

FACTORS TO PREACH SERMONS BEARING TOMORROW

Preparedness to Be Underlying Theme of a Number of Speakers.

WILL REVIEW DANGERS

New Spirit of Patriotism Will Be Appealed to—To Discuss Destinies of Nation.

This year Portland will see an old fashioned and sacred Fourth, the like of which has not been witnessed for some time. In keeping with this plan the pastors of the different churches will preach appropriate sermons tomorrow. Preparations will be made for the underlying theme of several sermons, but it will not be preparedness for war against mankind, but for war for mankind.

The dangers that confront the nation from within will be pointed out as being greater than any danger from foreign invasion. They will be shown how the destinies of the city and how the fortunes of the city are linked to the lives of each individual. The theme of each individual controls within his hand the destiny of his city, state and country, and that if the true citizen fails to vote, that the ballot in the hands of the wicked may become the means of the moral surrender and fall of our nation.

Subjects of Patriotic Sermons Announced

Rev. William G. Elliot Jr., Church of Our Father, announces a series of five patriotic sermons for the Sunday mornings of July, under the general subject, "Fate and True Loyalty to the Nation." The themes for each day will be as follows: July 2, "The American Flag Stands for Liberty"; July 3, "The Flag and Law"; July 4, "The Flag and the Righteous"; July 5, "The Flag and the Way to Internationalism"; July 6, "The Flag and the Cross."

CHRISTIAN ENDEAVOR

Providing the weather will permit, the annual excursion so extensively announced for last Monday evening, will now take place on Friday evening, July 4. The excursion for the former date will hold good for this event.

The Sunnyside Congregational society will have their business and meeting in the church parlors this evening.

The Oregon Christian Endeavor union announces to its members this week that there will be a headquarters at the Columbia river for the purpose of providing a rest room and a meeting place for Endeavor members and their friends during the sessions.

An extensive exhibit of charts, literature and Christian Endeavor suggestive printed matter will be on hand. Oregon City Congregational church will see that the tent is kept decorated and glad to have the church furnish the chairs, tables and other conveniences.

Two Sunday evening young people's meetings of an interdenominational character will be conducted on the grounds each of the two Sunday evenings of the Chautauqua, and will be in charge of the Clackamas county union. The young people of Multnomah and Clackamas counties are invited to make an effort to attend these meetings.

The Multnomah county union will have in charge of all publicity in connection with the headquarters work. Mr. and Mrs. Clarence H. Sprague will be in charge of the headquarters work and will be assisted by prominent officials of the state and county unions. A register will be opened wherein all visitors will be asked to enter their names.

Mr. Carrick and G. Evert Baker took 4000 Portland red and white roses to the Washington state convention in Seattle last week. Mr. Carrick said that it would have been impossible for the Seattle people to have carried out their decorative scheme had the Portland Endeavorers fallen down. The front of the church was struck with wire when the Portlanders arrived, but the flowers were not damaged. The convention as a whole and especially the decorating committee were very grateful to the Oregon union for their assistance.

Mr. Baker addressed the convention on the "Campaign for Millions," and Mr. Carrick helped raise the budget for the coming year. About 725 delegates were present from different parts of the state. One interesting feature of the Portland people noticed was that Oregon has many societies as Washington even with Washington's larger population. Also that Oregon raised a larger budget every year.

EPWORTH LEAGUE

The gospel team from St. Johns will visit Lincoln church tomorrow evening and conduct the young people's service. Sunnyside chapter visited Fatton Home last Sunday and conducted a service for the benefit of the old folks in the home. After the service the old folks crowded around the visitors and thanked them for coming and praised their singing. When the old folks had left the assembly room the young folks went upstairs and sang for an aged man who was unable to leave his bed.

The Sunnyside people consider this monthly visit to the home one of the best parts of their work. The chapter also visits the Multnomah county farm once every quarter.

Service at Tremont.

There will be service at the tent at Tremont station at 3 o'clock Sunday afternoon. The morning and evening services will be held at the Brentwood M. E. church. Rev. James Malley will preach at each service. Rev. L. F. Smith, conference evangelist, will have charge.

CAMP MEETING TO BE OPENED SUNDAY

Rev. Will C. Trotter

The fourth annual camp meeting of the Pentecostal Assembly mission, 227 Ankeny street, will open Sunday, July 2 in the grove that lies between Creston and Anabel stations, on the Mount Scott line. This will make the third successive season that the mission has had its camp meeting on these grounds.

The camp will consist of one big tabernacle tent, a large prayer tent and a number of smaller tents. About 50 families will camp on the grounds. Meetings will be held in the afternoon and evening and all day Sunday. The afternoon meetings will be of the nature of study classes. During the past year the mission has sent out its members and started missions in many of the towns near Portland and expected that they will attend the meetings from these places.

Rev. Will C. Trotter, the pastor, said: "The aim and object of this camp meeting is to bring the people, getting people through to the baptism of the Holy Ghost and the sick face to face with the healer of all ills."

July 4 the assembly is planning a big day. The members expect to come in the morning and raise the big tent and then sit down to a potluck picnic dinner and later in the day have an old fashioned testimony service.

Sunday School Will Hold Excursion

The East Side Baptist Sunday school will hold an excursion on the steamer Undine July 4. The boat will leave the Washington street dock at 8:15 in the morning and will be gone all day. The trip will be up the Columbia river and will take in all the scenic points. The boat will land the party on the Washington side of the river and the locks where they will spend two hours enjoying a picnic dinner. The boat will accommodate 325 people and there will be $1. with half fare for children.

The officers of the Sunday school are giving this trip to help raise a part of the $300 they have promised to give toward the erection of a Sunday school annex on the church. The trustees of the church are planning to build an annex on the church 15 feet by 70 feet and divide this up into five or six classrooms. At present the school has outgrown the accommodations of the church room, the Christian Endeavor room and one classroom in the basement.

Resignation of Rev. Marcotte Accepted

At a meeting of the congregation held Thursday evening, the resignation of Rev. Henry Marcotte was accepted. It will take effect the first Sunday in September.

Rev. Marcotte will take the pastorate of the Second Presbyterian church at Kansas City, Mo.

A successor for Rev. Marcotte was announced to be secured by the church session.

BAPTIST UNION

The president of the Willamette association will have charge of a special summer course of the Christian Workers' Training school at the Central library every Monday evening at 7:30 o'clock. The New Testament will be the subject and the text book of the subject. The meetings are open to the public.

Mr. Albin Nelson, president of the First Swedish church union, was presented with a gold watch by the young people of the returned mission departure for Iowa a few days ago. Alfred Johnson will now act as president of the union.

The following is a synopsis of the work done by the Portland union up to its discontinuance June 23, according to reports read at the rally at St. Johns church, Portland, July 1, 1916.

By vote of the union the Portland union incorporated itself with the Willamette association and henceforth will be known by that name. At present the report of the recording secretary showed that nine business meetings had been held during the year and four rallies. The average attendance at the rallies was over 200. The report of the corresponding secretary shows that quite a number of bulletins have been distributed during the year. The report of the president showed that the union conducted an institution in the White Temple in February, a union picnic at Gladstone in March, a reception for a returned missionary in the Italian church and a prayer meeting on Thanksgiving morning. Dr. James A. White, general secretary of the Oregon Union of America, was in Portland during the year and spoke at a rally given in his honor. On Decoration day the union held their annual picnic at Gladstone and the best parts of their work. The chapter also visits the Multnomah county farm once every quarter.

At the recent meeting of the Northern Baptist convention, Rev. E. A. Leonard of Gresham was honored in view of the fact that he had completed 50 years in the active ministry. Warm congratulations were wired to him. Rev. Mr. Leonard was pastor when the St. Johns Baptist church was built. He also founded and erected the building occupied by the Highland Baptist church.

PASTOR COMPLETES HIS TWENTY YEARS OF PULPIT SERVICES

Dr. Jacob Kratt of First German Baptist Church Makes Splendid Record in Work.

450 PERSONS BAPTIZED

Unity and Progress Mark Activities of Church; Debt Paid and New Building Erected.

Dr. Jacob Kratt of the First German Baptist church at Fourth and Mill streets, completed 20 years as pastor last Sunday. Dr. Kratt came to Portland directly from the Roncesvalles Theological Seminary, where he graduated in the year 1894.

On arriving he found a small membership and an indebtedness on the building of $10,000. He has been elected and paid for, costing $23,000, and the membership of the church has increased from 84 to 402. Also the Second and Third German Baptist churches of this city were organized from members dismissed from the First church for that purpose.

Dr. Kratt has baptized 450 persons, and of whom are now in the ministry and one preparing for the ministry, and two ladies have gone out as missionaries to the foreign field.

Last Sunday was a great day with the church, the member commemorated the event by raising $1800 toward the endowment of McMinnville college.

Unity and progress have been a marked feature of this church from the beginning of his pastorate, and the afternoon meetings will be held in the church as high esteem as is Dr. Kratt.

Dr. Woods at White Temple.

At the White Temple at 11 a. m., Dr. E. A. Woods will preach, taking for his theme "The Gospel of Christ—A Message of Good Cheer."

Dr. Woods is well known in Portland, having been the successful pastor of the First Baptist church of Cleveland, Ohio, and also of the First Baptist church in San Francisco, and has been connected with the educational work of the denomination, as well.

The Temple quartet will sing "There is Rest" by Havens, and the offertory solo will be sung by Mrs. W. H. Jones.

In the evening the quartet will render the anthem "God is Love," by Shelly, and Miss Emma Kippel will sing "Still, Still With Thee."
