PATRIOTIC LEAGUE IS TO ASSIST FAMILIES OF THOSE AT FRONT

Successor to Patriotic Council Organized at Meeting at Chamber Yesterday.

GOVERNOR MAKES TALK

Extra Session of Legislature Suggested to Provide Relief, but This Is Found Not Now Necessary.

The Oregon Patriotic league succeeded yesterday the Oregon Patriotic council. The league will direct for the state the securing of the fund that will be necessary to care for the dependent families of enlisted men who answered the call for service in Mexico.

General Is Reorganized.

These plans were decided upon yesterday at a meeting of the Patriotic council, held in the Chamber of Commerce. Governor Withycombe attended the meeting. He stated that enlistments of married men would be discouraged, as there are plenty of men without dependents to meet present needs.

League Meets Emergency.

It was pointed out that the Oregon Patriotic league undoubtedly could handle the situation until the regular session of the legislature. While the league is getting its plans for securing necessary funds into effect, the Daughters of the American Revolution will continue as at present their organization to raise and administer the fund for the care of families.

Held on Suspicion Of Stealing Geese

Slouches Find Feathers, Head and Feet of Birds and Then the Arrest Takes Place.

Story Is Ridiculed.

Baltimore, Md. (U. P.)—Inquiries concerning the possibility of a German submarine hiding in Chesapeake bay brought significant negative news from the United States office yesterday. A straight-jacket was suggested in connection with the name of the inquirer. The announcement in New York that money would be forwarded to Germany on a boat now at this port occasioned some surprise, but there is a marked reluctance on the part of local Germans to take advantage of the opportunity. In some circles the offer is regarded in an unpleasant light, and an investigation by federal authorities may be recommended by a hyphenated organization with headquarters here.

Mrs. Sanger on Trial In Municipal Court

Colonel Wood Says If Books on Family Limitation Are Obscene Then the Holy Bible Is Obscene Too.

"If the ex post facto ordinance regulating the distribution of 'obscene' matter is valid, then the Holy Bible is obscene and its sale should be abolished," declared Colonel C. E. S. Wood today in the municipal court, summing up for the defense in the prosecution of Mrs. Margaret Sanger for the sale of her pamphlets on family limitation.

Colonel Wood held the ordinance to be presumptuous, ridiculous, unconstitutional and unworthy the efforts of the legislative body like the Portland city council.

The courtroom was thronged during today's proceedings, and the efforts of being women, many of whom had aided Mrs. Sanger in her propaganda work in Portland.

Emmett Callahan to Address Jacksonians

Progressive Who Refused to Follow Roosevelt Into Hughes Camp Will Discuss Woodrow Wilson.

Emmett Callahan, chairman of the Progressive county central committee for Multnomah county, will be the principal speaker at the regular meeting of the Jackson club, to be held Monday night at 8 o'clock at Central Library hall. His subject will be "Woodrow Wilson From the Progressive Viewpoint."

Colonel Callahan has refused to follow the lead of Colonel Roosevelt back into the Hughes camp, contending that the same influences controlled the nomination of Hughes that put Roosevelt out of the Chicago convention in 1912.

Isaac Swett will also speak, and the Kaplan Ladies' quartet will furnish several patriotic songs during the evening. Colonel Robert A. Miller, president of the club, will preside at the meeting.

GERMAN AGENTS SAY SUBMARINE CROSSED OCEAN AND IS SAFE

New York Firm Reports U-Boat Reached Baltimore and Is Submerged in Bay.

New York, July 1.—(I. N. S.)—The Transatlantic Trust company of this city, which has been recognized here as an unofficial agent of the Austrian and German government, announces in a half page advertisement in the Hungarian Daily American Magyar Nepszava that the German submarine so frequently reported as being on the way here from Hamburg reached Baltimore Thursday morning and is now concealed somewhere near Washington under the waters of Chesapeake bay.

The advertisement reads: "Wander of wonders. Money forwarded to Hungary by a German submarine, 100 krona for $14 only. Thursday morning they arrived at Baltimore. A German submarine and it leaves for Europe in a few days. The Transatlantic Trust company announces with pride from now on it will send money orders by this way."

Secrecy, it was said, was necessary to prevent a possible conflict with the American government on the status of the German submarine. The company only, it was explained, according to this version, the German embassy feared that the submarine might be regarded as a warship by the United States and that the United States would be ordered out of American waters within 24 hours.
