NICK CULLOP SHOWS CLEVELAND'S SPOOF OUTFIT HE IS THERE

Southpaw Who Jumped to Federals Is Pitching Good Baseball for Yanks.

HAL CHASE IS REJOICING

First Baseman Wanted to Stay in California but Garry Herrmann Said No and Now He's Busting Ball.

Nicodemus Cullop, a pitching hireling of Cap Huston and Colonel Ruppert, is living up to predictions made for him by his Federal league boosters of days gone by.

Nick never amounted to an awful lot when he was heaving them from the portside in behalf of the Cleveland club. Some days he pitched good ball—and on other occasions the natives, after watching his efforts, resorted to profanity.

When Nick hopped from O. B. into the waiting arms of the flirtatious Feds, no one in Cleveland wept over it. The residents of Ohio's fairest municipality regarded Nick's loss as nothing worthy of grief. But at that moment up rose George Stovall, who spoke thusly:

"Nick is just reaching his full development. Before the season of 1915 has skidded down along the vales of history, Nick will be regarded as a regular pitcher."

Cullop Silences Skeptics.

When the complete returns were in for the season, it was found that Nick had compiled a pitching average superior by far to that of any other southpaw in the Gilmore outfit.

"But that ain't nuthin'," exclaimed the skeptical. "Being the best left hander among the Feds isn't worth getting excited about. That guy Cullop is just a good busher—that's all."

In due course of time, Nick became the property of the Yankees. It cost Huston and Ruppert something like $12,500 to acquire him, whereat, many, many persons ejaculated.

"Gold brick."

The season is a bit more than two months old. Nick has pitted his flinging wing against the best clubs in the Johnson circuit, and, in the majority of cases, has achieved victory. In short, Nick is looked upon right now as the best southpaw in the American league. And the "gold brick" folks are strangely silent.

Chase Again in Hero Role.

Hal Chase undoubtedly is glad that Garry Herrmann was a bit harsh—and firm—with him when Hal decided he'd much rather play in the Pacific Coast league than with the Redlegs. Of course, no one can play with the Reds and be perfectly happy at the same time, but Hal is much more joyous than he hoped to be.

It was this way:

Harry Sinclair assumed the contract of Chase, and, after considerable dickering, sold the "Peerless First Sacker" to Garry Herrmann. When the sad, sad news was carried to Chase, he at once got in touch with Sinclair:

"Please, kind sir, do not add to the sorrows of my life by making me play in Cincinnati," pleaded Hal. "Let me go to the California league. If you do, I will accept a cut of $2000 per year in my two year iron clad contract."

"You don't belong to me any longer," answered Sinclair. "Speak to Herrmann."

Garry's Ultimatum.

Hal got in touch with Herrmann, recited his piece and then listened while Garry said:

"You'll play in Cincinnati or nowhere."

Rather than be forced out of baseball, Chase decided to go to the Reds. His real objection to getting back into the majors was because he feared ridicule if he failed to deliver the goods. During recent years Chase achieved the unenviable honor of being the most panned man in baseball. Chase had stood as much of it as he could. He wanted to go some place—like California—where the knockers were fewer.

But, as you know, Chase joined the Reds—and he has become one of the idols of the town. His playing at home and abroad has been spectacular. He has hit—and with considerable frequency. His fielding, both around first base and in the garden has been brilliant.

Hall Chase expected he'd become a "goat" by going back into the majors. Instead, he has become something of a hero again.

W. Hoppe Refuses To Meet W. Ritchie

San Francisco, June 21.—(P. N. S.)—Fight fans here were disappointed today over the announcement that Willie Hoppe had flatly refused to meet Willie Ritchie at Daly City Friday night in a scheduled four round bout. After agreeing to the match, Hoppe, it is charged, suddenly changed his mind and refused to fight. Joe Rivers of Los Angeles, Ralph Gruman of Portland and Frankie Burns of Oakland are being considered as probable substitutes for Hoppe.

Bob McAllister and Willie Meehan, who are down on the Daly City card, are rapidly rounding into shape for their go. Five other contests will be staged.

Cutler to Wrestle Santel.

San Francisco, June 21.—(P. N. S.)—Charley Cutler is due in San Francisco from Chicago tomorow night to prepare for his wrestling bout here next Tuesday night with Ad Santel. The articles of the match provide for the best two out of three falls.

A win for Santel over Cutler will place him up in the front rank of wrestlers. If Ad is victor he probably will be matched with the winner of the Joe Stecher-"Strangler" Lewis bout, scheduled for Omaha July 4.

Al Bartholemy Visits Portland for Spell

Al Bartholemy, the Portland youth who is first string catcher for the Tacoma club of the Northwestern league, slipped over during showers yesterday for the purpose of visiting the folks.

Al, who tried out with the Portland Beavers this spring and was transferred to Tacoma by Walter McCredie, has chased "Skipper" Roberts out of the job of first string catcher, which is quite a feat inasmuch as Roberts had a lot of Federal league experience last year.

Bart has been catching great ball and his hitting has begun to climb. Last week he hit .292 and figures that if they keep pitching to him as they did, he will be up among the good hitters of the club.

Bart says Tealey Raymond, veteran manager of the Seattle club, figures Carson Bigbee to be the second best player in the Northwestern league. He places Kenneth Williams of Spokane above Bigbee, solely because he is more experienced. Bigbee is hitting .326 and is leading the league in stolen bases. Bart figures Nick Williams made a big mistake when he did not take Bigbee, when the latter was offered to the Spokane club by the McCredies.

Small Field to Play In Open Golf Event

New York, June 21.—(I. N. S.)—With the closing of the entries for the national open championships, which will be played at the Minikahada Golf club, Minneapolis, it was found that the list is only about one third large as last year at Baltusrol.

The U. S. G. A. officials have decided to have only two days of play and will do away with the qualifying round on account of the small field.

Few of the New York players have entered. Only one ex-champion, Alex Ross, is on the list. Alex Smith, former champion, who has not missed a championship in 12 years, will not go west, neither will Jerome D. Travers, the present champion.

Local Tennis Players Lose to the Japanese

G. Kumage and H. Mikami, the Japanese tennis experts, defeated W. A. Goss and A. D. Wakeman in the singles matches played yesterday afternoon on the Multnomah Amateur Athletic club courts. The matches were scheduled to be staged on the Irvington courts but on account of the rain they were transferred to the Multnomah courts. Kumage beat Goss, 6-2, 6-4, and Wakeman lost to Mikami, 6-2, 6-0.

This is the first invasion of the country by Japanese tennis players and their coming has created much comment. They will participate in the California tourneys and then go east.

Diplomatic Service Is Voted $2,224,000

Senate Adds $150,000 to House Measure to Meet Increased Cost of Living in Embassies in Europe.

Washington, June 21.—(I. N. S.)—The senate yesterday passed the diplomatic and consular appropriation bill, providing $2,224,000 for the conduct of the diplomatic service. The bill was rushed through after the senate had incorporated an amendment adding $150,000 to the measure to meet the increased cost of living at the embassies and legations in Europe.

The senate naval committee delegated the work of revising the naval construction program incorporated in the naval appropriation bill as passed by the house to a sub-committee consisting of Senators Tillman, Swanson and Lodge. It is practically certain that this sub-committee will add at least two dreadnaughts to the five battle cruiser program adopted by the house.
