

What Society is Doing

BY NONA LAWLER

TOMORROW afternoon the annual rose silver tea for the benefit of the Baby Home will be an event of much interest. Hosts of maids and matrons of the apartment will call at the home during the afternoon to contribute their share to this worthy charity. The home is located on the Waverly Richmond car at Woodward and Marguerite avenues. Receiving will be Mrs. C. Burns, president; L. E. Kern, vice president; Mrs. George B. Collins, corresponding secretary; F. S. Akin, secretary; A. L. Keenan, treasurer; Mrs. H. F. Alden, Mrs. T. C. Allison, Charles H. Dodd, Mrs. Fred Johnston and Jacob Kanke.

The advisory board includes the following prominent men and women: Dr. A. W. Moore, A. H. Birrell, H. C. Eckenberger, Paul Wessinger, F. S. Downing, H. H. Northrup, Mrs. W. Alvord, Mrs. H. W. Scott and W. R. Mackenzie.

At the tea table will be: Mrs. William Wheelwright, Mrs. William Alvord, Mrs. C. C. Cott and Mrs. Guy W. Talbot.

Assisting in serving will be: Mrs. Landon Mason Jr., Miss Rhoda Rumlind, Miss Katharine Hart, Miss Dorothy Gilbert, Miss Christine Hootchok, Miss Maile MacMaster and Barbara Mackenzie; and at the candy booth will be: Misses Harriet and Mary Kern, assisted by several young ladies.

The program to be given during the afternoon is as follows: String trio, by Vivian DeLory and Victor DeLory, juveniles, Valdo Garman, solo, Miss Florence Holmes; quartet selections, personnel: George Hotchkiss Street, Mrs. George Hotchkiss Street, Clarence Heath and Miss Ruth Agnew; monologue, Miss Margaret Ebert; soprano solo, Miss Nona Lawler, and tenor solo, William Grier.

St. Stephens' Annual Tea.
Mrs. Herbert Holman will open her home at 787 Overton at tomorrow afternoon to the members of St. Stephens' Pro-Cathedral, the occasion being their annual tea for the benefit of the guild. Music will be a feature of the afternoon and prominent matrons of society will assist the hostess.

Country Club Dinner Dance.
Opening their summer series of dinner dances, the members of the Waverly Country club gathered at the clubhouse last evening. Decoration day flags and other patriotic features graced the rooming and refreshment tables and more than 100 guests were assembled. The next of the weekly affairs of the kind will be next Saturday evening, the regular day on which they will be given during the summer.

Country Club Dinner Dance.
Helen Ladd Corbett was hostess at one of the larger dinner groups, having 22 guests of the debutante set. Miss Ruth Taylor entertained with a group of 22, Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Sherman O'Gorman with covers for 14, Mr. and Mrs. Kurt H. Koehler with 10, and among other hosts and hostesses were: Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Adams 4, Mr. and Mrs. W. Vincent 4, Mr. and Mrs. John Latta 4, Hugh Hume 6, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Wilbur 4, Mr. and Mrs. William Burke 20, and Graham Glass Jr. 4.

Mrs. Jackson Returning Home.
Mrs. C. S. Jackson, who in company with Mrs. Frederick W. Vincent of Pendleton left a week ago yesterday to motor up the highway to Pendleton, started home again yesterday and will arrive tomorrow. They made the trip up in two days, the party being extensively entertained during her short stay at Pendleton. Among those who entertained her were Mrs. F. E. Judd, who gave an informal bridge.

Congratulations Received.
Mr. and Mrs. Erskine Wood are receiving congratulations on the occasion of the arrival Monday of a baby daughter.

Guests of Mr. and Mrs. Wood.
Mr. and Mrs. C. E. S. Wood have as their house guests their son and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. Maxwell Wood, of Lewiston, Idaho.

Wedding Invitations Are Issued.
Mr. and Mrs. John Matshelner have sent out invitations for the wedding of their daughter, Miss Anna Elizabeth, to Leo James Coulin on Tuesday, June 6, at 9 a. m., at the Holy Rosary church.

At Seaside.
Mr. and Mrs. I. N. Fleschner came town Sunday to spend a few days at their beach cottage.

Mr. Dan Moore has arrived in Seaside for the summer.
Jordan Zan of Portland arrived in Seaside for the summer.

Mrs. D. C. Burns, president of the Baby Home at Woodward and Marguerite avenues, where an annual silver rose tea will be held tomorrow afternoon.

Moore Lodge for St. Helena.—T. J. Ratliff, national director for Oregon of the Royal Order of Moose, has returned from a visit to St. Helena, where with his deputy, J. A. VonEyth, a new lodge of the order is being organized. Nearly 100 prominent citizens of the town have signed the charter application roll, and it is intended to hold the institution of the lodge about June 15 with at least 150 men. Director Ratliff is also making arrangements for a special train to Salem on June 24 on the occasion of the Moose rally and pageant in the Capitol city on that date.

Elks' Concert Tonight.—The Elks' band will give a concert tonight at the lodge room, beginning at 8 p. m. Elks and families invited. Admission free. This band of 40 pieces will be in line at the head of 1000 members of Portland lodge on the night of the prepared parade.

Elks Decorated.—The Elks decorated 170 graves of members passed beyond American flags were placed at the head and foot of each grave and the purple pennant of the order placed in the center. Flowers were also placed on each grave.

Macabee Special Committees Working.—Special committees are at work preparing for the joint celebration to be held by the different units of Multnomah county at Linnton on June 28, and for the big Macabee picnic at Bonneville on June 18.

Flinds Times Good.—The United Artisans, with the supreme lodge located in Portland, is an order that finds times good. It has received 200 applications for membership in the first five months of 1916 and thereby beaten its record of 21 years.

Modern Foresters Will Dance.—Portland council, No. 2, Modern Foresters, will give its monthly dance and card party next Friday night at Manchester hall, 85 1/2 Fifth street.

Enjoyed the Smoker.—The smoker given last Monday night by the M. W. A. at Selling-Hirsch hall was greatly enjoyed by members and guests.

Enjoyed W. O. W. Luncheon.—Web-foot camp, W. O. W., held its regular weekly luncheon today at Will's German deli-catessen, 406 Washington street.

Boy Accused of Vagrancy.
After his ears had been boxed by Mrs. O. R. Hanson, 830 1/2 Belmont street, for annoying her while she sat in the Columbia theatre Monday, Paul Perkins, a 17-year-old lad who recently came to Portland from Atlanta, Ga., was arrested by Patrolmen Wright and Collins and charged with vagrancy. Perkins admitted that he annoyed Mrs. Hanson.

Beauty Chat

Protect Your Ears.
EYES have sung of the ears that have the graceful lines and tints of the shells of the seas. Blessed is the woman who possesses ears of sufficient beauty to make them the subject of the poet's song. But unfortunate is she whose ears have been mutilated or distorted by pulling or twisting while they rested in sleep, and there are many such.

The size of the ear cannot be regulated, but its appearance can be improved by silly and cruel practices. Customs and habits which prey upon the beauty of the ear, however, are not so serious as those which cause defective hearing or destroy the medium through which sound is registered upon the sensitive brain cells.

Perhaps the ear is more abused in childhood than at any other period. Parents, and sometimes teachers, make a practice to punish their children by pulling or twisting their ears. Such punishments do not seem very severe, but a slap may cause inflammation of the middle ear and sometimes

This Liquid Attacks Hair Under the Skin

It is impossible for pastes and rub-on preparations to be absorbed by the skin, therefore they merely remove hair from the surface of the scalp. The only way to reach the original liquid depilatory, and as useless, because they lack certain ingredients which De Miraculo contains. Each give it the power to penetrate to the root of the hair, and to destroy it.

L'ART DE LA MODE
It is "the best method" of hair removal. It is a "miraculous" discovery. Genuine magazines of the highest character show only De Miraculo. Beware of so-called "imitations" which are used to exploit the sale of cheap, unreliable depilatories.
