of Miss Louise Bradley and MacDonald, Mayer of Brooklyn, N. Y. Mr. Mayer arrived Thursday and is the house guest of Mr. and Mrs. Folger Johnson. The wedding will be a simple home affair at the residence of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Bradley.

Captain and Mrs. Thomas S. Burley and Mr. and Mrs. Stephen D. Stoddard are spending the week end with Mr. and Mrs. Philip Blumauer at their summer cottage "The Natonia," at Seaside.

Mrs. Philip Blumauer gave a dinner party in honor of Mrs. Burley's birthday last week. Pink was the color scheme. Killarney roses and maiden hair ferns adorned the table.

Mrs. E. A. Pierce will be hostess to the members of the Monday Musical club and their friends at a garden party Monday afternoon, June 5. Early in the afternoon there will be the ceremony of installing the officers and a program of dancing arranged by Mrs. Frederick Harlow and a supper will be served on the lawn and a musical program by the Woman's chorus, Lucien E. Becker, director, for the evening's entertainment.

Dancing was the main diversion of the Laurelhurst club last week. Friday evening the members enjoyed the usual party, while on Saturday a committee of juniors composed of the Misses Mildred Lauderdale, Edythe Flora, Elcina Green, Margaret Waller, entertained their friends with a step-dancing party. Mr. and Mrs. Ferdinand E. Reed and Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Holmes were patrons for the affair.

The regular Tuesday afternoon card party has been postponed until Wednesday afternoon, when Mrs. J. C. English, Mrs. A. C. Holmes and Mrs. F. S. Griffin will act as hostesses. Friday evening cards will again be featured and Mr. and Mrs. Edward T. Hall will entertain. Both bridge and "500" will be played on both occasions.

MRS. GEORGE E. LOVE

night, May 20, in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Vance Oren Steenrod (Alta A. Rundlett), whose wedding came as a surprise to all their friends on that day. Twenty-two guests circled the dinner table and about as many more guests came in later for dancing. Mrs. Steenrod is a sister of Mrs. Keller and is the daughter of Mrs. L. C. Davis. Mr. Steenrod is with the Northwestern bank and his former home was at Detroit.

Chanticleer Inn, on the Columbia river highway, was the scene of a delightful dinner dance last Wednesday evening, when a group of nine machines went out for the evening. The banquet table was beautifully decorated in fern and larkspur, and places for 27 guests were laid. Music and dancing were enjoyed during the dinner and through the evening. Those present were: Mrs. R. R. Shawcross, Mrs. N. E. Gunnell, Mr. and Mrs. U. G. Venator, Mr. and Mrs. K. C. Eldridge, Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Eichenlaub, Dr. and Mrs. R. S. Stearns, Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Mrs. J. C. Bryant and Mrs. P. C. Whitten have sent out cards for a bridge tea, June 2, at the home of Mrs. Bryant, 745 East Broadway.

Mr. and Mrs. Warren A. Erwin gave a large party at the Baker theatre Thursday evening at the performance of "Fra Diavolo." In honor of Miss Loveland recently arrived from New York and appeared as soloist for the Apollo club at its last concert. Other members of the party were Mr. and Mrs. Joseph P. Mulder and Gustave Kraemer.

Honoring her sister, Mrs. Edward Eckley Johnson of Buffalo, N. Y., who is her guest until after the Rose Festival, Mrs. William D. Scott entertained with two attractive teas last week, Monday and Tuesday afternoons. About 25 guests called each day. Assisting the hostesses were Mrs. Richard Boykin, Mrs. Horace Fenton, Mrs. Walter Pearson, Miss Richardson of Virginia, house guest of Mrs. Pearson; Mrs. Edwina Taylor, Mrs. William A. Evans, Mrs. John Corcoran and Mrs. George Shoemaker.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Schon of this city announce the engagement of their daughter, Lena M., to Walter N. Keyser of San Francisco. The wedding is to take place in the early fall.

The Rose City Park club will give its last dancing party of the season on Tuesday evening, the final number of the program which was arranged and published in November for some kind of an entertainment for 31 successive Tuesday evenings. These occasions have been largely attended and have added to the popularity of the club as an institution whose facilities for social festivities of a high order is not surpassed in the city.

The dancing party on Tuesday evening will be attended by practically the full membership of the club, together with many visitors to whom the club has become an attractive center for enjoyable entertainment. The party will be under the immediate direction of Dr. Frank P. Fiere, assisted by several members of the club. Splendid music will be furnished.

Mr. and Mrs. J. George Keller entertained at dinner last Saturday

SOCIETY PERSONALS

Mr. and Mrs. George Norman West have taken apartments at the Stelwyn for a month, after which they will go to Gearhart for the summer. Mrs. West has just returned from a six weeks' visit at Walla Walla.

Mrs. F. A. Voge, wife of Dr. F. A. Voge of Bandon, Or., is in the city visiting Mrs. C. F. Pentress, formerly Marie Cotter. She will stay until after the Rose Festival.

Miss Katherine Linton has returned to Portland after a week and visit with Miss Virginia Drake at Seaside, Or. She will be in Portland until the first of June, when she leaves for her home in Lincoln, Neb. While at the coast she sang in vaudeville in connection with the Country Fair, and to the graduating class at the M. E. church Sunday morning.

Mr. and Mrs. D. E. Alvord returned Tuesday from a three weeks' motor trip through eastern Oregon. They traveled more than 800 miles and struck all varieties of weather from a snow storm to warm sunshine. However, the trip was most enjoyable.

Mrs. F. H. Haycox of 630 Lombard street will have as her house guests during June her brother and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. H. Simmonds of Tucson, Arizona.

Mrs. Clement Ackerman and her daughter, Miss Nan Fullerton, of Seattle, are guests for a few days of Mrs. R. Lea Barnes.

Mrs. and Mrs. Wm. Boxberger of St. Joseph, Mo., are spending the summer with Mr. and Mrs. E. Van Hoomis of 647 Marguerite avenue.

WEDDINGS

A pretty home wedding was that of Miss Susie Rosella Nail and J. Earl Axley, which took place at the home of the bride's aunt, Mrs. Alex Looney, 1115 Clinton street, on Saturday night, May 20, at 8:30 o'clock. The parlor in which the ceremony took place was decorated in Scotch broom and yellow roses.

Miss Bertha Kolzer was maid of honor. The bridegroom was attended by Raymond Axley, brother of the bridegroom. Mendelssohn's wedding march was played by Mrs. L. C. Tibbitts, a former schoolmate of the bride's. The bride was charming in her gown of lansdowne and chiffon. She carried a shower bouquet of yellow rosebuds. Both young people are well known in Portland.

It will be a great surprise to their many friends to hear that George E. Love and Miss Ethel Hawkins quietly slipped away last week and were married, unknown to anyone. Miss Hawkins, whose home is in Seattle, was a popular girl there and since coming to Portland a year ago has made many friends. Mr. Love, who is very well known in the city, he came from the east eight years ago and is prominent in dancing circles, being manager of Murlark ballroom. Mr. and Mrs. Love expect to leave on their honeymoon in a couple of weeks, going to Seattle and then on east, where they will study dancing from some of the leading dancing masters and will return the latter part of August.

Vance O. Steenrod and Alta Rundlett were united in marriage at the parsonage of St. James' Lutheran church on Saturday, May 20. The wedding ceremony was performed by Rev. J. Allen Leas. Both bride and bridegroom were unattended. Mr. Steenrod is in the employ of the Northwestern National bank.

Mr. and Mrs. George W. Kendall announce the marriage of their daughter, Ethel W. Kendall, and Dan A. Dyer Sunday afternoon at the home of the bride's parents, Rev. Harry N. Mount was the officiating clergyman.

Mr. and Mrs. Dyer will be at home to their friends after May 25, at 801 Mason street.
