HIGGINBOTHAM SAVES DAY

Goes to Bascus of Houck in Afternoon Game and Holds Angels Safe to the End.

Los Angeles, May 31.-(P. N. S.)-The Angels sneaked out shortly after sunrise and shot up the Portland club into cheap souvenirs. Walt McCredie retaliated by showing the Angels up before some 7000 of the home folks in the afternoon. Los Angeles 6, Portland 2, morning game; Portland 5, Los Angeles 2, afternoon game.

Bradley Hogg started to pitch for Chance's club in the afternoon game. All he had "on" the ball was a grip. But Bradley was not lacking in ring run in the seventh. generalship. He found out that a clever way to keep from being hit was to walk the opposition.

O. A. C. Gridiron Men Diamonds in Rough, Says Pipal

Los Angeles, May 31.—(P. N. S.)-The Oregon Agricultural college has a real job ahead of her in the next football season, according to Joseph A. Pipal, who is back in Los Angeles after a visit to the new field of battle. The Aggies have plenty of heavy men, but they are rough diamonds, in Pipal's opinion, and will require infinite rounding out and limbering up, Pipal believes, however, that he has material for a formidable squad. He expects 200 men out for the first
