CALIFORNIANS WIN ONE MATCH AT NET FROM EASTERN STARS

Defeat Worst Ever Handed a Western Aggregation; National Champions Win.

CHURCH IN FINE FORM

Miles, of Boston, Which Gave the Easterners a Clean Sweep.

Forest Hills, L. I., Aug. 5 - (U. P.) -R. Norris Williams, of Philadelphia, and G. E. M. Church, representing the east, won the final match of the lawn tennis series against the west from R. Lindley Murray and Will C. Davis this afternoon, three sets to two. scores were 6-8, 6-2, 6-2, 1-6 and 6-3. The victory of the easterners com-pletes the worst defeat ever handed a western tennis aggregation. The east won six of the reven matches, taking a clean sweep in the singles and allowing the Californians only the lone vic tory of Johnston and Griffin in the doubles this afternoon.

Although they numbered in their ranks national and intersectional champions, the westerners were completely outclassed. Every match but one resulted in a clean cut eastern victury. The Atlantic coast men best them at their own game. They outdrave them and outfought them at the

Defeat Is a Surprise,

The decisive defeat of the westerners in the singles came as a complete surprise to followers of the racquet game. When they took the courts the Pacific coast players presented the greatest array of terrific hitters and skilled campuet wielders that ever Lockinvaried out of the land of the setting sun. Yet the eastern stars simply slaughtered them.

In a terrific battle George M. Church was completely outclassed by Peck Griffin. Washburn followed this by a complete victory, which he won by wearing down the plucky Murray, who was forced to default. Behr, the veteran, playing steadily, took advantage sets, while it. Norris Williams completed the cleanup of the first day by taking the fourth and deciding match from the champion, William Johnston, In five hard fought, sensational sets. Champions Victors.

IRVINGTON WILL STAGE CITY NET TITLE THIS YEAR

Large List of Players Expected for Tournament in September.

The annual city championship tennis tournament will be staged this year on the Irvington courts E. A. Johnson, chairman of the tennis committee of the Irvington club, has not yet decided upon the date of the tourney, but it will likely be held during the first part of next month. There is great interest in the net game this season and it is likely that there will be an exceptionally large list of players. Chairman McAlpin of the Multnomah Amateur Athletic club tennis committee, is planning on staging a "father and son" doubles tournament in the near future. This tourney will likely be staged following the city championship meet.

Portland has lost L. K. Richardson, the preacher-player and former Oregon champion, who was runner-up in this year's tournament on the Waverley courts. Richardson has accepted held in the office of the Laurelhurst Hayden lake recently—two accidents the call of a Philadelphia church,

SUBURBAN ROAD CONDITIONS

Motorists will find that several of the county roads are temporarily closed and that short detours will have to be made in several directions. For the benefit of the autolst, C. M. Menzies covered the various gates last night and reports:

The Canyon road is closed until further notice and automobiles desiring to so to Forest Grove ond Washington county points, directly west, will have to use either the Barnes road or the Cornell road.

At the end of the Terwilliger boulevard road work has caused considerable dust, but machines can go through and again take up the Pacific highway farther on. However, the better road is via Fulton, or the Newberg road, where points on the Pacific highway are the objective.

The Base Line road down the hill to the Portland Automobile club and the Columbia river highway is closed. Motors will take the Base Line road to the left branch beyond the Fairview road. Following that they will reach Troutdale and thence back over the Sandy river road, now completed.

The Sandy road again is closed and machines to the Columbia highway will follow out the above routing.
