SCENES FROM CAMP WITHYCOMBE AT HOUR OF DEPARTURE OF GALLANT THIRD BATTALION, O. N. G., FOR SERVICE ON BORDER

OREGON SOLDIERS ON WAY TO COMMENCE DUTY UPON BORDER

Third Battalion, Third Infantry, Takes Its Departure for San Diego, Cal.

CROWDS ARE ON HAND

Band Plays and Tears Pill the Eyes of Many as Boys Pull Out Yesterday Afternoon; Belatives Present.

Camp Withycombe, Clackamas, Or., June 28 .- The first of the Oregon troops to leave for border duty, the Third battalion, Third infantry, Oregon National Guard, left on a special troop train over the Southern Pacific for San Diego at 5:40 o'clock yesterday afternoon, exactly one week from the arrival of the first troops at the Clackamas camp.

The crowds from Portland and many persons from the home station towns of the four companies, I, K, L and M, spent the afternoon in camp watching preparations for the trip and lined the depot platform and the railroad right of way as the train pulled

Last Wagon on Flat Car.

The last wagon was blocked firmly on a flat car only a minute or two before the special left. Then sleepers and freight cars were assembled, and the battalion left to shouted "good by" cheers and prolonged clapping of hands. "Good luck, we'll see you soon," was the parting word of those who re-

Headed by the Third regiment band, the battalion, with Major Carle Abraham in command, marched from the camp to the railroad station through a lane of visitors. Applause swept down the entire crowd. At the entraining point the battalion halted, waiting for a freight train to pull out

Band Plays "Auld Lang Syne."

The band played "Auld Lang Syne" Earlier in the afternoon it had played Onward Christian Soldiers." There were a few tearful farewells but it was expected that larger gatherings of those nearest and dearest would be at Woodburn and Salem. In all, there were 325 men and 19 officers in the four companies, with small detachments from the supply company and the medical corps. Running on a special schedule the battalion is due to reach San Diego in 68 hours, at 2 o'clock Friday.

Albany Greets Passing Soldiers. Albany, Or., June 28 .- As the four passed through Albany this evening they were greeted at the depot by the Fifth company coast artillery corps, the Albany band and hundreds of shouting and some weeping cit-The feeling that is beginning to be tense here as a result of the momentarily expected call for the local artillery company broke forth in intense enthusiasm when the sol-diers' special pulled in. The populace yelled and shouted and many tearstained faces were seen through the crowd as some mother or wife real ized that soon her boy or husband might be on the way to the border. A large number of Spanish war veterans and former comrades of Mafor Carle Abrams and others who the Philippines were on hand to bid farewell. Captain Roy R. Knox has received notice from Adjutant General George A. White to recruit the Fifth company up to full strength of 100, and the call to mobilize is expected by the last this week or the first of next. Members of the company are anxious to see service.

Should Carranza take this position, or otherwise delay freedom of the American prisoners, the president would follow the course of action al-ready definitely determined upon. It would not include a declaration of war. It would mean the rescue of the American soldiers by force, if necessary, however long and arduous the effort. The president would outline his intended course to congress and ask support for the program.

Morey Interview Received. Washington, June 28.—(U. P.).—An interview with Captain Morey, surviv vor of the Carrizal battle, was for-warded to the war department today. It indicated, as his letter and other nterviews had, that perhaps the Amercan forces were in part responsible for the clash with the Mexicans.

Inasmuch as Morey was not present at the parley between Captain Boyd and Mexican commander Gomez, how-ever, Secretary Baker refused to regard it as the final word of the sit board of officers, he indicated, A board of officers, he indicated, will be chosen to summarize the testimony of the battle and to gain whatever possible information can be had from surviving officers. The Morey report was taken to President Wilson during the day. The president held that Carranza's answer to the demands, however, is the real determining element of the entire problem, rather than the matter of who caused the Carrizal battle.
