

THREE SUBJECTS ARE EXPECTED TO BE USED IN ATTACKING WILSON

Administration Leaders Expect Mexico, Foreign Relations, Business Attacks.

WILSON WRITING SPEECH

Republican Chairman Willcox Denies Mexican Attacks Are Based on "Sinister Influence."

Washington, July 29.—(U. P.)—Administration leaders have their political eyes and ears turned toward next Monday. On that day Charles Evans Hughes will receive official notification of his nomination for president, and will reply with an address, marking the opening of his campaign. Those close to the president say they are "not worried" about what the former justice may say. Nevertheless they are certainly "keenly interested." They believe the speech will be divided into three main features.

A criticism of the president's Mexican policy and foreign policy. General charges that the Democratic party is unable to cope with the business upheavals bound to come after the war. Appeal for the restoration of the Republican party to power, bringing a return of respect, bread and businesslike administration at home. The president has not waited for Hughes' speech to prepare his own address of acceptance. He has been working on it for some time. One of his intimate friends expressed the belief today that the draft was completed, subject to changes should the Republican candidate spring any surprises. Senator James, who will notify the president of his nomination, is, however, waiting on Hughes' speech Monday before outlining what he will say at notification meeting in New Jersey.

"Sinister Influence" Unfounded.

New York, July 29.—First formal indication that Mexico will be the main issue on which the Republicans will attack the Wilson administration in the presidential election was contained in a statement issued Friday by National Chairman Willcox. The statement denied the Republican party's criticism of the handling of the Mexican problem was "dictated by any sinister influence," and bitterly assailed Wilson's administration. The Willcox statement follows: "All statements made in newspapers or elsewhere to the effect that the attitude of the Republican party towards the situation in Mexico is dictated by any sinister influence, corporate or otherwise, are contrary to the facts. Our interest in Mexican affairs is the result solely and exclusively of the maladministration of American relations with Mexico and the various Mexican factions. The weakness of the Wilson administration in dealing with the Mexican question is so fully before the American people that it is a vital issue in the presidential election. It is therefore not possible for the Democratic party to evade the responsibility for conditions in Mexico by ascribing ulterior motives. The issue is plain and clear. The principle of the Republican party is to insist upon the full protection of American citizens and American rights."

Case at Albany Lost By Portland Concern

Judge Galloway Holds Good Contract of Stephens-Russell Co. to Buy Land From H. B. Moyer, Deceased.

Albany, Or., July 29.—Circuit Judge William Galloway Thursday decided in favor of the plaintiff in the case of W. P. Elmore, administrator of the estate of H. B. Moyer, against the Stephens-Russell company of Portland, a suit to enforce the performance of a contract. The amount of the contract, $50,000 and costs, was awarded the plaintiffs. No interest was asked. The suit was brought by Elmore as administrator as a result of the failure of defendants to complete their contract with H. B. Moyer, deceased. In 1907 the Stephens-Russell company contracted to purchase from Moyer a tract of 240 acres of timber and sawmill property near Brownville. Later part of the timber burned and defendants sold the sawmill for $2000. They refused to pay for the land, saying that they had only purchased the timber, and also pointed to a judgment held against another Moyer, but not pertaining to this case. Judge Galloway held the contract good.

The south end of the project is about seven miles north of Salem, and the district extends about 11 miles north to a point near Woodburn. According to the report, 15,000 acres would be included, and the area would be drained through 15 open ditches, thus dividing the project into 13 units. POKE BONNET FOUND TO BE FAVORITE STYLE

Manager and Buyer of Millinery Department of Emporium Returns, Reporting Paris Is Losing Hold.

"New York people are talking about three things just at present—sharks, some kind of infantile paralysis, I am mighty glad to hear of the shark, a terrible zone for the cool breezes of Oregon," said H. I. Kerbl, buyer and manager of the millinery department at the Emporium. He has just returned from a two-year visit to the style centers. "New York is still in the throes of money-spending and good times," says Mr. Kerbl. "One of the biggest hotels with 1500 rooms, has increased their rates over 50 per cent, and it is hard to get accommodations even at the advanced prices. "About the number of Parisian millinery importations are arriving, but they will not be followed as religiously as they have in former years. "The New York dealers are showing, but this season they are following many of their own dates. The idea that America can create for herself styles just as chic as Paris, is gaining credence more and more. "I predict that for early fall the poke bonnet, just like strawbonnets used to wear, will be the prevailing style. Nine out of ten hats being worn in New York today are on this order. Purple is the leading color for millinery. George Noyes, buyer of garments at the Emporium, will return from New York about the middle of August.
