

ACHIEVEMENTS ARE SET FORTH IN LIST BY VANCE McCORMICK

Wilson Administration Has Accomplished Much, Says National Chairman.

MOST IMPORTANT CITED

Measures Provide for Better Transportation Facilities, Better Protection of Workers, Cleaner Elections.

New York, Aug. 1.—The achievements of the Wilson administration as reasons for Progressives to support President Wilson for reelection are set forth by Vance McCormick, national chairman of the Democratic party, in a public statement.

First—The rural credits act, which permits the farmer the same access to credit facilities that is enjoyed by the other elements of our citizenship.

Second—The income tax law, which measures up to the Progressive requirements for issue of currency as a governmental function under a system whose control should be lodged with the government and should be protected from domination or manipulation by Wall Street or by any special interest.

Third—The good roads law, which extends federal aid to road building, thereby insuring the extension of the rural free delivery service.

Fourth—The trade commission law, which fully satisfies the progressive demand for a strong federal administrative commission of high standing that shall maintain permanent, active supervision over interstate commerce.

Fifth—The eight hour law applying to work done for the government as well as work done by the government.

Sixth—The eight hour law applying to female employees in District of Columbia over which congress has jurisdiction.

to make physical valuation of railroads.

Seventeenth—The Sherwood pension bill which must meet the progressive idea of a wise and just policy of pensioning American soldiers and sailors and their widows and children.

Eighteenth—The parcel post law.

Nineteenth—The creation of a tariff commission is assured at this session and congress and the administration is in contrast with the practices of coercion and assessment of subordinate employees for which the Progressive party condemned the Wilson administration.

Twentieth—The McGillicuddy bill for the prevention of industrial accidents.

Twenty-first—The conservation measures.

Twenty-second—The flood control bill.

Twenty-third—The minimum wage standard.

Twenty-fourth—An inheritance tax provision in the omnibus revenue bill, the St. Louis platform commits the Democratic party to measures embodying the following ideas:

Twenty-fifth—Minimum wage standard for working women, the prohibition of night work for women, the establishment of an eight hour day for women and young persons, one day of rest in seven for all wage earners, an eight hour day in continuous 24 hour industries as was demanded by the Progressive platform of 1912.

Aviator Drops 1500 Feet; Limp to Wife

Joe Boquel's Machine Is Demolished on San Francisco Beach but He Makes Miraculous Escape.

San Francisco, Aug. 1.—Joe Boquel fell 1500 feet, his aeroplane last night landing on the ocean beach without serious injury.

Boquel's machine was demolished but he limped away from the wreck to his wife's side and told her he was all right and would fly again as soon as he could get another machine.

The fall was staged in highly dramatic manner. Boquel's escape from death was marvelous.

He ascended from the beach near the foot of Sloat boulevard at 9 o'clock.

After reaching a height of 2000 or 2500 feet, the aviator started to make his loop. He put out his white lights. He was lost to the spectators. The red lights, giving the signal for the dip and the loop never came out. The engine died. The people watching for him could not imagine where he had gone or what had happened. They waited in awed silence.

Boquel was falling.

STATE ENGINEER HAS INSPECTED HIGHWAYS IN SOUTHERN OREGON

Outlines Plan for Road From Crater Lake to Lake Odell and Crescent.

Medford, Or., Aug. 1.—(State Engineer Lewis has completed his inspection of public highway matters in southern Oregon. In addition to attending to details of the preliminary arrangements for commencement of work on the Siskiyou grade of the Pacific highway and of building the road around the Billings hill and under the Southern Pacific tracks between Medford and Ashland, Mr. Lewis outlined the plan for a public road from Crater Lake to Lake Odell and Crescent to connect with the Portland loop road.

In view of the fact that the state is expending $1000 on the Crater Lake highway on work to be completed within six weeks, the state engineer will ask for federal aid in the extension of the road from the lake to the loop road leading to Eugene.

McGinn Dismisses Subornation Case

Judge Takes Case Into His Own Hands and Declares State Should Not Take Part of P. M. T. & F. Co.

After the state had made its opening argument and one witness had been put on the stand Judge McGinn yesterday afternoon took the trial of Clyde E. R. Wallace, charged with subornation of perjury, in his own hands and dismissed the suit.

Wallace is charged with subornation of perjury in a suit brought by his wife, Mrs. Selma Wallace, against the Portland Railway, Light & Power company for damages for personal injuries.

Judge McGinn in a long statement said that the matter was entirely civil in nature and not a question of criminal adjudication.

"It is not becoming," he said, "that the state should engage in taking the part of the Portland Railway, Light & Power company."

Following this dismissal he discharged the jury and announced that he was going away on a vacation to regain his health.

The Wallace case has been on trial for some time.

Judge McGinn also ordered Edison K. Can and Thomas Molesworth, who had confessed to subornation of perjury in the same suit, to withdraw their pleas of guilty and accept a dismissal of the case.

Seventh—The eight hour law applying to female employees in District of Columbia over which congress has jurisdiction.

Eighth—An eight hour provision for postoffice clerks and carriers.

Ninth—An eight hour provision applicable to civilians engaged in the manufacture of ordnance and powder for the government.

Twentieth—The conservation measures.

Twenty-first—The flood control bill.

Twenty-second—The minimum wage standard.

Twenty-third—The inheritance tax provision in the omnibus revenue bill, the St. Louis platform commits the Democratic party to measures embodying the following ideas:

Twenty-fourth—Minimum wage standard for working women, the prohibition of night work for women, the establishment of an eight hour day for women and young persons, one day of rest in seven for all wage earners, an eight hour day in continuous 24 hour industries as was demanded by the Progressive platform of 1912.

Twenty-fifth—The abolition of the convict labor contract system substituting the system of prison production for government consumption only and the application of prisoners' earnings to the support of their families as demanded by the Progressive platform of 1912.

Twenty-sixth—The just pensioning of American soldiers and sailors. Should be enough the Republican party platform adopted at Chicago omitted to mention these matters.
