Mother and Infant Are Lost in Flood In Eastern Oregon

Pendleton, Or., July 3.—A bank of water 15 feet high sweeping down McDonald canyon crushed the home of Mrs. M. C. McCabe, 3s years old, Saturday night, drowning her and her infant child. Mrs. McCabe, with her three children, was in the house at the time and had no warning off the approach of the flood waters caused by a cloudburst over the upper Bitter creek canyon, 43 miles southwest of * Pendleton. The other two children were # rescued by men at the house. The flood caused considerable damage to the alfalfa crop of Hog Hollow.

Mrs. McCabe was a native of Ireland, coming to I'matilla county 14 years ago. Her husband, a cattleman, was in Heppner at the time of the disaster.

Mrs. McCabe's body was recovered Sunday morning five * miles down the canyon from her home. The body of the baby was also recovered. The storm's death toll is now women having been drowned
