Contest With Dr. E. B. Pickel, His Principal Opponent for Position, Is Spirited One.

BOND ISSUE IS DEFEATED

Question of Making Junior High School of Washington Grade Building Was Beaten.

Medford, Or., June 21.—Attorney W. E. Phipps was elected school director Monday for the ensuing year. The contest was spirited, Dr. E. B. Pickel being the principal opponent. Proposed $8000 bonds for making a junior high school of the Washington school structure were defeated. The high school is overcrowded and no additional room is available. The problem of providing room for high school students next school year is embarrassing.

Reynolds as clerk to succeed Hiram Beal, for one year. The tenth grade was added to the course of study, and the budget as estimated by the board of directors, making for an eight mill special tax to raise $1152.56 carried.

The election in surrounding districts resulted as follows: Mountaineers, W. S. Hahn and A. C. Wirtz as directors and clerk, each succeeding himself; Mrs. S. J. Raffety, teacher; Meacham district, Geo. Meacham, director and Earl Hollenbeck, clerk; C. L. Nelson, teacher; Columbia, W. C. Jackson and G. A. D. Brewer, clerk. No teacher selected.

Nickelsen at Hood River. Hood River, Or., June 21.—The school election held Monday for the purpose of electing one director and clerk was the most spirited election held in the school district for many years for the election of officers. The storm center being the nominees for clerk, M. H. Nickelsen of the city district nine years and the Frankton district ten years, was re-elected over Mrs. R. H. Gould by a vote of 87 to 58. Though it was reported on the streets that Mrs. Gould was the woman's club candidate, Mrs. J. P. Lucas, president of the club, stated that while an effort had been made to have the woman's club back Mrs. Gould was not active in the election. E. C. Blanchard was elected director to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Frank A. Gram to be a candidate for re-election.

A 10 mill tax was voted for school maintenance for the coming year. Other matters pertaining to the school were discussed by those present.

Redmond Union Stands. Redmond, Or., June 21.—The vote to dissolve the Redmond union high school failed in the election held in the evening. The union was dissolved. Only the two Terrebonne districts and Shepherd district favored dissolution.

Dr. J. Barr and W. T. Mullarky were elected to serve on the school board and L. E. Smith was elected clerk in the local election. W. T. Mullarky was elected to represent the district on the union high school board.

Interest at Albany. Albany, Or., June 21.—More interest than usual was manifested in the annual school election Monday when 274 voters were cast in the election for school director. A. C. Schmitt, a local banker, was elected to succeed himself for another five years. He received 133 votes. Walter M. Parker received 124 votes and C. F. M. Powell received one vote. Acquittal Is Ordered By Judge McGinn

Court Points Out That There Is No Evidence to Show I. Davis Is Guilty of Theft.

Declaring that the state had produced no evidence which would justify a verdict of guilty, Judge McGinn yesterday afternoon directed the jury to return a verdict of not guilty in the case against I. Davis, who was charged with having received 200 grain sacks which were stolen from the Crown Mills company.

Judge McGinn pointed out that the evidence showed that Davis went after the sacks at the company's warehouse at 2 o'clock in the afternoon and that he brought them from employees of the company and there was nothing to show that he had knowledge that the sacks were being stolen.

J. W. World and A. D. McQuisten, employees at the mill, confessed to stealing the sacks and were paroled.

MISUSE OF NAME OF THE LOCAL CHAMBER IS COMPLAINED OF

Secretary Criticises Manner of Getting Ads for Good Roads Tour Book.

Solicitors for the Good Roads Tour book, being issued by the Oregon Touring committee, used the name of the Portland Chamber of Commerce without authority to procure advertisements, according to a statement made by George E. Hardy, executive secretary of the chamber, after a an investigation.

The investigation was made on reports that the solicitors were taking advantage of a close affiliation between the chamber and the touring committee and made it appear to prospective advertisers that the Chamber of Commerce was behind the scheme.

When the "summary" of the book was submitted to the committee on the first page these words, "Indorsed by the Portland Chamber of Commerce," were printed in heavy black letters, for the apparent purpose of leading advertisers to believe they were spending money to aid some endeavor of the chamber, when in fact the chamber will receive nothing from funds raised through the advertising in the touring book.

Mark Woodruff, in charge of the chamber's publicity, declared that the solicitors had taken "advantage of the situation," for their own benefit. "Some time ago," said Woodruff, "a touring committee for the Chamber of Commerce was appointed. This committee undertook to issue a tour book of Oregon. It was thoroughly understood that this committee was to proceed with the work as though it were an independent body."

"The touring committee then entered into contract with a local printer for publication of the book, and as I understand it, the printer was to get his pay from whatever advertising he could procure."

"When the 'summary' of the book was submitted to me, the committee on the first page these words, 'Indorsed by the Portland Chamber of Commerce,' were printed in heavy black letters, for the apparent purpose of leading advertisers to believe they were spending money to aid some endeavor of the chamber, when in fact the chamber will receive nothing from funds raised through the advertising in the touring book."

"Although unauthorized use of the chamber's name was made, there is nothing left to do now," said Mr. Hardy. "The solicitations for advertising have been finished. Otherwise we would put a stop to any misrepresentations as to the chamber's position in the matter."
