

HAPPENINGS SOCIETY

MISS MARION CUTLER OF SEATTLE GUEST OF VIRGINIA McDONOUGH

MISS VIRGINIA McDONOUGH

MISS ELSIE OBERDORFER

MISS LORETTA HARDY

MISS HELEN PAGE, DAUGHTER OF MR. & MRS. FRED H. PAGE

decided upon Monday evening for their annual links. It is to be a "Shakespearean Dream," a reading with accompanying tableaux and pantomime and to be held in Mrs. H. C. Wortman's garden.

Mrs. Chester Griffin Murphy entertained with a small bridge tea Monday afternoon to meet Mrs. Palmer Fuller of San Francisco and Miss Frances Burkhalter of Los Angeles. The rooms were ornamented with summer blossoms and ferns. Those enjoying the afternoon were Mrs. A. D. Norris, Mrs. William H. Lines, Mrs. Henry Wessinger, Mrs. Carl Wernicke, Mrs. Ellsworth V. Vachon, Mrs. Frederick Green, Mrs. Homeyne Pierson, Mrs. Morris H. Whitehouse, Miss Stella Frohman and Miss Isabella Gaud.

Mrs. John H. Blackburn, wife of Lieutenant Blackburn, recruiting officer for the naval militia, entertained with a small but very beautifully appointed luncheon Wednesday of last week to meet Mrs. Edson E. Scranton, wife of Captain Scranton, commander of the Marblehead. At a table made exquisitely lovely with Cecil Brunner roses and ferns, covers were laid for Mrs. Scranton, Mrs. E. H. Rixey, Mrs. J. A. B. Sinclair, Mrs. Hamilton Weir, Mrs. Walter O. Haines, Mrs. William H. Staiger and the hostess.

Mrs. Thomas Carrick Burke invited guests to the Crystal room of the Benson for an afternoon musicale Friday. Miss Evelyn Padock pianist, presented the program assisted by Miss Ruth Johns, soprano, and Miss Dorothy Fraser, violinist. Miss Genevieve Fraser accompanying her sister on the piano.

Mrs. Theodore Nicolai entertained Thursday afternoon for her house guest, Mrs. Emma Copland Duncan of San Francisco. Twelve guests were bidden for tea and the afternoon was passed in sewing. Thursday of the previous week Mrs. Nicolai asked a group of frinds to meet Mrs. Duncan at luncheon, and next Thursday she plans a similar affair.

The following from the Medford Mail-Tribune is of local interest:

Mrs. Walter Bowne gave an afternoon tea in honor of Mrs. Guy Talbot and Miss Hazel Crocker Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. David C. Lewis entertained with a dinner party Tuesday evening for the pleasure of their house guests, Mr. and Mrs. Guy Webster Talbot.

Mrs. E. F. Guthrie entertained with a bridge luncheon Tuesday afternoon in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Guy Talbot and Miss Hazel Crocker of Portland.

Mrs. Frank Glover was a recent hostess at Kensington tea given in compliment to Miss Genevieve Shankland, of Wilmington, Del. The afternoon was spent in music and fancy work. Tea was served in Mrs. Frank Stone's apartment, which had been turned over to the hostess for the afternoon. The tables were decorated in red roses and the rooms were graced with Canterbury bells and brown-eyed Susans. The place-cards were tiny envelopes, and each one contained the guest's fortune. These were read after refreshments were served. Mrs. A. A. Pompe's card prophesied the marriage of her daughter, Miss Pearl Pompe, and Harley Garthwaite. This was a delightful surprise, and the bride-elect was immediately showered with congratulations and good wishes. Those present were: Miss Genevieve Shankland of Wilmington; Miss Claire Kiggins of Washington, D. C.; Mesdames Frank Fox, Charles E. Watts, William Shaw, Graham Stell, Frank Cortelyou, W. B. Bonekemper, John Uroverhardt, Charles Taylor, Harry Dunlap, A. A. Pompe, Roy Force, Herman Funk, R. Thompson, Roland Dart, Misses Lillian Conaway, Norma Sparks, Pearl Pompe, Helen Sallsbury, Bees Sanderson, all of Vancouver, Wash.; Mesdames C. C. Crawford, Philip Wilson, Roy Price, T. C. Shankland, Fred E. trained at The Dalles by Reed college chums, Miss Wilma Donnell and Miss Erma Bennett, the latter entertained a group of girls at a theatre party Thursday night, asking Misses Mary and Helen Gray, Miss Donnell, Miss Catherine Anderson, Miss Alice Gunning, Miss Margaret Maier, Miss Gaud Harriman and Miss Esther Leas to enjoy the evening with Miss Leas. Miss Donnell entertained for Miss Leas Friday afternoon, placing three tables for five hundred.

Miss Sue Frances Krueger of this city called June 15 from Seattle on the steamer Mariposa for an extended visit at Matanuska, Alaska, where she will be the guest of her brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Edwin F. Krueger.

Miss Krueger was extensively entertained prior to her departure and will be greatly missed by a large circle of friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Jolly, after an extended visit of several months with Mrs. Jolly's sister, Mrs. G. C. Prohaska of 318 East Thirty-fifth street, will leave Thursday for their home in Detroit, Mich. Mr. Jolly is a retired capitalist of Detroit. Both he and his wife are very much pleased with Portland and think they may make their home here permanently later.

Mr. Alfred H. Parkhurst and daughter arrived at Medford, Or., Sunday, and were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Will G. Steele, Mr. Parkhurst and son Asa came down from Crater lake Tuesday, and they all returned that morning for the lake for the season. Mr. Parkhurst stated that they hope to have everything in operation and the road open about July 10 to 15.

Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Gordon and George Gordon have returned from Seattle where they went to attend the marriage of Miss Esther May Taylor and Clarence Esco Ridgeway. The ceremony took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Brinkerhoff on Queen Anne hill and was witnessed by a large number of relatives and friends.

Congratulations are being showered upon Mr. and Mrs. Harold W. Graham (Ruth Foran) whose home at East 11th and Weidler streets, in Irvington, was crowded with the arrival June 24, of a baby boy, Robert Norman. Among the tiny arrival's relatives who are rejoicing in his coming is his great, great grandmother, Mrs. McBride, of Walsburg, Wash.

Mr. and Mrs. Anderson Cannon and children of Portland are visiting at the Fish Meadows, the country residence of the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Jones. The Cannons motored to Albany, where they will be the guests of Mrs. Mrs. Rocky Mason and Miss Flora Mason until after the Fourth of July.

A. W. Hayward of Portland is among the guests at the Banff Springs hotel, Banff, where their royal highnesses the Duke and Duchess of Connaught and the Princess Patricia are spending a fortnight.

Miss Carolyn S. Simon, who has been taking vocal lessons in New York during the past eight months, will arrive in Portland on Monday. Miss Simon is accompanied by her aunt, Miss Sonnenfeld.

Mr. and Mrs. George L. Horseman of Weston, Or., are visiting their daughter, Mrs. Walter McCredie. They will leave next week for Newport, where they have taken a cottage for the season.

Miss Margaret Rodgers of Salem has as her house guests three charming Portland bodes, the Misses Louise Linticum, Margaret Biddle and Marcelle Carlock. The girls went to Salem Sunday and will visit for several days.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul B. Semler, 415 East Twenty-fifth street north, are receiving congratulations on the arrival of their son, born on June 25.

Misses Mary Z. Curtin, Marjorie Morgan, Leta Humphrey, prominent social daughters, Misses Queenie and Frances, have taken permanent apartments at Hotel Nortonia.

Miss Helen Hughes left Saturday night for Anaconda, Mont., where she will visit her sister, Mrs. L. L. La Rose.

Mrs. Rose Courten Reed and Miss Mildred Kingsley have returned from a three days' hiking trip along the coast.

Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Wyman and Fay Wyman motored from North Yakima to Portland and are registered at the Mallory.

Mrs. Dr. E. L. Metcahan and Mrs. Dr. J. H. Miller left Saturday for Newport, Or., where they have taken a cottage for a month.

Mrs. Clifford Brown and small sons of Salem are guests of Mrs. Brown's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Bretherton.

Mrs. J. E. Brady and son, Charles of Spokane have arrived for a visit with relatives and friends.

Mr. and Mrs. F. F. Griffith and daughters, Harriet and Janet, are now domiciled at the Mallory.

Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Cannon left Saturday for a brief stay at Cannon Beach.

Mrs. John Alchison left Thursday for San Francisco, where she will join her husband for about a month's visit.

D. B. Hayes, Shanghai, is registered at Hotel Mallory.

SOCIETY PERSONALS

Miss Jennie McDevitt and Miss Olive Smith have arrived from Spokane for a visit with friends, with whom they will later journey to California.

Mrs. Henry R. Wahoske and little son have returned to their home in Seattle after a visit with friends here and at Seaside.

Mrs. David Levy of 552 Third street has moved to the residence of her brother, J. Friedenthal, 696 Everett street.

T. R. Dettermann was host to a delightful stag luncheon at the Mallory on Saturday. The guests were members of the National Biscuit Co.

Col. Chas. L. Potter with Mrs. Potter and daughter, Miss Nicholl have taken up their residence at the Mallory.

Mrs. M. Wall and her daughter Hortense have taken apartments at Hotel Nortonia, where they will remain indefinitely.

Miss Leone Cass Baer left Thursday for Billings, Mont., where she will pass a month with relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. William A. Sellwood announce the birth of a baby daughter, July 4.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank P. King and Miss Harriet McLaughlin, was dressed in blue taffeta, carrying a bridal bouquet of sweet peas, was attended by her sister, Miss Mae McLaughlin. The bridegroom, Joseph Santere, was attended by his brother-in-law, Fred Austin, of Portland. Only the closest friends and relatives were present. After the ceremony the wedding breakfast was served at the home of the bride's mother. A large reception was held in the evening. They received many beautiful and useful presents.

Milton, Or., July 8.—Standing beneath a huge bell of pink and white La France roses, with a background of Oregon grape, Vera Estelle Putnam, popular Milton girl, became the bride of Edwin William Orr of Coos Bay, Wednesday evening, June 28, at the home of the bride's father, W. E. Putnam. Elder H. W. Decker of College Place, an uncle of the bride, performed the ceremony. The bride was gowned in brocaded white, charmeuse, with rhinestone trimmings. Her veil was caught with sprays of lilies of the valley and maidenhair fern, and she carried white roses and lilies of the valley. Preceding the ceremony, Miss Lonita Rice, a cousin of the bride, sang "To Have, to Hold, to Love," accompanied by Mrs. C. B. Unzicker. This was followed by the wedding march, which was played by Mrs. C. B. Hobbs. The bride came in on the arm of her father, who gave her away. She was preceded by her two little sisters, Jessie Myrtelle and Alta, as flower girls. They were dressed in net over pale yellow. Miss Ruth Orr, sister of the bridegroom, was maid of honor, while the bridegroom was attended by Frank Putnam, brother of the bride. After the ceremony Miss Lonita Rice sang "Cupid's Conquest," accompanied by Mrs. C. B. Hobbs. Mrs. Dr. H. E. McQuay sang "A Perfect Day." A delightful luncheon was served in

WEDDINGS

A quiet wedding was solemnized at the Holy Redeemer church on Williams avenue and Portland boulevard Thursday morning at high mass. The bride,

(Continued on Following Page)

Summer Clearance

of This Most Exclusive High-Class Stock

COATS, SUITS, FROCKS, BLOUSES

Greatly Reduced

$25 Suits and Coats	$12.50	$35 Suits and Coats	$17.50
$45 Suits and Coats	$22.50	$55 Suits and Coats	$27.50
$65 Suits and Coats	$32.50	$75 Suits and Coats	$37.50

Every garment selected with discriminating taste for a clientele seeking individuality and distinction in outer apparel.

DRESSES REDUCED

Beautiful filmy frocks of net, voile, batiste, organdie and novelty materials, chiffon taffeta, crepe, Georgette, charmeuse and crepe de chine in white and all desirable shades.

1/4 to 1/2 Former Prices

EXCLUSIVE NEW BLOUSES SPECIALLY PRICED

$2.50, $2.75, $3.00, $3.75, $4.50, $5.50, $7.50 to $15.00

SPECIAL

One lot Suits and Short Silk Coats in white, light colors and checks, formerly to $35, to close out $5.00

C. E. HOLLIDAY CO.

355 Alder St., at Park

Mrs. M. M. Wyatt of Santa Cruz, Cal., a pioneer of '22, is the house guest of Clarence E. Stoba, of South Mount Tabor and will be the hostess for the rest of the summer. Mrs. Wyatt is the mother of Jonathan Bourne, Jr., of Boston and J. E. Wyatt of Portland and is prominently connected with some of the oldest families of the state.

Miss Carolyn Robbins and Miss Alice Farr, who are visiting here from Minnesota, are being showered with a number of small but none the less delightful attentions. Today they are luncheon guests of Mrs. Wright and Mrs. Pyatt at Garden Home. Thursday Miss Camille Doeh gave a tea for them. Monday they were honored with a luncheon given by Mrs. Folger Johnson and later with a tea presided over by Mrs. Harold M. Sawyer. Last Saturday Miss Mildred Hestmason gave a luncheon for the out-of-town visitors.

Announcements have been received from New York city of the marriage of Miss Christel Elizabeth Zimmerman and Fletcher Joseph Plummer. The wedding took place in May, Sunday, the 14th, at St. Stephen's cathedral, New York city. Mrs. Plummer is the daughter of the late Ferdinand Zimmerman and Mrs. Zimmerman, an old and prominent Portland family. She is a sister of Mrs. Harry Klosterman and Fred Zimmerman. The couple are making their home at Boston, 728 Commonwealth avenue.

One of the most delightful social events of last week at La Grande occurred Monday afternoon at the park pavilion, when Mrs. Rose Courser Reed's former pupils, Mrs. A. B. Parker, Mrs. W. J. Church, Mrs. Harry M. Bouvy and Mrs. A. L. Richardson, entertained in honor of Mrs. Reed, immediately after her concert at the Chautauqua. California poppies were used profusely in decoration, little baskets of the flowers being artistically arranged on the mantel and on the table where an elegant centerpiece of white lace over yellow attracted much attention.

During the afternoon more than a hundred people met Mrs. Reed, who was charming and gracious. Mrs. E. P. Mossman and Mrs. D. M. Clark presided at the punch bowl, and assisting in serving were the Misses Ruth Russell, Nell Grimmett, Zoe Bragg, Ethel Wright, Ruma Bacon and Marjorie Silvertorn. Further assisting the hostesses were Mrs. Hal Bohnenkamp, Mrs. C. H. Upton and Miss Hattie Short. Many beautiful flowers were received by Mrs. Reed, one especially pretty basket of pink rosebuds being presented by her pupils in token of their high esteem for her. Her recital was extremely well rendered and equally well received.

Miss Rosetta Klockler entertained her many young friends with a dancing party Thursday evening at the Hotel Mallory. Miss Klockler is the daughter of Oscar Klockler, British vice-consul at Port Townsend, Wash. Mr. and Mrs. Klockler received with their daughter. Miss Klockler was assisted by Misses Dorothy Hunkler and Gretchen Colton. The guest list included: Misses Helen Morgan, Margaret Bronaugh, Elizabeth Brive, Charlotte Breyman, Katharine Beck, Enola Bracene, Anna May Bronaugh, Lois Blackford, Ruth Connell, Gretchen Colton, Virginia Cross, Mabel Clark, Dorothy Englehart, Dorothy Hunkler, Nancy Holt, Marjory Hall, Rosa Irving, Ruth Hagedorn, Mary Irving, Eva Jacobsen, Philena King, Margaret Marvin, Barbara Macey, Emily Rupert, Elizabeth Richardson, Dorothy Elizabeth Turner, Nell Richmond, Eloise White, Jean Stevens, Mary Woodward, Minette Shub, Virginia Thompson, Katherine Schubel, Ruth Riley, Dorothy Strawbridge, L. Boozer, Dorothy Stine, F. Bhishe, Bruce Balzer, Alexander Bell, Milton Cozart, Mortimer Brown, Ransome Cook, Eugene Comstock, Orville Comstock, Edmund Coman, Carrington Dinwiddie, Reed Ellsworth, James Gamble, Edwin Hamblet, Elwood Gallien, George Henry, Preston Holt, Hubert Hall, Fred Jacobs, Minor Keeler, George Lawrence, Mr. Rowles, Jack Lahn, Huntington Maloney, W. MacKenzie, Robert Macey, Hughes Martin, Quincey Muntze, Frank Nau, Lower Paget, Allen Russell, H. C. Herson, E. C. Stoba, Jack Sutoff, N. Stevens, Russell Sewall, Duncan Strong, Ralph Simmons, Charles Schnabel, Charles Smith, Kenneth Warren, Carl Wilson, John Wilson, Robert Warren, Leicester White, Robert Warrack, Gerald Sebia, Howard Strawbridge, W. G. MacKenzie, Mr. Young, William Hiers.

Miss Hope Miller has returned home from school at Washington, D. C., and is a guest of Miss Margaret Welch for a few weeks. Friday evening Miss Welch gave a dinner for her guest and Saturday evening Miss Nan Jordan was hostess at a dinner and dancing party for her.

For the members of the Delta Gamma Sorority, Miss Welch entertained yesterday afternoon at her home, 2170 East Morrison street, with a matinee dance.

At the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Louis L. Smith, at West Cal., Miss Beatrice Evelyn Smith and Thomas R. Townsend were married July 1 by Rev. Robert Bruce Stewart, minister of the First Presbyterian church of that place. The bride is clever and talented girl, a graduate of the University of Washington and later attended Simmons college at Boston. She is a member of the Chi Omega sorority. Mr. Townsend is the son of Dr. J. A. Townsend of 333 Portland boulevard, West Portland. He is a graduate of the University of Oregon, class of '09, and was president of the student body during his senior year. He edited the Oregon Weekly, now called the Emerald, for three years, and is a member of the Beta Theta Pi fraternity. Mr. Townsend was formerly connected with the University of Oregon extension division. The couple will be at home to their friends after the wedding at 1111 Richmond avenue, Salem, Or., where Mr. Townsend is in the employ of the Allen & Lewis company.

For the pleasure of Miss Harriett Leas of Portland, who is being enter-

Fast Express Just Brought Us

25 Smart New "Pongette" Sports Dresses

MONDAY $6.95

Can you imagine a more striking Summer costume than this new Sports Dress illustrated? Only 25 of them Monday at an extraordinary price.

"Pongette" is a new material closely resembling fine silk pongee. Soft and silky. Blazer stripe belted coat with large sailor collar. Tan, with rose, green or blue stripes. Plain pongee color skirt. Just the Dress for your beach trip and for all-around Summer wear. The 25 will go in a hurry tomorrow at $6.95.

Striped Sports Skirts

Awning and blazer stripes in all the stunning color combinations. Silverbrooms, Tickings, Crepes, are among the favored materials. Swagger sports models. Priced Monday at—

$3.45 $4.95 $5.95

Suits $15

A lot of wonderful values, including Wool Suits up to $45. See them Monday!

350 Cool New Summer Blouses, Monday—$1

Dainty striped frill Blouses are among the dozens of fetching waists here tomorrow at a Dollar! You'll need a lot of cool Blouses for Summer. 350 new ones to choose from Monday, $1.

"Jack Tar" Middies $1.25

A "Jack Tar" label is the guarantee of a good Middy. Plain white, and trimmed in colors. Special values Monday, $1.25.

Smart Silk Umbrellas—$3.95 and $5.35.

EMPORIUM PORTLAND'S

124 to 128 Sixth St. Just off Washington

SEE OUR MILLINERY AD. IN TODAY'S OREGONIAN

ART EMBROIDERY & BUTTON CO.

ACCORDION, SIDE BOX and FANCY DRESS PLEATING. Embroidery, Sealing, Hemming, Buttoning, Etc. Edging, Sewing, etc. TO ORDER, your own material, any style. 1032 Morgan Bldg. Phone Main 5948.

S. & H. GREEN TRADING STAMPS.