Comrade Bobby Can't Coordinate Gray Matter and Digits When Pinch Comes.

SAINTS TALLY IN TENTH

Chuck Hannah Delivers Early Pinch Hit and Speas Does, Too, But Can't Discount Murphy's Sacrifice.

By R. A. Cronin

Comrade Bob Vaughn was thinking of the good old days of '47 when Zach Taylor took a fall out of Santa Anna, during the afternoon, mayhap. And he thought so hard and so long that he clean forgot about the ball game. May-be Comrade Bob was thinking it would be a good thing for him to enlist in the Oregon National Guard and shoot bad Mexicans. If such was his thought, some 5000 fans qu'te agree with him.

The comrade lost the old ball game HUB TOWN TEAMS in two different spots. The fans paid their compilments, but that divin't fease the old comrade one bit. He's seen sterner stuff than that, by beck. He swung his white cap gally over his head and ducked under the grandstand, just as the growd rose up and gave him the gander salute.

Doyle Didn't Fear Drops.

Umpire Jack Doyle kept the Beavers, the Salts and his quinzy throated mate, Billy Phyle, out in the rain and mist for a couple of hours, while they set-tled the affair, and would no doubt have started the second game of the advertised doubleheader if the ground had not been too slippery. He is a glutton for punishment, is this Doyle. By winning the game in the tenth

However, he picked it up and without looking around to see what was transpiring, threw to first. A play at second would have helped the Beavers out of a bad situation. Shinn raised a puny fly to Vaughn to start the tenth, which the comrade let roll out of his phalanges. Brief singled to center and Ryan sacrificed. .Murphy raised a long fly to Nixon, who had switched to center under the rearrangement of local players, and the fleetfooted Shinn fallied after the catch. The Beavers went out in order in their half.

Polo Player Cannot Join Army; Disabled

Springfield, Ill., June 26.—(I. N. S.)
—Fred McLaughlin, the noted poloplayer, member of the Onwentsia club team, traveled all the way from New York to join battery C, but was rejected for physical disability. Examination disclosed a small hernia, which was sufficient to disqualify him.

Great Anderson, the reformed wrestler, hooked up with Jack Dempsey of Salt Lake City at the Fairmont A. C. Saturday night. Andre weighed 220 and made a fine picture of a portly Swede in the ring. Dempsey hit him with everything but the water bucket and won easily.
