CHILDREN'S DAY WILL BE CELEBRATED OVER 3 SUDAYS THIS YEAR

Several Will Observe Tomorrow, Some Week Following * and Rest Still Läter.

JUNE 14 DAY DESIGNATED

Owing to Rose Festvial Interfering. Some Have Chosen Other Dates for Services.

Children's day will be observed nationally on June 11 in all Protestant Owing to the fact that many of the local children are in the Rose Festival parade and thus have not had ample time to practice for these exercises, several churches have changed the date. Some churches will observe tomorrow and a larger number are waiting until June 18.

Children's day is an annual celebration held just before the closing of the grade schools, and is the last rally of the Sabbath school before the summer vacation season begins. On this day special exercises are generally held and the songs and recitations given generally refer to missions. The offering is also given to missions or to the students' loan fund.

In keeping with the Rose Festival and the spirit of the season, the Rev. Allen Leas will speak on Sunday evening at St. James' Lutheran church.

A NEGLECTED TRUTH

By Rev. Thomas Jenkins, Rector of St. David's Parish.

A fact of religions requiring restored emphasis today is that of the ascension. Lite is poorer for its neglect. The eternal son came from heaven to express under human form the love of the father for his children of earth. From earth he went to hell to preach the same gospel to the dead. And from hell he returned to earth to assure men of life everlasting. But this was not the end. He ascended into heaven. Till then the circuit of redemption was not completed. Now heaven and earth and hell are connected. And our interest runs through the whole circuit. In our manhood Jesus has gone the full journey. And in that same manhood he now occupies in heaven the place of privilege as our advocate and brother.

So much rests on the ascension of vital importance to the well-being of the church and the life of man that a revived observance of the festival and a renewed emphasis of its truthare entirely to be desired.
