

WORLD'S WOOL TRADE CONTINUES TO GAIN IN STRENGTH

PUGET SOUND SAID TO BE RESPONSIBLE FOR POOR QUALITY

Inferior Apples From There Said to Have Been Chief Reason for California Placing the Ban Upon the Northwest Product.

That much of the trouble with California horticultural authorities over the shipment of apples to that state from the northwest is due to the dumping of these supplies on the southern trade by a Puget sound concern, is the opinion expressed by the local trade.

Seemingly California has been used as the dumping ground for these extremely poor Washington state apples and for that reason the southern state has placed the ban upon all inferior quality shipments from Oregon as well as Washington.

At this time California is shipping very inferior quality new crop apples to Portland and other Oregon markets. Some of the stock is 90% matured and other portions are badly diseased. This stock is being sold upon the local market in competition with the excellent quality old crop Oregon-Washington stock but owing to its inferior quality can underbid the latter when it comes to price making.

PEACH MARKET VERY SLOW Market for peaches is very slow along the coast. Receipts from California are very liberal. While demand was quite active a few days ago, it is extremely slow at the moment. Extreme top is $1 for California.

VEAL MARKET GOES BEGGING Market for country killed calves is in a woe but a few sales are still being made. Continues heavy, and there is a very slack demand. Sales of extreme quality at 10c generally, with very good stuff sold as low as 9c during the last 24 hours.

EGG MARKET SOME FIRMER There is a somewhat firmer tone in the local egg market. Receipts are fair but quality is excellent. Receipts are fair but quality is excellent. Receipts are fair but quality is excellent.

CHICKEN MARKET IS LOWER Lower prices are being named for chickens generally in the local market. The extreme quality is still being made. Receipts are fair but quality is excellent.

LOCAL BEANS COME BETTER Both green and wax beans from the Dalles are in fair supply along the coast. Receipts are fair but quality is excellent. Receipts are fair but quality is excellent.

BRIEF NOTES OF THE TRADE Country killed hogs are steady for good stuff. Walls Walla has started onion shipments in a large way.

SHIPPERS' WEATHER NOTICE Weather bureau advises: Protect shipments of fruit and vegetables from frost. Receipts are fair but quality is excellent.

Horse Trade Has Very Firm Feeling and Demand Heavy

Entrance of U. S. Government into Buying Field Creates a Much Greater Call.

Horse market prices are again advancing. With heavy call for supplies from the United States government and continued liberal orders available from foreign governments, supplies of horses are dwindling fast. In fact offerings are so greatly decreased that buyers are letting down the bars of quality somewhat. It is today necessary to accept stock at full prices that were rejected for one cause or another a short time ago.

Almost every day supplies are coming forward to the local stockyards and trading is quite fair. It is generally stated that McLean & Ruby have been very liberal buyers of horses for the armed governments of Europe recently. The horses are being shipped to the Ruby farm east of this city.
