Head of Mothers' Pension Department Accused by Former Case Committee

FRICTION IS

"He Would Tell Us, in Effect, That We Had No Sense," Declares One of Women Dismissed.

"There will be no more 'old hens' up here after election." That is what James F. Cassidy, head of the mothers' pension department of the juvenile court, said several months according to reports which reached the ears of members of the case committee, to whom the term "old hens" was applied. The primary election is over and Judge Cleeton, head of the juvenile court and who was defeated for renomination, has abolished the case committee, which was comprised first with a score of 98.5, and of 12 women of prominence in social John Benjamin Lucas and Rose Neuservice work who were giving of their riter tied for second with a score of ime because of the sympathy and love they have for those being aided.

Judge Cleeton's action has caused considerable of a storm among women interested in social service work. But the chief criticism is directed at Cassidy, who is declared by many of the women to be unfit to head a mothers' pension department.

Wonderful Skin and Wrinkle Removers

The method of removing bad complexions by absorption seems to have come into general use in this country. Ordinary mercolized wax, applied nightly like cold cream and erased mornings with warm water, gradually absorbs the coarse, faded or discolored outer film skin in almost invisible particles. Soon there's a brand new complexion, formed by the younger, healthier under-skin. No cosmetic or artificial treatment can possibly produce a complexion of such radiant, youthful loveliness. Druggists all have mercolized wax; it is seidom that more than one ounce is necessary.
