What Society is Doing BY NONA LAWLER

parties of the summer season was that given last evening by Miss Margaret Porter at the beautiful home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Andrew R. Porter, in Irving-More than 100 members of the younger set shared Miss Porter's hospitality. The spacious residence and he verandas and surrounding grounds were gaily decorated and lighted with lanterns and presented a festive appearance. The house was decorated with great bowls of lovely spring blossoms. Supper was served at midnight. Mr. and Mrs. Porter assisted their daughter in receiving. Miss Porter was attired in an exquisite Frenchy creation of pink tulle. Guest From Delamare Honored.

Mrs. Frank Glover was hostess last Wednesday at a Kensington tea given in compliment to Miss Genevieve Shankland, of Wilmington, Del. afternoon was spent in music and fancy work. Tea was served in Mrs. Frank Stone's apartment, which had been turned over to the hostess for the afternoon. The tables were decorated in red roses and the rooms were graced with Canterbury bells and Brown-eyed Busans. The place-cards were tiny envelopes, and each one contained the guest's fortune. These were read after refreshments were served. Mrs. A. A. Pompe's card prophesied the marriage of her daughter, Miss Pearl Pompe, and Harley Garthwaite. This was a delightful surprise, and the bride-elect was immediately showered with congratulations and good wishes. Those present were: Miss Gneevieve Shankland of Wilmington; Miss Claire Kiggins, of Washington, D. C.; Mesdames Frank Fox, Charles E. Watts, William Shaw, Graham Stell, Frank Cortelyou, W B. Bonekemper, John Urquerhardt, Charles Taylor, Harry Dunlap, A. A. Pompe, Roy Force, Herman Funk, R. Thompson, Roland Dart, Misses Lillan Norma Sparks. Pompe, Helen Salisbury, Bess Sanderson, all of Vancouver, Wash.; Mesdames C. C. Crawford, Philip Wilson, Roy Price, T. C. Shankland, Fred E. Stone, William Barton, Louis Prince, Markaret Wilbur, Edward Troch, A. R. Munger, and Misses Mildred Corliss, Helen Hudson, Henita Mayer, Ruth Bradford, of Portland.

The tea table was centered with pink rosebuds and ferns and was presided over by Mrs. Frank Spencer. atias Thielsen is one of the most charming girls in Salem society. received her earlier education in Salem. later graduating from St. Helen's Hall. She is the only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry B. Thielsen, a sister of William H. and Frederic D. Thielsen of this city and Edward Thielsen of San Francisco. Mr. Washburne is a son of Mrs. Minnle Washburne of Eugene, where she is an active clubwoman. Mr. Washburne fas one brother, Chester Washburne, a prominent geologist in New York. He is the juntor member of the firm of McMorran & Washburne. As yet Miss Thielsen and Mr. Washburne have made no definite plans for the wedding.

Mrs. Reed Is Honored.

One of the most delightful social events of last week at La Grande occurred Monday afternoon at the park when Mrs. Reed's former pupils, Mrs. A. B. Parker, Mrs. W. J. Church, Mrs. Harry M. Bouvy and Mrs. A. L. Richardson, entertained in honor of Mrs. Reed, immediately after her concert at the Chautauqua. California poppies were used profuse'; in decoration, little baskets of the flowers being artistically arranged on the mantel and on the table where an elegant centerpiece of white lace over yellow attracted much

During the afternoon more than a hundred people met Mrs. Reed, who was charming and gracious. Mrs. E. P. Mossman and Mrs. D. M. Clark presided at the punch bowl, and assisting in serving were the Misses Ruth Russell, Nell Grimmett, Zoe Bragg, Ethel Wright, Ruma Bacon and Marjorie Silverthorn. Further assisting the hostesses were Mrs. Hai Bohnenkamp, Mrs ' H I pton and Miss Hattle Short Many beautiful flowers were received by Mrs. Reed, one especially pretty banket of pink rosebuds being pre sented by her pupils in token of their high esteem for her. Her recital was extremely well rendered and equally Franklin Allen Wedded.

The many Portland friends of Franklin S. Allen will be interested to know of his marriage to Miss Katherine Weir Babcock of Jersey City which was solemnized in that city last week. The young people left immediately for Washington, D. C., and Virginia where they will visit the state university where Mr. Allen was a student. Mr. Allen is a graduate of the University of Oregon and is accounted one of the most brilliant young men ever turned out of the school of journalism. He served for a time on Eugene and Portland newspapers and is now associated with the National Street Railway Advertising company with headquarters there and it is there he will take his bride to live. Mrs. Allen is a young woman of unusual accomplishment, a musician and a graduate of Moun Holyoke, Simmons college, Boston and the Boston Children's hospital.
